PREFACE.

THE writer presents this volume to the citizens of his native city as purely a work of love. At the close of the Civil War we found, that notwithstanding the loyalty and patriotism of our city during that eventful period, and its earnest and hearty support of the National Government, that it had not only promptly furnished all the men it was called upon by the State to provide, but had actually exceeded by more than one hundred and fifty men (including those in the 40th New York Infantry) all demands made upon it, yet it had absolutely given no thought to, or made the slightest provision for, the preservation of the names or the collating of the records of those who had given of their time, their health, and their lives for the preservation of the Union and the honor and good name of the city.

Feeling assured that but a short time would elapse before many of the names as well as the honorable records of the veterans would be lost if some effort were not made to preserve them, I began in 1869 the task of collecting the individual records of all who went from Newburyport or served to its credit during the war. The work has been a long and continuous one, demanding more of my time and energy than I ever dreamed of devoting to it; and yet now that it has been completed, and the records placed in such permanent form as to insure their identity, as well as their permanency for the future, I am amply repaid.

In a work involving so many details, it would be singular indeed if errors have not occurred, but I feel assured that none will be found of so serious a character that in the future the identity of the veteran will not be clearly established. The record of the individual veteran herein presented has been verified by the army or navy discharge papers, or the records of the department. In many instances the personal history of the soldier has been copied from the company or regimental descriptive book, while the list of engagements accredited have either been taken from the soldier's discharge paper or confirmed by officers of the company to which he belonged.

In the records of some I have been confronted with the official report of "deserted;" and while it is exceedingly unpleasant to record the fact, believing that in some instances it may have been an error, yet I can pursue no other course than to follow the records of the War Department, presuming that ere this the veteran would have succeeded in amending such a record if satisfactory evidence had been presented to the department that it was either unjust or incorrect. It will be found that in some cases our records differ from the "Record of the Massachusetts Volunteers," as well as from some of the muster-rolls on file at the adjutant-general's office at the State House, in the spelling of names. In all such instances, the corrections made have been verified either by the signature of the person on the enlistment or muster-in rolls, or the city or family records. Where veterans re-enlisted under an assumed name, or in anywise changed their correct name, both their army and correct names are given.

I gratefully acknowledge my indebtedness to all who have so kindly assisted in preparing this work. To the late Hon. William H. Huse of the Newburyport Herald and a member of the city government during most of the war period, I feel particularly indebted for much valuable information and encouragement, and for a complete file of the Herald from 1861 to 1865; to the late Gen. James A. Cunningham, Adjutant-

General of the Commonwealth, for unusual privileges among the documents of his department; to Executive Secretary Edward F. Hamlin for free access to the valuable correspondence of Governor Andrew during the years of the war; and to the present Adjutant-General of the State, Gen. Samuel Dalton, and those connected with him in his department, for continued favors and kind assistance. To our worthy city clerk, George H. Stevens, who has for so many years befriended me, I am pleased to acknowledge my obligation and to express my gratitude.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF MAYOR DAVENPORT.
CONDITION OF THE COUNTRY.

Clouds and darkness are hovering over this glorious Union of ours, and seem almost ready to burst upon and dis sever it. The people have assembled during the past week to supplicate the Almighty to stay the impending danger; and it is well in times like these to invoke the aid of a power mightier than man. It is well to appeal to the Almighty to avert the terrible evil of a dissolution of the Union — this splendid Union which excites the admiration of the world. Shall it be rent asunder? God forbid. Who amongst us would be willing to close their eyes for the last time on earth, with the thought that they were to meet their sires and grandsires, and say to them, "We have done all we could to destroy the noble work which you accomplished at so much sacrifice, with so much blood?" My friends, we are bound as a people, to preserve this Union, even at the sacrifice of our best blood.

Let us as patriots and Christians make all reasonable appeals and sacrifices to the South for the purpose of perpetuating the union of these States. Let us not submit to the loss of a single star from any want on our part to do justice to the party who claim to be aggrieved. At the same time let us ask ourselves if we are willing to remain quiet and suffer the noble work which our forefathers fought for, and accomplished by so much toil and suffering, to be destroyed.

RESOLUTIONS BY THE CITY GOVERNMENT IN RELATION TO THE APPROACHING REBELLION.

Governor Andrew, the day after his inauguration as governor, ordered a salute of one hundred guns to be fired in Boston, and a national salute in fifteen other cities and towns in the Commonwealth, on January 8th, in commemoration of the battle of New Orleans, and in honor of the gallant conduct and wise forethought of Major Anderson in removing his command from Fort Moultrie to Fort Sumter in the harbor of Charleston, S. C. Newburyport was one of the places where a salute was ordered to be fired.

Monday evening, January 7th, the following was introduced by Alderman Wm. H. Huse, and unanimously adopted by the city council.

The mayor and aldermen having been ordered by His Excellency, Governor Andrew, to give the guns in their care to Capt. Nehemiah Flanders, for the purpose of firing a national salute on the 8th inst., in honor of the victory of General Jackson at New Orleans in 1815. and also in honor of the recent conduct of Major Anderson at Charleston, S.C., deem this a proper occasion to express their views: therefore:

Resolved, That while we would consider all the complaints made by the State which has voted secession, and by the other States which contemplate secession, and while we would urge upon our senators and representatives in General Court to repeal the Personal Liberty Law, and upon our senators and representatives in Congress to propose or accept such just and proper compromises as shall pacify the country, we adopt the language of General Jackson — "THE UNION, IT MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED!" And as Newburyport in all times past has been loyal to government, and patriotic in the support of law, order, and liberty, so will she again, if the occasion calls for it, pledge fortune, life, and honor in behalf of the Constitution and the Union as our fathers left them.

Resolved, That this is not a time for party or faction, and we feel justified in calling upon all our fellow-citizens to forget their past party predilections and merge in one grand Union party, where faction shall be forgotten in country, and self in patriotism; where all shall study those things that make for peace, and where those who would pluck the mote from their brother's eye will not forget the beam in their own eye.

Resolved, That in token of our fealty to the Union, — our common country, — every part of which, North and South, East and West, is alike dear to us, and alike to be regarded and defended in their interests and rights, we hereby order the city messenger to hoist, upon a flag-staff to be erected on the City Hall, the national flag — with its thirteen stripes and thirty-three stars — upon every fair day until further ordered.

General Schouler, in his History of Massachusetts in the Civil War, says:

These resolutions I believe to have been the first adopted by any city or town in the Commonwealth, or in any loyal State, having relation to the approaching rebellion.

PREPARATION BY THE STATE MILITIA FOR ACTIVE SERVICE.

January 16th. That the State might be prepared to furnish her quota upon any requisition made by the President of the United States for the maintenance of law and the suppression of rebellion, the Governor and Commander-in-Chief issued General Order No. 4, requiring the commanding officers of each company of volunteer militia to examine the rolls of his company and cause the name of each member, with his rank and place of residence, to be properly recorded, and a copy of the same to be forwarded to the office of the adjutant-general. Also that they forthwith discharge all men in their commands, who from age, physical defect, business or family causes, might be unable or indisposed to respond at once to the orders of the governor. That if any company had not the number of men allowed by law, the commanding officer should at once cause the vacancies to be filled, and the men properly drilled and uniformed, that they might be ready for any exigency whenever called upon.

ACTION BY THE CUSHING GUARDS IN RELATION TO THE ABOVE ORDER.

February 2d. Every member of the Cushing Guards was notified to meet at the armory (Saturday evening) "to hear the report of their treasurer, and to take action on General Order No. 4."

The meeting was full and enthusiastic, many of the older members of the corps being in attendance. A vote was passed "tendering the services of the company to the Commander-in-Chief of the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia if called upon to do active duty, and authorizing the armory to be opened on every Thursday evening until further notice."

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED BY LIEUT. GEORGE CREASEY AND ADOPTED BY THE COMPANY.

Whereas, Agreeable to General Order No. 4, we have assembled under circumstances of extraordinary peril to our country, not as citizens only, but as citizen soldiers duly enrolled as a part of the active militia force of Massachusetts, subject at all times to the orders of the commander-in-chief under the laws of the State:— we therefore, acknowledging this fact, in presence of the alarming condition of our public affairs, whether having their origin in the real or imaginary wrongs inflicted by one portion of our country upon the rights and institutions of the other, or instituted by the treasonable designs of internal foes, feel it to be a duty we owe to our past history as a corps, to ourselves and kindred, to our city, and above all to our country, to sacrifice all party feeling and prejudice, and with one voice declare to our superior officers that we are ready at any and all times to march in defence of that Union as a nation, that independence as a people, for which the services of those who organized this corps in 1778 was devoted:— therefore

Resolved, That the commander of this company forthwith forward to headquarters a list of the duly enrolled members of the corps, pledging to the commander-in-chief that Company A, 8th Regiment, will hold themselves ready to respond to any order coming through the regular channel.

Resolved, That the commissioned officers be directed to take such immediate action as shall place the corps in proper condition to meet any emergency that may arise.

March 2d. Capt. Nehemiah Flanders of the Cushing Guards having resigned his commission as captain, 1st Lieut. Albert W. Bartlett was elected commander.

After the election of President Lincoln in November, 1860, it became manifest that the leading men of the South not only seriously contemplated but had fully determined to secede from the national government. The course pursued by their representative politicians confirmed the belief that they were secretly preparing to contend by force of arms for the establishment of a separate government under the protection of which they could extend and enjoy their cherished and beloved institution, — slavery.

Massachusetts, true to the teaching of her sires, true to herself and to the patriotism of her sons, did not hesitate or falter; but few days elapsed after the inauguration of Governor Andrew before active measures were taken to put the volunteer militia, then numbering 5,593 men, and organized into nine regiments and three battalions of infantry; three battalions and eight unattached companies of riflemen; one battalion and five unattached companies of cavalry, — into active condition and ready for the field.

As Massachusetts was foremost in preparing to support and sustain the Union, so was South Carolina foremost in attempts to destroy it. The demand made upon Major Anderson for the surrender of Fort Sumter, April 11th, 1861, by the Confederate Government through General Beauregard, and his noble and patriotic reply, "It is a demand with which I regret that my sense of honor and my obligations to my government prevent my compliance;" the opening fire by all the rebel batteries on the morning of the 12th on the fort; the spirit and bravery with which the little garrison responded; the ineffectual attempt of the Star of the West to render assistance; the renewal of the bombardment on the 13th, the firing of hot shot by the rebels, and the burning of the barracks and magazine of the fort, and finally the evacuation by Major Anderson and his heroic command, on the afternoon of Sunday, April 14th, — created the most intense feeling among the people of the North, and was the tocsin of war.

And as the intelligence was announced by telegraph there arose one common sentiment of indignation against those who had commenced the conflict, and a determination in the hearts of the loyal North to maintain the unity and the authority of the national government.

The Daily Herald of the 15th, in an article on the "impending crisis," said:

It would have pleased us, if measures had been taken to call a National Convention fresh from the people to consult and act, for, as yet, the people have not spoken, and the sense of the nation is not known. After all means of peace were exhausted, we should not oppose war; nay, if the unity of the country demanded it, we would hail its red face and thundering voice with gladness. But so it could not be, and they have chosen to fight first. Very well, fight let it be, then, and let the guns of Sumter unite us all. Lay on! let the cannon roar! let swords and bayonets gleam wherever the sun shall shine, and the strongest party shall win. Our motto is, "Our country, right or wrong," and if it can't be our whole country, then for that section do we go in which we live; and since they determine to show us that there is a government in these States, and the battle must be fought to its bitter end, let it be fought with spirit and determination. When we enter upon a war, honor and humanity demand that we should make it as short as possible. There can be no doubt that the free States, numbering two to one of all the South in population and having abundant wealth and credit, must conquer; and the more forcibly and the more expeditiously we move, the better. Let Mr. Lincoln call for a hundred thousand men as soon as the railroads can carry them to the nearest point of action, to be followed by another hundred thousand, as soon as they can be mustered; and a third hundred thousand to stand in reserve. If we are to fight to the subjugation of our opponents, they will all be needed, and if we are to negotiate hereafter, it must be done on the drum-head.

FIRST CALL FOR TROOPS.

On the 15th day of April, 1861, but twenty-four hours after the surrender of Fort Sumter, and the day of the issuing of the proclamation by President Lincoln calling for 75,000 volunteers, the active participation of Newburyport in opposing the rebellion began.

On that day the field and staff officers of the various regiments of the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia in the vicinity of Boston met in council at the governor's room at the State House. After discussing the condition and efficiency of the militia, the movement of troops, etc., the governor proposed to the representative of each regiment this question: "How much time does your regiment require to be ready for active service?" The reply given by General Hinks, who at that time was adjutant of the 8th Regiment and its representative at the council, was, "The 8th Regiment will report in Boston to-morrow morning if ordered." To which the governor replied, "That is what we desire. You can order them to report at Faneuil Hall."

CUSHING GUARDS ORDERED OUT.

Late in the afternoon of the 15th, Mr. John T. Brown delivered to Captain Bartlett a telegraphic order from regimental headquarters, which was as follows:

LYNN, April 15th, 1861.

CAPTAIN ALBERT W. BARTLETT,
Commanding Company A.

The 8th Regiment is ordered to march to the defence of the capital. Will rendezvous in Faneuil Hall to-morrow. How many men will you muster?

(Signed) EDWARD W. HINKS, Adjutant.

This order was duplicated, and intrusted to Mr. Edward S. Toppan, who subsequently delivered it to Captain Bartlett, who notified in person the members of the company and summoned them to appear at the armory ready for duty the following morning. The news that the company had been called for by the governor created great excitement in the city. The call was the call of the country, and those who were to respond to it had but little time to arrange business affairs and be ready for the cars at the appointed time. During the evening State Street was crowded with people, and at the armory all was life and activity. Most of the members of the Cushing Guards were mechanics — many had families to leave behind dependent upon their labor for support. The call was sudden. The question between duty to their country and duty to their wives and children was presented. With some it was answered promptly, and if others delayed for the moment it was only to be assured that those they left behind should not become paupers upon the city. The city government was in session on that evening. Captain Bartlett with the officers of his company waited upon the mayor, stated the condition under which many of the members were placed, and urged such action as would enable the company to maintain its ancient reputation, and the city to preserve its honor. Most nobly did the city council respond. With but one dissenting vote this order was passed:

As many of our citizens have been called into the military service of the United States, that one thousand dollars be appropriated for such support as their respective families may need during their absence.

After the adoption of the order the mayor and aldermen visited the armory, made known the fact, and assured the company that when that was expended more would be appropriated.

DEPARTURE OF THE CUSHING GUARDS.

April 16th (Tuesday). It was the purpose of Captain Bartlett to have left on the eight o'clock train, but as many of the men required more time to arrange their business affairs, twelve o'clock was the time appointed. There would have been no difficulty in filling the company with recruits at any time after the receipt of the order calling them into active service. Many were willing and anxious to go, but Captain Bartlett, considering General Order No. 4, issued January 16th, to apply only to those who had been enrolled and returned as members of the company, telegraphed to the adjutant-general for permission to fill his company with volunteers. The answer came, "Come with what you have."

At a few minutes before twelve, in the midst of a cold and cheerless rain storm, the small company of patriots, for such their promptness and determination had proved them to be, left the armory for the depot. The rain and sleet was falling fast, but bravely and firmly they marched to the music of the fife and drum. But few cheers were given, and hardly a word was spoken by the hundreds who had gathered to witness their departure. At twelve o'clock they left for Boston, not knowing or fearing the duties they might be called to perform for the honor and protection of the National Capitol.

INCREASED MILITARY ENTHUSIASM. DEPARTURE OF ADDITIONAL VOLUNTEERS FOR THE CUSHING GUARDS.

April 18th (Thursday). The Herald says:

This was the greatest day for military enthusiasm that Newburyport ever saw. We have no words to convey an impression of the deep feeling that pervaded, and does now pervade, the people of this community. Little business was attended to. Men stopped from their avocations and pursuits to think of the state of the country; and the more they thought the more their souls burned for the restoration of peace, harmony, and union; and the more they determined that the government should be maintained in its integrity and full powers in every State over which the Stars and Stripes have ever waved.

* In a lecture delivered by Chaplain Samuel J. Spalding, at City Hall, May 29th, 1869, at the request of A. W. Bartlett, Post 49 G.A.R. of this city, entitled, "Newburyport in the Rebellion," much of the material, including the names of those who were the first to leave the city on the morning of April 16th, 1861, was furnished by the writer. The list was subsequently found to be inaccurate. The names given above are correct.

At eight o'clock twenty-one (21) men in charge of Capt. Nehemiah Flanders, and escorted by the Newburyport Brass Band, left for Boston to join the Cushing Guards. At ten o'clock others left, and at twelve between thirty and forty more, so that nearly seventy men must have left the city during the day to join the 8th Regiment.

The Cushing Guards, as a part of the 8th Regiment, M. V. M., left Boston April 18th for Washington, where, after liberating the frigate Constitution at Annapolis, and repairing the road-bed and engines of the Annapolis & Elkridge R.R., they arrived April 26th, having opened communications between Washington and the North.

At ten o'clock in the morning, Mr. Charles H. Coffin commenced the circulation of a paper for subscriptions to form a new military company and aid their families while in the service. So ready and willing were the citizens to subscribe, that in a few hours forty-two hundred dollars were raised, and the names of nearly fifty volunteers for the new company obtained.

ORGANIZATION OF THE NATIONAL GUARDS, SUBSEQUENTLY
(MOZART) REGIMENT.

The second day after the departure of the Cushing Guards, the formation of a new company was commenced by Mr. Charles H. Coffin, a merchant of our city, and the then city marshal, James P. L. Westcott. The company was organized as a part of the militia of the State to be ready for active duty within thirty days if called for by the governor. The first enlistments for this company were at the armory of the Cushing Guards on State Street, and so desirous were the young men of our city to prove their patriotism and valor that within forty-eight hours from the first enrollment the company was full.

The city government, and very many of our leading citizens, were particularly interested in its organization. Money was liberally subscribed, and neither time nor expense was spared to make it one of the best companies in the State.

Clothing for uniforms was contributed by Boston men, former residents of the city, and in the Herald of April 22d was published the following call:

The ladies are asking, as in the days of the Revolution, "What can we do for our country, for liberty, for those who are to risk their lives in defence of all that is dear to us?" I will tell you. We want made this week, sixty-eight military coats and sixty-eight pairs of pants. Those having sewing-machines suited to heavy work, those who will contribute money to pay for tailoresses to oversee the work, and those who are willing to work under the direction of these persons, will please leave their names at my house, 128 High Street, or office corner of Water Street and Cushing's Wharf.

(Signed)

CHARLES H. COFFIN.

This call was promptly responded to by a large number of ladies, who met at the vestry of the Whitefield Church on State Street, where the making of uniforms and other clothing for the company was carried on.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS BY THE COMPANY.

April 25th. At a meeting of the company for the election of officers, and by direction of the Governor, presided over by Mayor George W. Jackman, Jr., James P. L. Westcott was elected Captain; William D. Foster, 1st Lieutenant; Benjamin R. Knapp, 2d Lieutenant; William J. Creasey, 3d Lieutenant; and Robinson N. Shuff, 4th Lieutenant.

CONTRIBUTION OF MONEY BY THE PUPILS OF THE PUTNAM FREE SCHOOL.

April 27th. The pupils of the Putnam Free School having contributed to the company a sum of money, Captain Westcott addressed them the following letter:

ARMORY OF THE CUSHING GUARDS,
Saturday Evening, April 27th, 1861.

TO THE YOUNG LADIES OF THE PUTNAM FREE SCHOOL:

We cheerfully and kindly acknowledge the receipt of twenty dollars, a donation from them to be expended for the benefit of the soldiers under my command in such a manner as may be deemed best. This donation is more cheerfully received, it being a part of the money raised for the purchase of the beautiful flag, which was the first one thrown to the breeze from the school-buildings in this city. That flag we have sworn to protect, and God helping us we will, so long as life shall last.

In behalf of the Volunteers,

ARMING OF THE COMPANY WITH COLT'S REVOLVING RIFLES BY THE CITY.

May 2d. The city council held a special meeting to take measures for arming the National Guards. An order introduced by Alderman Isaac Hale, Jr., was unanimously adopted by both branches of the city government:

That the mayor be a committee to provide for and on account of the city one of Colt's revolving rifles, with sabre bayonet, for the use of each member of the volunteer company in this city now under the command of Capt. James P. L. Westcott.

May 20th. The mayor, to whom was referred the purchasing of the rifles, reported to the city council that:

On the third day of the present month your committee went to Boston for the purpose of purchasing the rifles, agreeably to the order, first calling upon the adjutant-general of the Commonwealth, and making such inquiries of him relative to the use of said arms by an infantry company, and further, whether it would prevent said corps from being joined to the 8th Regiment of this State, or whether by the purchase of the same (one of the rifles being present and fully examined by himself and many other military gentlemen) it would in any way prevent the company being called upon to do duty in defence of the United States Government.

The answer of the adjutant-general was, that there was nothing in the purchasing of the rifles that would prevent their using them, or being joined to the 8th Regiment, except that the 8th Regiment was full, and he advised me by all means not to return to Newburyport without purchasing them if I had authority so to do.

(Since that time I understand that the company has been attached to the 8th Regiment, but will not be sent forward until that regiment has taken the oath to serve for the term of three years, which they have not yet done.)

THE COMPANY PRESENTED WITH BIBLES AT THE HARRIS STREET CHURCH.

May 5th (Sunday). At many of the churches this afternoon the pastors preached eloquent and patriotic sermons. At the Harris Street Church, Rev. James Cruickshanks preached from the text "Render unto Cæsar," after which he presented each member of the National Guards with a small pocket Bible to be carried with them in the service. The church was appropriately decorated with American flags, and the choir sang the "Star-Spangled Banner," closing the services with "America."

CAPTAIN WESTCOTT NOTIFIES THE GOVERNOR THAT THE COMPANY IS READY FOR DUTY.

May 6th. The organization of the company being complete, and the rifles furnished by the city received, Captain Westcott addressed the governor:

NEWBURYPORT, May 6th, 1861.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, JOHN A. ANDREW,

Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Commonwealth of Massachusetts:

Dear Sir, — The newly organized company of volunteers known as the Newburyport National Guards are a picked body of men selected from three hundred and thirty applicants. They have met every day and evening for drill for the last three weeks, having no encouragement other than the hope that they are to be ordered for duty within a few days. The company will have uniforms complete on Thursday the 9th inst. They are armed with Colt's revolving rifles, army size. The circumstances of the men will not permit them much longer to remain without employment.

What encouragement can you give me that we shall be ordered soon? It was hoped that we should be attached to the 8th Regiment now in Washington, that being, as I am informed, the expressed wish and desire of that regiment. Please confer with the adjutant-general and forward as early an answer as convenient, and oblige,

Yours, etc.,

JAMES P. L. WESTCOTT,
Captain Newburyport National Guards.

REPLY OF THE GOVERNOR.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, May 7th, 1861.

CAPT. JAMES P. L. WESTCOTT,
Newburyport National Guards :

Sir, — Your favor of May 6th is received. Are you disposed to enlist for three years or for the war? How soon can you go? An early answer is desired for my advice.

Yours faithfully,
JOHN A. ANDREW, Governor.

CAPTAIN WESTCOTT TO GOVERNOR ANDREW.

NEWBURYPORT, May 10th, 1861.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, JOHN A. ANDREW,
Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts:

Dear Sir, — Yours under date of May 7th is just received. In reply I have to say that when my company enlisted they were to be in service for one year. I understand from Mr. Stone and Colonel Coffin that they had an interview with you on the 8th, at which time you determined to attach us to the 8th Regiment now in Washington. Cannot we, being a part of that regiment, be ordered under the first call? I have no doubt that after the company arrives at Washington they will every man of them be willing to enlist for three years or for the war, as that will be my wish. But as they have enlisted under the first call, I should not desire to put the question to them at present, but am satisfied they will act with the Eighth, and have no doubt that should part of that regiment desire to return, my company would attach themselves to some other for the war.

Mr. Stone will see you to-morrow and communicate with you more fully. We can be ready and report at Boston on Thursday morning.

Yours truly,

JAMES P. L. WESTCOTT,
Commanding Company National Guards.

There seems to have been a desire to attach the company to the 8th Regiment, and at an interview between the governor, Hon. Eben F. Stone, and Col. F. J. Coffin, it was determined upon. From communications received from officers in the regiment it appears that the impression with them was that the company was to be forwarded to that command. May 11th, Mayor Jackman received this telegram:

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Captain Bartlett has written to you to-day. He is supplied with everything wanted, in lieu of his company. Equip Captain Westcott's company and send them forward to join the 8th Regiment immediately.

(Signed) GEO. CREASEY, Adjutant.

Captain Bartlett, in a letter to the mayor dated May 11th, says:

By a letter received to-day from an officer of the new company, I am informed that the State cannot at present furnish equipments for their company, and as they are attached to the 8th Regiment I would recommend that, as my command will not be of any expense to the city, that the city council furnish Captain Westcott's company with equipments that they may join their regiment.

TELEGRAM FROM THE GOVERNOR, COMPANY NOT WANTED.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

(No Date.)

CAPT. JAMES P. L. WESTCOTT,
Newburyport.

Not wanted at present. Secretary of War notifies governor that no more companies will be accepted unless enlisted for three years or during the war.

(Signed) A. G. BROWN, JR.,
Private Secretary.

THE COMPANY UNANIMOUSLY VOTES TO ENLIST FOR THREE YEARS, OR DURING THE WAR.

(Telegram.)

NEWBURYPORT, May 13th, 1861.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, JOHN A. ANDREW:

Sir, — The National Guards of this city have voted to a man to serve three years. Ready to-morrow. Have we been attached to the 8th Regiment? When can we go? Answer by telegraph.

JAMES P. L. WESTCOTT,
Captain National Guards.

The Governor not replying to the above, Captain Westcott again telegraphed:

NEWBURYPORT, May 13th, 1861.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, JOHN A. ANDREW:

Sir, — I telegraphed you this morning that my company had voted to serve three years. Ready to march to-morrow morning. We have been informed that you attach us to the 8th Regiment. The men are crazy to go. Don't refuse their request.

JAMES P. L. WESTCOTT, Captain.

To this dispatch no reply was made.

OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION FROM MAYOR JACKMAN, RECOMMENDING AID TO THE VOLUNTEERS.

TO THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NEWBURYPORT:

Gentlemen, — I have been repeatedly called upon for aid within the past two weeks by members of the two volunteer companies now in this city. My answer thus far has been, that I could do nothing for them, there being no money appropriated for that purpose, and I having no authority to take money from the City Treasury for any such object.

Many of them say that it is impossible for them to subsist and attend to their drill duties without aid in some way. It is apparent to me that something should be done at once to relieve their immediate wants, at any rate until such time as they shall be mustered into the service of the government, either State or National.

I am aware that there has been a large sum of money subscribed by the citizens, for the equipment and support of these men and their families; but when and how that money is to be distributed or used, I do not know. I cannot, however, see the difference in supporting these men and their families now from that fund, or supporting their families after the men have gone. It is necessary in either case that they should have something to eat, to be paid for out of that subscription, or from some other source. I believe it to be merely a matter of time as to the use of that fund, for I am fully impressed that it will take much more than that sum to relieve the wants of our soldiers before this great national question is settled. If that should be used now, the city will undoubtedly have to assist them hereafter; and if the city should now render assistance to these families, then that fund will come in course and do good service.

I would, therefore, recommend that the city council make an appropriation sufficient to allow these men, who are now enlisted in Captain Westcott's company, and the one which has been raised by Captain Remick, who are in need of the same, an allowance of three dollars per week in groceries, where they have a family, and to pay the board of those men who have no family. In both cases to continue for the space of thirty days from the date hereof, unless the companies should be called away before that time.

Respectfully submitted,

NEWBURYPORT,
May 20th, 1861

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

THE CITY GOVERNMENT VOTES TO ASSIST THE VOLUNTEERS.

May 20th. An order introduced by Alderman George J. George, recommending assistance to the volunteer companies of Captains Westcott and Remick of three dollars per week to those who had families, and board for those who had not, who were in need of such assistance, for thirty days unless sooner called into service, was unanimously adopted by the city council.

THE NATIONAL GUARDS VISIT BOSTON.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, GOVERNOR ANDREW,

Commander-in-Chief:

Sir, — The National Guards of this city will make a flying visit to Boston to-morrow, Thursday. Will be in front of the State House at 10.30 A.M. Would be pleased to have your Excellency review the same.

Respectfully your obedient servant,

The company was received by the governor and other military men at the appointed time. The Boston Journal, speaking of their visit, said:

The National Guards of Newburyport, Capt. James P. L. Westcott, arrived in this city this forenoon, accompanied by the Newburyport Band, and numbered about seventy muskets. They made a fine appearance, and on marching up State Street they went through the movements of forming a hollow square and repelling cavalry in a highly creditable manner.

CALL FOR THREE YEARS' TROOPS.

Permission having been granted the State to raise six regiments of infantry for three years' service, the governor, on the 22d of May, issued General Order No. 12. This order stated that "all companies of the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia which may desire to volunteer to serve as part of the above force will make immediate application in writing to the commander-in-chief through the adjutant-general. From the companies thus applying, a sufficient number will be selected to form the six regiments assigned to this State."

VISIT OF HON. EBEN F. STONE AND CAPTAIN WESTCOTT TO THE GOVERNOR. THE NATIONAL GUARDS SENT TO NEW YORK FOR SERVICE IN THE BROOKLYN PHALANX.

No reply having been received to the dispatch of Captain Westcott to the governor dated the 13th after the promulgation of General Order No. 12, he, in company with Hon. Eben F. Stone, visited the governor to see if the company could not be received under that order. To them assurances were given that the company should be attached to one of the regiments then forming, or be sent to camp of instruction, within three days. Before the expiration of the time specified, the governor telegraphed to Captain Westcott:

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, May 29th, 1861.

CAPT. J. P. L. WESTCOTT of National Guards :

If you can be at Brooklyn, N.Y., Saturday morning, you can be received into the Brooklyn Phalanx and go into active service immediately. Reply at once whether ready.

JOHN A. ANDREW, Governor.

To this Captain Westcott immediately replied, "Ready."

THE GOVERNOR GRANTS PERMISSION FOR THE COMPANY TO LEAVE THE STATE.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, May 31st, 1861.

CAPT. JAMES P. L. WESTCOTT,
Commanding Company of Inft. at Newburyport in 2d Division M. V. M. :
Sir, — The commander-in-chief hereby grants to you and your command permission to report for active service to the commander of the Brooklyn Phalanx, Brooklyn, N. Y.

A. G. BROWN, JR.,
Captain and Military Secretary to the Commander-in-Chief.

DEPARTURE OF THE NATIONAL GUARDS FOR BROOKLYN, N.Y.

The company was anxious for active duty. They had been organized nearly six weeks, and had devoted the entire time to drill and preparation under the direction of Capt.

Nehemiah Flanders. They were armed with what was supposed to have been the most serviceable rifle at a cost to the city of three thousand six hundred dollars. The officers were presented with arms and equipments, and the men were each provided with two uniforms, one for parade and the other for fatigue duty. Between seven and eight thousand dollars had been expended by the city and the citizens to prepare the company for the field.

On Friday morning, May 31st, the city was alive to see them depart. The armory was crowded with friends; and before leaving, Rev. Randolph Campbell, who was present, earnestly invoked divine blessing upon the men who were to march in defence of the government. Dr. Henry C. Perkins gave them very useful advice on the manner of living and preserving health; and General Cushing, on being called, spoke eloquently in support of the Union and the government, urging them to stand by each other in defence of the Stars and Stripes, and assuring them that victory and success were certain to follow. Messrs. David Wood and Isaac H. Boardman of the committee of the Volunteer Fund promised the men that their families would be provided for during their absence. They left the city by the Eastern R.R. at 10 A.M., amid the cheers of the thousands who had assembled to bid them God speed.

The dispatch from Governor Andrew to Captain Westcott, dated May 29th, was prompted by the following, received by him from a son of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, who was connected with the intended regiment.

NEW YORK, May 29th, 1861.

GOVERNOR ANDREW:

If the Woburn, Milford, and Newburyport Companies are willing, and can be here by Saturday morning, they can be received into the Brooklyn Phalanx, which is received, and will go into active service immediately.

(Signed) H. B. BEECHER, Brooklyn.

The New York Courier and Enquirer of the same date says:

The Brooklyn Phalanx will be ready. Inspection has been ordered by the Union Defence Committee on Saturday, when they will present a full complement of men.

The National Guards with the other Massachusetts companies on their arrival in New York Saturday morning were received by the officers of the regiment and a committee of citizens, and for a time quartered at the Astor House. An inspection of the regiment had been ordered by the colonel to take place in Brooklyn at four o'clock the same afternoon; and when the time arrived, the three Massachusetts companies were the only organizations present, excepting two skeleton companies, both numbering less than sixty men. A consultation of the Massachusetts officers was held, and it was decided that in view of the misrepresentations made and the apparent condition of the regiment, the best course for them to pursue was to return home. The colonel, however, prevailed upon them to remain a short time longer, stating that the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher had gone to Washington, and would see that they were at once mustered into service.

GOVERNOR ANDREW ORDERS THE COMPANY TO RETURN TO MASSACHUSETTS.

June 3d. Governor Andrew telegraphed to Mr. Frank E. Howe, Agent of Massachusetts in New York:

Brooklyn must prepare to return our three companies. We have incurred expense, raised hopes, and Brooklyn has cruelly misled, disappointed, and mortified us.

Mr. Howe replied by letter, saying:

I went immediately to Brooklyn. The first person I saw was Captain Westcott of the Newburyport National Guards, who seemed to regret the tenor of the dispatch, although expressed his loyalty in strong terms, and willingness to return with his command at that moment. His only regret seemed to be that the Brooklyn people, officers and all, should be censured when he felt they were doing their best. I talked with the men under his command, all of whom seemed contented.

The three companies returned to Boston, arriving on the morning of June 5th, and breakfasted at the American House, after which they were dismissed until twelve o'clock, when they were to assemble to hear the report of the officers, who in the meantime had reported at headquarters, where they had a conference with Adjutant-General Schouler and Quartermaster-General Reed. Captain Westcott stated that having been months in constant drill and discipline at their own expense, his company felt that they ought to be immediately employed. General Reed laid the matter before the governor, and reported that the desire of his Excellency was that the companies return to their homes, and disband. To this Captain Westcott replied that his company had been formed for service in defence of the government, and they did not propose to disband, but were determined to seek active service. It was finally agreed to furnish quarters and subsistence for the men at Fort Warren, and transportation for the officers back to New York that they might complete arrangements, and attach themselves to the Mozart Regiment then forming.

THE NATIONAL GUARDS JOIN THE 40TH NEW YORK
INFANTRY.

Through Captain Westcott, arrangements were perfected by which the three companies, with an additional company from Lawrence, were attached to the 40th New York Infantry (Mozart) Regiment. Of the National Guards the lieutenants and several of the men declined to again seek service out of the State. Their ranks were, however, recruited to the army standard by additions from the Wallace Guards of Amesbury.

Before leaving the State, Captain Westcott received from the governor the announcement that in so doing they severed all connection with Massachusetts, and that the Commonwealth would in no wise be responsible for their action or welfare.

LETTER OF GOVERNOR ANDREW TO CAPTAIN WESTCOTT.

BOSTON, June 10th, 1861.

TO CAPT. J. P. I. WESTCOTT,

Commanding Co. M. V. M., Newburyport:

Sir, — You have expressed a desire in behalf of yourself and your command, to proceed to New York, and there join what is called the Mozart Regiment. In consideration of the disappointment you have already experienced, this Commonwealth will again transport you to New York at its own expense. But in order that there may be no possible misunderstanding, it is deemed advisable to state explicitly in this connection that you and your command are not ordered to duty, but are only permitted to do what you desire, on your own risk and responsibility as private citizens, and thus from the moment you leave Massachusetts, the Commonwealth cannot consider that it holds any further official connection with you by which it shall be bound to any official responsibility whatever for your action or welfare, although in both the people of Massachusetts can never cease, of course, to take a warm interest.

With sincere good wishes

I am very truly yours,

JOHN A. ANDREW.

Alderman Isaac Hale, Jr., who accompanied the Guards to New York, under date of June 13th telegraphed to the Newburyport Herald:

Arrived at Yonkers yesterday. The condition of the regiment exceeds Captain Westcott's statements. They are fully furnished with howitzers, wagons, horses, and additional supplies. They will be mustered into service Friday.

The following day Mr. Hale again telegraphed:

YONKERS, N.Y., June 14th,
4 o'clock, P.M.

Westcott's company has just been mustered into the service.

GENERAL CUSHING TENDERS HIS SERVICES TO THE GOVERNOR TO ACT IN ANY CAPACITY WHERE HE MAY BE NEEDED.

NEWBURYPORT, 25th April, 1861.

Sir, — I beg leave to tender myself to you in any capacity however humble, in which it may be possible for me to contribute to the public weal in the present critical emergency. I have no desire to survive the overthrow of the government of the United States. I am ready for any sacrifice to avert such a catastrophe, and I ask only to be permitted to lay down my life in the service of the Commonwealth and of the Union.

I am, very respectfully,

C. CUSHING.

HIS EXCELLENCY,

JOHN A. ANDREW,

Governor of the Commonwealth.

(Unofficial.)

NEWBURYPORT, 25th April, 1861.

Dear Sir, — I pray you not to regard the accompanying proffer in any light other than that of earnest solicitation on my part to discharge my duty to our common country. Permit me to assume that in our past relations, as certainly in our present ones, there has been nothing to forbid me to make, or you to receive, such a proffer at the present time. You alone are able to judge whether, in the scope of official duties, there is anything to assign to me to do. If there be, or not, I pray you to say so to me in all sincerity, in order that, having thus placed myself at your discretion, I may, if not needed directly by you, then decide according to my own judgment what to undertake.

I am, very respectfully,

C. CUSHING.

GOVERNOR ANDREW.

REPLY OF GOVERNOR ANDREW.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, April 27th, 1861.

HON. CALER CUSHING:

Sir, — Under the responsibilities of this hour, remitted both as a man and a magistrate to the solemn judgment of conscience and honor, I must remember only that great cause of Constitutional Liberty and of civilization itself, referred to the dread arbitrament of arms; and I am bound to say that although our personal relations have always been agreeable to myself, and notwithstanding your many great qualities fitting you for usefulness, yet your relation to public affairs, your frequently avowed opinions touching the ideas and sentiments of Massachusetts, your intimacy of social, political, and sympathetic intercourse with the leading secessionists of the Rebel States, maintained for years, and never (unless at this moment) discontinued, forbid my finding you any place in the council or the camp.

I am compelled sadly to declare that were I to accept your offer I should dishearten numerous good and loyal men, and tend to demoralize our military service. How gladly I would have made another reply to your note of the 25th ult., which I had the honor to receive yesterday, I need not declare, nor attempt to express the painful reluctance with which this is written.

Faithfully, your obedient servant,
JOHN A. ANDREW, Governor.

ORGANIZATION OF THE "CITY GREYS," SUBSEQUENTLY COM-PANY A, 17TH MASSACHUSETTS VOLUNTEER INFANTRY.

The city authorities having leased Essex Hall on State Street for the accommodation of those who might desire to serve their country, on the morning of April 23d a call was made through the Herald for the organization of a new company.

A number of experienced military men have urgently requested Capt. John E. Remick, formerly of the Cushing Guards, to tender his services to the government in the present emergency, and unite with them in perfecting a corps in drill and military tactics. Captain Remick has consented, and an invitation is hereby extended to such able-bodied men as are willing to unite with such a company, to appear at Essex Hall this evening at 7.30 P.M., where further arrangements will be made. A paper may be found at the express office of David F. Brown, No. 6 Pleasant Street, where information may be obtained.

In response to this call about twenty-five men enrolled themselves at the first meeting. This new organization continued to meet forenoon, afternoon, and evening for drill, until its numbers had increased to seventy-two men, when an election of officers was ordered by the governor to take place Wednesday evening, May 22d, to be presided over by Major Ladd of Boston. At this meeting David F. Brown was elected Captain; Thomas W. Foster, 1st Lieutenant; William Bell, 2d Lieutenant; Thomas W. Goodwin, 3d Lieutenant; and Alfred Horton, 4th Lieutenant.

THE COMPANY PETITION THE CITY GOVERNMENT FOR UNIFORMS, JUNE 3D.

TO THE HON. GEORGE W. JACKMAN, JR., MAYOR, THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, AND THE COMMON COUNCIL, OF THE CITY OF NEWBURYPORT:

The undersigned commander and subordinate officers respectfully represent that the volunteer militia company organized and officered according to law, known as the "City Greys," have for the past four weeks been diligent in perfecting themselves in drill, for the purpose of being ready to answer any call made upon their services by the constituted authorities; that they are the only organized company now in the city; that they have every reason to believe that their services will be called for, and that Newburyport has thus far furnished a small quota of companies according to her population in proportion to other towns in Essex County.

For the above reasons in part we respectfully petition, in behalf of the company, that you take measures such as your judgment may dictate, and as will sustain the reputation of the city, towards providing the company with such means that they will be enabled to answer any call made upon us for the purpose of protecting the government of our country and the preservation of our Union.

THE CITY COUNCIL APPROPRIATES $1,550 FOR UNIFORMS FOR CITY GREYS.

June 24th. By an order introduced by Alderman George J. George, $1,550 was appropriated by the city for the purpose of furnishing uniforms to the City Greys, Captain Brown, provided the State authorities would not uniform the company.

Councilman Curtis French at the same meeting introduced an order which was also adopted:

That the mayor and two from the common council be a committee to attend to the purchase of uniforms for Captain Brown's Company, no uniform to be furnished except to those who shall have signed articles of agreement similar to those included in Chapter 219, Section 3, of the Special Session of the Legislature in May, 1861.

His Honor the Mayor and Councilman Curtis French and Charles H. Goodwin constituted the committee.

THE CITY GOVERNMENT GRANTS THE USE OF THE GUN HOUSE SITUATED AT THE EAST END OF THE MALL FOR BARRACKS.

July 1st. A petition from Capt. David F. Brown, requesting the use of the Gun House as barracks for the City Greys, was granted by the city council, and an order passed providing ten days' rations for twenty-five men of the same company who were to be placed in barracks.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN CALLS FOR THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND
VOLUNTEERS FOR THREE YEARS. THE CITY GREYS ORDERED TO CAMP AT LYNNFIELD.

The President of the United States on July 1st issued an order calling for three hundred thousand volunteers to serve for three years, or until the end of the war, to form new regiments, and fill up the ranks of those already in the service. July 7th the governor of the Commonwealth issued General Order No. 26, calling for fifteen thousand volunteers, and assigning to each city and town the number of men to be furnished, which was based upon the annual returns made to the adjutant-general's office by the assessors of the several cities and towns, of men liable to do military duty.

July 11th. The City Greys, Capt. David F. Brown, left the city this forenoon via Boston & Maine R.R. for Camp Schouler, Lynnfield. They were accompanied by the Wallace Guards, Captain Morrill, of Salisbury, and by the Newburyport Band. A large number of citizens and friends assembled to witness their departure, who expressed their interest in the company and the cause they were to defend by words of encouragement and support.

THE STARS AND STRIPES AFLOAT IN EVERY PART OF THE CITY

April 20th (Saturday). The patriotism of our citizens was to-day displayed in the flying of the national emblems and the decorating of stores and private dwellings. In the central portion of the city nearly all the business houses were decorated with the red, white, and blue. In front of the Essex Hall building on State Street, flags and bunting were tastefully exhibited around the motto, "Our Country: Right or Wrong."

AT MOULTON & TALBOT'S, STATE STREET.

In the forenoon a large and enthusiastic gathering witnessed the raising of a flag at the store of Messrs. Moulton & Talbot on State Street. The ceremonies were introduced by the playing of the national airs by the Newburyport Brass Band. The flag was raised by Rev. Samuel J. Spalding, D.D., who, after addressing the people on the importance of supporting the national government, closed with solemn prayer for the protection of those who had gone in defense of the nation and its flag. Speeches were made by Rev. Daniel P. Pike, E. H. Rollins, Rev. James N. Sykes, D. A. W. Perkins, George J. L. Colby, James Carey, Moody D. Cook, Philip K. Hills, and City Marshal James P. L. Westcott.

AT GILLETT & CO.'S EXPRESS OFFICE, PLEASANT STREET.

April 23d (Tuesday). Messrs. Gillett & Co. hoisted the national flag upon a staff in front of their express office in the presence of a very large gathering of people, who crowded the streets, windows, and roofs in the vicinity to witness the scene. The flag was hoisted by the Rev. J. E. Bruce, and was saluted with music by the Newburyport Band. Company B of Byfield, Capt. T. Lyman Pearson, being present, greeted it with cheers as it was unfurled to the breeze, while the plaudits of the people were long and continuous. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Bruce, in behalf of our country, its free institutions, and the sacrifices being made for its preservation by the thousands who volunteered in its defense.

AT THE BROWN HIGH SCHOOL.

April 24th (Wednesday). The members of the Brown High School located on State Street attested their patriotism and devotion to the cause of the Union by hoisting the American flag on a staff erected near their school building. Music was furnished by the Newburyport Band, and speeches made by William H. Pearson, Sylvester Burnham, and William H. Bartlett, graduates from the school. General Cushing, Richard S. Spofford, Jr., and Rev. Daniel P. Pike, made brief addresses, expressing their love for the Union, and the support it should receive from all who claimed its protection. The exercises were closed by the reciting of a portion of Patrick Henry's great war speech, by George R. Merrill, a member of the school.

General Cushing in his speech said that:

He cordially participated in the present patriotic manifestation. Long may this glorious flag wave above our heads, the banner of victory and the symbol of our national honor. Our dear country now indeed demands the devotion of all people, for the dire calamity of civil war is upon us.

He had labored hitherto for many years, earnestly and in good faith at least, first for the conservation of the Union, and then to avert the evils of fratricidal war, and of what he might have said in that relation he had nothing now to retract. But the day of discussion had passed, and that of action had arrived. He had before him the question, which had occurred to public men in other countries, when political convulsions divided friend from friend and brother from brother, and sometimes arrayed them against one another in hostile camp and in deadly strife. What in such a case is the dictate of duty? Should we retire into safe seclusion in a foreign country, to return in better times, to wear the honor of freedom, like Hyde? Or should we remain to affront the perils of our lot, like Faulkland or Vance? The latter course, if not the safer one, is at any rate the more courageous one. He chose so to act. He was a citizen of the United States, owing allegiance to the Constitution, and bound by constitutional duty to support its government, and he should do so. He was a son of Massachusetts, attached to her by ties of birth and affection, and from which neither friend nor foe should sever him. He would yield to no man in faithfulness to the Union, or in zeal for the maintenance of the laws and the constitutional authorities of the Union; and to that end he stood prepared, if occasion should call for it, to testify his sense of public duty by entering the field again at the command of the Commonwealth or of the Union.

AT WILSON BROS., STRONG STREET.

April 26th (Friday). This afternoon the city was unusually active. Thousands assembled to pay homage to the "Flag of the Union," that was now looked upon by the people of the North with a greater reverence and respect than ever before. The first gathering was at the establishment of Messrs. Wilson, carvers, on Strong Street, where amid the booming of cannon and the sweet strains of music a beautiful life-sized statue was unveiled representing the "Daughter of the Regiment," above which floated the national flag. After the cheers with which it was greeted had died away, Rev. Samuel J. Spalding offered an earnest and patriotic prayer for the unity and safety of the republic. Speeches were made by Rev. Daniel P. Pike and Edward Burrill, Esq.

AT THE FEMALE HIGH AND GRAMMAR SCHOOLS, WASHINGTON STREET.

From Strong Street the multitude gathered at the school building, corner of Washington and Court streets, to witness the raising of the Star-Spangled Banner by the young ladies of the female High and Grammar Schools. Rev. John R. Thurston offered prayer, after which the young ladies hoisted the flag, which was greeted by the singing of:

Our flag is there! Our flag is there!
We'll hail it with three loud huzzas.
Our flag is there! Our flag is there!
Behold the glorious Stripes and Stars.

Remarks were made by Mr. William C. Todd, principal of the High School, George J. L. Colby, and Rev. Messrs. Fletcher, Pike, Muzzy, Thurston, and Cruickshanks.

AT THE WEST MALE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

From Washington Street the gathering moved to the West Male Grammar School, located at the west end of the Mall, where the boys hoisted to the breeze the national emblem from a staff upon the top of the building. Mr. James Rousseau, principal of the school, introduced as speakers, George J. L. Colby, Henry G. Rollins, and Rev. Messrs. Pike, Muzzy, Fiske, and Bruce.

Flags were also raised at the Bromfield Grammar School, at the paint store of Messrs. Burrill & Blake at the head of Brown's Wharf, and by the butchers on the Market House, Market Square.

May 2d (Thursday). The pupils of the Davenport School, Congress Street, and the Grammar School on School Street, raised the Stars and Stripes in the presence of a large gathering of friends.

VETERAN ARTILLERY ASSOCIATION TENDER THEIR SERVICES TO THE CITY.

May 4th (Saturday). Messrs. Gillett & Co., through the Herald, informed the friends of the Cushing Guards that they would pack at their office and forward to the company Tuesday, May 7th, a box, free of expense. At once articles began to flow in, more than a hundred different packages, consisting of shirts, stockings, towels, cigars, tobacco, and many other useful articles, as presents from wives and children, parents and friends.

May 6th (Monday). At a meeting of the city council a communication was received from the Veteran Artillery Association tendering their services to the city and asking that the company be furnished with a stand of arms.

May 7th (Tuesday). Mrs. Wallace D. Wells and Miss Lydia M. Smith in a very few hours collected one hundred and two dollars ($102) to be sent to the Cushing Guards as "pin money." Captain Bartlett, in a letter dated Washington, May 13th, acknowledged its receipt, and expressed the gratitude of the company for their generous consideration.

REPORT OF THE MAYOR REGARDING ASSISTANCE FURNISHED THE FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS.

The mayor in response to inquiries made in regard to supplies furnished from the appropriation for the support of families of volunteers, reported the whole amount disbursed (exclusive of orders) as $90. The orders with other allowances amounted to $30 per week. House rent estimated at $40 per month, and fuel at $20 per month. But sixteen families had made application for relief up to this time.

RESOLUTIONS COMPLIMENTARY TO CAPTAIN BARTLETT AND THE CUSHING GUARDS.

Resolved, That we fully appreciate the heroic conduct of Capt. Albert W. Bartlett and his men, who so promptly shouldered their muskets to sustain the honor of our nation's flag — an act which thrills the heart of every true citizen of Newburyport with pride and admiration.

Resolved, That the mayor be authorized to notify Captain Bartlett, in behalf of the city, that we are ready to furnish his company with everything in our power that will add to their comfort or success while in the service of their country, and that Captain Bartlett be requested to inform the city through him of their wants, in accordance herewith.

LETTER FROM CAPT. A. W. BARTLETT.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 11th, 1861.

MAYOR GEORGE W. JACKMAN, JR.,
Newburyport, Mass.

Dear Sir, — Your letter with resolves passed by the city council I have just received, and hasten to answer. I thank the council for their kindness, but would inform them through you, that we were yesterday supplied by government with a new uniform. We have also been supplied with undershirts, drawers, and socks by the quartermaster. Unless we see more hard service I can think of nothing we shall need at present.

Truly yours,

A. W. BARTLETT, Captain Company A.

A HAVERHILL VOLUNTEER COMPANY MARCHES TO NEWBURYPORT AND PARTICIPATES IN A PARADE WITH THE NATIONAL GUARDS AND VETERAN ARTILLERY ASSOCIATION.

May 8th (Wednesday). A volunteer company from Haverhill, Captain Howe, marched to this city and camped for the night at the Gun House at the east end of the Mall. Thursday the streets were alive with military enthusiasm. The National Guards, Captain Westcott, numbering seventy men, in their new uniforms of blue coat and gray pants and armed with Colt's revolving rifles, the Veteran Artillery Association, Capt. John Moore, and the Haverhill Volunteer Company, Captain Howe, paraded the principal streets of the city, accompanied by the Newburyport Band. In the afternoon the three companies marched to Davenport's Hill, where the National Guards practiced target shooting.

DONATION BY THE PUPILS OF THE PURCHASE STREET GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

The pupils of this school, in place of raising a flag as many of the schools in the city had done, and desiring to express their patriotism by the purchasing of articles useful to the troops in the field, addressed the following note to Mr. Charles H. Coffin, Esq.:

NEWBURYPORT, May 11th, 1861.

MR. CHARLES H. COFFIN, ESQ.:

Dear Sir, — Please accept the enclosed sum as a trifling donation from the pupils of the Purchase Street Grammar School, to be expended for the benefit of the Newburyport volunteers.

E. A. APPLETON.

A. L. COFFIN.

VOLUNTEER FUND.

May 20th (Monday). At the city council meeting, Councilman John J. Currier introduced "an order for a joint special committee to make inquiries in regard to the funds said to be subscribed for the relief of the families of volunteers enlisting for the war, and that they report to the council what action is wise and proper to take in regard to raising an additional amount for that purpose."

MEETING OF THE SUBSCRIBERS TO THE VOLUNTEER FUND.

May 23d (Thursday). At a meeting of the subscribers to the Volunteer Fund, Edward S. Moseley was chosen chairman, and John J. Currier secretary. A committee, consisting of Edward S. Moseley, Enoch S. Williams, Mark Symons, Josiah Little, and Charles H. Coffin, to whom was added the mayor, Hon. George W. Jackman, Jr., was chosen to devise some plan for the collection and distribution of the fund, and report at a meeting to be held at the counting-room of the Bartlett Mill, Monday, May 27th.

May 27th (Monday). In the afternoon the subscribers to the Volunteer Fund met at the Bartlett Mill counting-room. Of the $6,090 subscribed, it was voted to raise 20 per cent of the amount at once, and more as it should be needed, to be placed in the hands of Messrs. David Wood, Isaac H. Boardman, and Charles H. Coffin, to be appropriated at their discretion for the support of the families of those who have or may hereafter volunteer from this city.

A BOX FOR THE CUSHING GUARDS.

Through the energy of Mr. D. Clark Batchelder, a large and valuable box was forwarded to the Cushing Guards, encamped near the Relay House, Md. By his efforts one hundred and twenty-five dollars were subscribed by the friends of the company, with which five regulation swords were purchased for the officers. In addition to the swords, the box contained a havelock for each member of the company, made by our patriotic ladies; sheets, pillow-cases, and blankets designed for the use of the sick; stockings, towels, handkerchiefs, tobacco, preserved fish and meats, and many other articles acceptable to the soldier in the field. There was also a gold Union badge for Maj.-Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, a silver one for each of the officers of the Cushing Guards, and a plated one for each of the men.

AID TO FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS.

On the 23d of May, 1861, the Legislature passed a Resolve entitled, "An Act in aid of the families of volunteers and for other purposes," by which cities and towns were permitted to raise money by taxation and apply the same under the direction of town or city officers for the aid of the wife and children under sixteen years of age of any of their inhabitants who is a member of the volunteer militia of this State, and for each parent, brother or sister or child, who, at the time of his enlistment, was dependent on him for support. The Act also provided that there should be annually reimbursed from the State Treasury to such cities and towns a sum not exceeding one dollar per week for the wife, and one dollar per week for each child or parent of such inhabitant who at the time of his being called into service was dependent upon him for support. By section four of the Act any city or town was also authorized to "organize an armed police," whenever danger from an attack by sea was apprehended.

June 3d (Monday). At a meeting of the city council an order introduced by Alderman Isaac Hale, Jr., authorized the mayor to "provide all assistance that may be needed by those families in this city who have been deprived of their means of support by members of the families having volunteered and been mustered into service in the ranks of the National Guards in accordance with the statutes in such cases made and provided, and in no case to exceed the amount to be reimbursed by the State."

A CARD FROM THE CUSHING GUARDS IN ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF THE BOX SENT BY D. C. BATCHELDER AND OTHERS.

CAMP ESSEX, ST. DENNIS, MD., June 16th, 1861.

The officers and members of Company A, 8th Regiment, M. V. M., hereby return their most sincere thanks to Mrs. Nehemiah Flanders and other ladies, for cake; Mrs. A. L. March, for blankets, sheets, pillow-cases, and socks; and to all of our lady friends who provided us with havelocks, or assisted us in any way. They will all accept our thanks. Also to Samantha N. Whiting, for rubber blankets; the Messrs. Cushing, Philip K. Hills and others, who so liberally subscribed towards the swords and uniforms for the officers; B. W. Ordway, for delivering letters, etc.; Hiram P. MacIntosh and Andrew J. Haynes, stationery; Parker Roberts, Charles M. Hodge, Horace Hamblett, John Caldwell, James McConnell, Edwin Blood, Renton M. Perley, Philip H. Blumpey, A. Brookings, Wm. W. Merrill, John M. W. Clement, Charles F. Brown, C. S. Swasey, for tobacco, pipes, and cigars; Engine Company No. 6, for caps; George N. Young, for trucking; Gillett & Co., for expressing; George W. Jackman, Jr., Nehemiah Flanders, Edward W. Rand, Eben P. Cutter, Wm. H. Huse & Co., George L. Jackman, Andrew J. Haynes, George W. Clark, and Moulton & Talbot, for newspapers; Dean R. Martin, Daniel Horton, D. C. Batchelder, Nehemiah Flanders and others, for straw hats; Samuel A. Smith, cough mixture; Horatio N. Dennett, labor and materials for uniforms; also to all other friends who have assisted us in any way, and whose names have been unintentionally forgotten in the confusion of opening the cases and delivering the packages. Our special thanks are due to Capt. Nehemiah Flanders, D. C. Batchelder, Eben P. Cutter, Stephen Collins, and George J. George, for continued exertions in our behalf.

(Signed) ALBERT W. BARTLETT, for the Company.

THE CITY COUNCIL APPROPRIATES ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS TO AID THE FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS.

June 24th (Monday). An order introduced by Alderman Nathaniel Pierce was unanimously adopted by the city council:

That the sum of one thousand (1,000) dollars be appropriated to the aid of the wives and children under sixteen (16) years of age of those of the inhabitants of this city who as members of the Volunteer Militia of the State of Massachusetts have been or may be mustered into or enlisted in the service of the United States, and also for the aid of such parent, brother or sister or child, who at the time of such enlistment was, is or may be dependent upon any one of said inhabitants so mustered into or enlisted in the service aforesaid.

TAXES FOR 1861.

The assessors for 1861, in their report of the valuation of property, number of polls, and apportionment of taxes for the year, make the following statement: The number of polls, 2,430; valuation of real estate, $3,120,600; personal estate, $3,477,500; total, $6,598,100. The rate of taxation was $10.40 on $1,000. The appropriations for which the tax was laid were as follows: State tax, $2,346.00; County tax, $9,369.95; city tax, $58,910.00; excess, $1,611.79.

July 4th (Thursday). The anniversary of our national independence was ushered in with the booming of cannon, the ringing of bells, and an unusual display of the Stars and Stripes. No public celebration of the day was attempted in the city. The people could not dispel from their minds the fact that we were in the midst of a civil war, and for the first time father, son, and brother had been called upon to battle for the preservation of our national existence. Towards evening several thousand people assembled on the Mall, and listened to the reading of the Declaration of Independence by Mr. Hylas T. Wheeler, principal of the Putnam School, followed by the singing of patriotic songs, and music by the Newburyport Band.

ORGANIZATION OF A PERMANENT COMMITTEE BY THE CITY GOVERNMENT FOR THE DISBURSEMENT OF AID TO THE FAMILIES OF SOLDIERS.

July 8th (Monday). An order introduced by Alderman William H. Huse was adopted by the city council:

That a joint special committee consisting of the mayor and aldermen and one councilman from each ward be appointed to disburse the sums of money appropriated under various orders passed by the city council for the relief of the wives, children, and those dependent upon those citizens of Newburyport engaged or who may hereafter be engaged in the military or naval service of the United States. In addition to the mayor and aldermen the committee consisted of Councilman Michael Wormstead, Ward 1; Ralph C. Huse, Ward 2; William A. Davis, Ward 3; Charles M. Hodge, Ward 4; Charles A. Hilliard, Ward 5; and James P. McQuillen, Ward 6.

A BOX SENT TO THE NATIONAL GUARDS AT ALEXANDRIA, VA.

July 22d (Monday). Through the kindness of Mr. Richard Welch and friends of the National Guards attached to the 40th New York (Mozart) Regiment, a large and valuable box containing articles of comfort and usefulness was forwarded to them at Alexandria, Va. The company acknowledged its receipt by a card published in the Herald of August 5th:

ALEXANDRIA, VA., July 27th, 1861.

The officers and members of the Newburyport National Guards desire through this medium to express their sincere gratitude to Dr. Job T. Dickens, Moses B. Wheeler, Richard Welch, John Buntin, Charles L. Huse, Samuel Towle, Samuel A. Smith, Reginald Morton, Miss Harrod, Messrs. Gillett & Co., B. Warren Ordway, and all others whose names may have been unintentionally omitted, for the articles of necessity and luxury forwarded to them. The eagerness with which they were received should be seen to appreciate the thanks of the recipients, and the kind donors of these free-will offerings will long be remembered.

EDWIN A. STOVER, Orderly Sergeant.

RECEPTION OF THE CUSHING GUARDS ON THEIR RETURN FROM THE THREE MONTHS' CAMPAIGN.

July 18th (Thursday). At a meeting of the Veteran Artillery Association, Benjamin R. Knapp, John B. Nelson, David J. Adams, John B. Goodwin, Richard Fowler, John Moore, William E. Currier, George W. Jackman, Jr., Philip K. Hills, Charles H. Coffin, John B. Prichard, and Wooster Smith were selected a committee to make all necessary arrangements for the reception of the Cushing Guards on their return from their three months' campaign in defence of the capital.

THEIR ARRIVAL IN NEWBURYPORT.

August 1st (Thursday). A telegram from Maj. Ben: Perley Poore of the 8th Regiment announced that the regiment had arrived in Boston, and that the Cushing Guards would return home in the afternoon. All day the people had been waiting and preparing for them. They left on a cold, rainy, cheerless day in April, few in numbers, with not a cheer to encourage or enliven their departure; they returned, and the firing of cannon, the ringing of bells, and the joyous shouts of the people, announced their arrival. State Street was thronged with people, flags were flying, and stores and residences decorated in honor of the brave men who were the first to respond in defense of the Constitution and the Union.

The company reached home at 6 P.M., and were received at the railway-crossing on State Street by the Veteran Artillery Association, Capt. John Moore, accompanied by the Newburyport Band. There was also a juvenile company, the Dodge Cadets, commanded by Master Edward W. Dodge. These companies, with a cavalcade of citizens, escorted the Guards down State Street, through Broadway, up Greene Street to City Hall, where dinner was provided. After dinner they returned to their families and friends, happy with the reflection that they had performed their duties honestly, faithfully, and fearlessly. There were sixty-six men from Newburyport in the 8th Regiment during the three months' campaign. Fifty-two of them re-entered the service.

RECRUITING IN NEWBURYPORT DURING THE SUMMER OF 1861.

After the departure of Captain Brown's company attached to the 17th Massachusetts Infantry, recruiting in our city was comparatively dull. Efforts were made by several who had seen service in the three months' campaign to organize companies, but the experience of the National Guards in being ordered into service deterred many from enlisting in new organizations.

RECRUITING OFFICES IN 1861.

VOLUNTEERS, ATTENTION! The undersigned has been duly authorized by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to recruit volunteers for the Massachusetts Militia, in Newburyport, Newbury, West Newbury, Georgetown, Haverhill, Groveland, Rowley, Ipswich, Bradford, Amesbury and Salisbury. No other person has any authority to recruit for the Commonwealth in either of the above towns.

Headquarters at store opposite the foot of Broad Street on Merrimack Street. Persons wishing to enter the service will present themselves, and if accepted will receive pay and rations from that day forth.

HENRY W. MOULTON.

A BRANCH RECRUITING OFFICE

has been established in Newburyport, at No. 13 Market Square, and will remain open for a few days only, to recruit a company for Colonel Hinks's Regiment. Office hours from 9 to 12 A.M., 2 to 5 P.M.

LIEUT. GEORGE BARKER, Recruiting Officer.

(By order of Brig.-Gen. W. W. Bullock, General Recruiting Officer for the State of Massachusetts.)

ATTENTION, VOLUNTEERS.

The undersigned having been duly authorized to recruit a company of infantry to be attached to the regiment now being organized in Massachusetts, by Capt. David Wardwell of Boston, by authority of the War Department, hereby gives notice to all members of the 8th Regiment desirous of re-enlisting, and to all others desirous of enlisting for the war, that an opportunity is offered by applying at the recruiting office No. 31 State Street, over Wm. B. Morss' store from 9 to 12 A.M., and 2 to 5 P.M.

ADJUTANT GEORGE CREASEY, Recruiting Officer.

FOR HON. HENRY WILSON'S REGIMENT.

The undersigned having received authority to organize a company of infantry for Colonel Wilson's regiment, are now ready to receive recruits from Newburyport and vicinity. Applications for enlistment in this regiment, which will be the most famous that New England has sent forward, may be made to

ALBERT W. BARTLETT, of GAMALIEL HODGES,

At their office over George Greenleaf's, Market Square.

In addition to the two companies furnished for the 40th New York and the 17th Massachusetts Infantries, there were enlisted and mustered into service during the year for the 10th, 11th, 12th, 16th, 19th, 20th, 22d, 23d, 26th, 28th, 30th, and 32d Regiments of Infantry, the 1st Company of Sharpshooters, the 1st and 3d Cavalry and the 4th Battery of Light Artillery, more than two full companies of infantry, or about 225 men. Adding to these the 75 naval enlistments during the year, the city contributed during the year an aggregate of 450 men, exclusive of three months' enlistments.

THE FIRST SOLDIER BURIED IN NEWBURYPORT AFTER THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE WAR.

October 5th (Saturday). Corporal Charles Gardner Burbank, son of Gardner A. and Eliza J. (Laraby) Burbank, born in Newburyport in June, 1844, was to-day buried from the Congress Street Church. Young Burbank was a resident of East Boston at the time of his enlistment, and was but seventeen years of age when he entered the service. He was with his regiment in the first battle of Bull Run, July 21st, and continued in active service until the privations of camp life so told on his health as to oblige him to enter the hospital at Bladensburg, Md., where he died October 1st.

THE CITY WITHHOLDS STATE AID FROM THE FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS, RESIDENTS OF NEWBURYPORT, WHO JOINED THE 40TH NEW YORK (MOZART) REGIMENT.

As the Act of the Legislature granting aid to the families of volunteers applied only to the families of those who enlisted in the volunteer regiments of the State, and not to those who joined the 40th New York (Mozart) Regiment, the city, October 1st, suspended further assistance to those families.

THE COMMITTEE OF THE VOLUNTEER RELIEF FUND OFFER TO REIMBURSE THE CITY FOR ALL SUMS PAID THE FAMILIES OF THOSE WHO JOINED THE MOZART REGIMENT IN CASE THE STATE LEGISLATURE REFUSES AN APPROPRIATION.

NEWBURYPORT, October 14th, 1861.

TO THE MAYOR, ALDERMEN AND CITY COUNCIL OF NEWBURYPORT:

Gentlemen, — The undersigned committee of the Relief Fund for the families of those volunteers who have enlisted in the army of the United States from this city, knowing that the necessities of these families require that assistance should still be afforded to those of the National Guards, so called, as well as to the others, and believing that our State legislature at its next session will pass acts paying the families of those companies who unfortunately joined the Mozart Regiment, the same as those volunteers who are enrolled in the Massachusetts regiments, now propose to the city government, that if they will continue to pay to the families of the National Guards such sums as they have done from an appropriation by the city government until last week, not to exceed forty-eight dollars per week, if the legislature at its next session does not appropriate and cause to be paid such sums as may henceforth be paid to such families by the city government, that we will bind ourselves as a committee to refund to the city all such sums so paid from the funds placed under our control.

	ISAAC H. BOARDMAN	} Committee of Vol. Relief Fund.
	CHARLES H. COFFIN
(Signed)	DAVID WOOD

At a meeting of the city government Wednesday, October 16th, the above communication was referred to the committee on relief on the part of the city, who recommend

That the city council accept the terms and conditions therein offered, and would therefore recommend that the sum of five hundred dollars be appropriated for the relief of the families of the company known as the National Guards, Captain Westcott, or other members of the Mozart Regiment belonging to this city.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE W. JACKMAN, JR.

WAR MEETING AT CITY HALL.

October 8th (Tuesday).

A meeting of the citizens of Newburyport and vicinity was advertised to be held at the City Hall this evening in reference to the duty of young men in view of the momentous questions before the country. The meeting is one of a series to be held the present week in several of the cities and towns in the county. The Hon. Asahel Huntington, W. D. Northend, A. A. Abbott, W. C. Endicott, J. A. Giles, and the Revs. S. J. Spalding, Geo. D. Wilds, and Geo. W. Briggs, will speak in different places, especially in relation to the recent determination of the Union Drill Club of Salem to enlist for the war. The Hon. Eben F. Stone will preside this evening, and the meeting will be addressed by the Rev. Willard Spaulding and Rev. George D. Wilds of Salem. The gallery of the Hall will be reserved for Ladies.

The meeting was one of the largest and most patriotic gatherings held during the war. The speaking was eloquent and impressive, and awakened in the hearts of the people a willingness to do and to suffer, to save for themselves and posterity the Union of our fathers.

LAUNCH OF THE GUNBOAT MARBLEHEAD.

October 16th (Wednesday). Hon. George W. Jackman, Jr., launched from his ship-yard on Merrimack Street this morning the gunboat Marblehead. Her length was 173 feet, breadth of beam 28 feet, depth of hold 12 feet, measuring 510 tons. She was schooner-rigged, and carried in her sails 2,000 yards of canvas. Messrs. Prichard were the riggers, and Clannin and Goodwin the sail-makers. The forward berth deck accommodated eighty men, and the three cabins furnished quarters for fifteen officers. The forward berth deck was provided with cooking apparatus, also a medicine chest and library furnished by the ladies of this city. Under this apartment was the magazine with flooding cocks on each side in case of fire; the shell room; the sail room, lined with zinc, for the spare sails; the bread room, lined with tin, capable of holding six thousand pounds of bread. She was furnished with two horizontal engines of eighteen inch stroke and thirty inch cylinders, driving a screw propeller nine feet in diameter. In addition to the main engines there was an auxiliary engine of ten horse power. The boilers were of Marston's build, and weighed 21 tons, having 1,760 tubes 2 inches in diameter, and two furnaces $6\frac{1}{2}$ feet in length by $3\frac{1}{2}$ feet in breadth.

The construction of the hull was under the supervision of R. B. Forbes, Esq., of Boston, and the machinery under the inspection of Clark Fisher, Engineer U.S.N. She left the wharf in this city Thursday, January 10th, 1862, for Charles town Navy Yard. When in commission in 1862, she carried four guns, and was attached to the South Atlantic Blockading Squadron, under the command of Lieut.-Com. R. W. Scott. In 1863 she was armed with six guns, and commanded by Lieut.-Com. R. W. Meade, Jr., and attached to the same squadron. In 1864 she carried seven guns, and was stationed at the Naval Academy, Newport.

AID TO THE FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS.

November 1st. One hundred and fifty families were receiving State aid on account of persons in the army, viz., in Ward 1, 25; Ward 2, 29; Ward 3, 14; Ward 4, 21; Ward 5, 39; Ward 6, 22. The amount paid per week, $325.

RECRUITING OF THE McCLELLAN GUARDS, AND THEIR ASSIGNMENT TO THE 11TH MASSACHUSETTS INFANTRY.

Under Special Order No. 572, issued by the adjutant-general of the Commonwealth, Messrs. Henry W. Moulton, Luther Dame, William D. Foster, and John W. Ricker commenced about the middle of October the recruiting of a company for three years' service to be known as the McClellan Guards. About sixty men were enlisted in this city, and occupied for a time as barracks the rooms over the store No. 13 Market Square. To complete the organization the company was filled up by the addition of recruits from Lynn and other parts of Essex County. When the recruiting for the company began, it was expected it would be assigned to one of the new regiments then being organized by the governor; but an order from the War Department prohibiting the organization of any more new regiments caused the disbanding of many companies then being raised, and rendered it necessary for the governor to order the McClellan Guards to join the 11th Massachusetts Infantry then on duty on the Lower Potomac, Maryland shore. The company organization was not preserved. Captain Dame, on being ordered to Company C, took with him less than twenty men; the remainder were assigned to other companies as recruits.

ENLISTMENTS FOR GENERAL BUTLER'S EXPEDITION TO NEW ORLEANS.

November 12th. Adjutant George Creasey, Capt. Albert W. Bartlett, and Lieuts. Gamaliel Hodges and George Barker, were authorized by the governor to recruit a company of infantry for three years' service, provided the required number of men could be raised within twenty days. A recruiting office was opened at the armory of the Cushing Guards, and the following call made:

WANTED — STRONG, ABLE-BODIED AND INTELLIGENT MEN to fill up a new company now being organized at the armory of the Cushing Guards by order of His Excellency Governor Andrew. Every man enlisting will receive pay and rations from the date of enlistment, and also be entitled to all the comforts conferred by the legislature upon Massachusetts soldiers. This is the best opportunity yet offered to enlist in a corps with officers and men of their own acquaintance.

At the expiration of the time specified, thirty men had been recruited; but as the governor was unwilling to extend the authority, the men were turned over to General Butler, and under command of Lieutenant Barker were assigned to the 30th Massachusetts Infantry, then at Camp Chase, Lowell.

AID FOR THE FAMILIES OF THOSE WHO ENLISTED IN THE NAVY.

Congress having refused to allow the State credit for enlistments in the navy, the State authorities ruled that the families of those men who had entered this branch of the service were not entitled to State aid. At a regular meeting of the city government November 4th, Alderman Hale introduced an order, "That the sum of two hundred dollars be appropriated for the relief of the families of those inhabitants of Newburyport that may be necessitous, and who now are or may be engaged in the naval service of the United States during the present Rebellion." This order having been rejected by a yea and nay vote, Alderman Hale, December 2d, presented a petition signed by Edward S. Moseley and 743 legal voters, asking for "an appropriation for the support of the families of those of our citizens who have enlisted in the United States Navy." This petition was referred to a joint special committee, consisting of Alderman Isaac Hale and George J. George, and Councilmen Charles M. Hodge, James P. McQuillen, and John J. Currier, who reported that the prayer of the petitioners should be granted. The report of the committee was accepted; and an order introduced by Councilman Currier, authorizing the committee on finance to hire three hundred dollars, to be paid to the families of those enlisted in the naval service, under the direction of the Relief Committee, was unanimously adopted.

FROM THE MAYOR'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.
STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The causes which have brought our beloved country into this disastrous position, it would not be proper for me at this time to discuss. One thing is certain, it is the duty of every one in this great crisis to use all the means in his power to extricate the government from this, the worst of all wars, if we would again wish to see that prosperity which was so apparent a year and a half ago. We, as citizens, as patriots, as honest men, irrespective of all party feelings and considerations, should take the greatest of all documents ever written, the Constitution of the United States — the charter of our rights and liberties — for our guide and direction; the peace, prosperity, and happiness of all the inhabitants of this ever-cherished country, for our aim; and in the right spirit seek to preserve, strengthen, and perpetuate the best government Divine Providence ever gave or bestowed upon any people. We have yet to offer in this cause the services, voluntarily and early tendered to the government, of a distinguished fellow-citizen who has been long conspicuous in the discharge of functions of high civil and military positions. We trust that the government will soon be able to avail itself of his distinguished ability and patriotic devotion to the common cause.

I will only add, in conclusion of this subject, my full assurance that I need not urge upon you continued attention to the duties devolving upon the city, in relation to those of our number who are now making new proof of the strength and power of Republican government, in voluntarily bearing arms for its defence and support.

MILITARY RELIEF COMMITTEE FOR 1862.

January 6th (Monday). At a meeting of the city council an order was adopted:

That a committee consisting of the mayor, the board of aldermen and one common councilman from each ward, be a committee to pay out the amount allowed by the city to the families of those persons who have enlisted in the service of the United States, in both the army and navy.

The committee consisted of the mayor and aldermen, and councilmen Jacob G. Brown, Daniel A. W. Perkins, Curtis French, Dana Dodge, Alexander Caldwell, and Stephen M. Pillsbury.

APPROPRIATION OF $1,500 FOR THE USE OF THE RELIEF COMMITTEE.

January 20th (Monday Evening). The city council adopted an order authorizing the Committee on Finance to hire for a term not exceeding four months $1,500 for the temporary relief of the families of those enlisted in the United States military and naval service, to be charged to the Relief Committee.

THE CAPTURE OF FORT DONELSON.

February 16th (Sunday Evening). News was received by telegraph of the capture of Fort Donelson by the Union forces under General Grant. The announcement of the news caused the people to gather in large numbers on State Street, and rejoice and congratulate each other upon the brightening prospect. Monday, flags were thrown to the breeze, bells were rung, one hundred guns fired, and in the evening houses were illuminated in honor of the glorious victory.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

February 22d (Saturday). In accordance with the recommendation of the President, the anniversary of the birthday of the "Father of his Country," the immortal Washington, was celebrated in this city with unusual spirit. At sunrise, noon, and sunset the bells of the different churches were rung. Flags were displayed from public buildings and private dwellings. Religious services were held in the Court and Prospect Street Churches. At the latter place, the exercises were conducted by the clergymen of the city. Prayers were offered by Rev. Randolph Campbell, Rev. Drs. A. G. Vermilye and Leonard Withington. Selections from Scripture were read by Rev. Dr. William Horton, and Washington's Farewell Address by Rev. Dr. Samuel J. Spalding. The singing of "Strike the Cymbal," "America," Miss Hannah Gould's beautiful ode, "Who when darkness gathered o'er us," and the "Star-Spangled Banner," was under the direction of Messrs. Warren Currier and James W. Cheney. In the evening the residences or places of business of William E. Currier, Amos Noyes, Rufus G. Coffin, William B. Morss, Caleb C. Toppan, Charles W. Carter, Dana Dodge, and Rev. J. C. Fletcher were brilliantly illuminated.

The residence of Dr. M. M. Mumford, known as the Prince House, attracted particular attention. Over the entrance, and beneath the folds of the Stars and Stripes, were the words, "Our Guest of 1789." It was at this house Washington remained during his visit to Newburyport in October, 1789.

FAST DAY SERMON BY REV. RANDOLPH CAMPBELL.

On Fast Day, at the Prospect Street Church, the pastor, Rev. Randolph Campbell, preached from the text, Isaiah xxxii. 15-19. Subject, "The Union safe, through the gracious outpouring of the Spirit, and by the hailstorm of judgment upon the Rebellion." The discourse was particularly adapted to the times, and full of patriotism and encouragement. At the request of many of our citizens, it was repeated April 25th.

NEWBURYPORT, April 21st, 1862.

Dear Sir, — Believing that there are many persons in this community who would like to hear the discourse which, on Fast Day, you delivered so acceptably to your own society, we wish to ask of you the favor of repeating it, so that those interested may have an opportunity to hear.

If you should consent to comply with this request, you will please to name the time and place which will be most convenient to you.

Yours respectfully,

EBEN F. STONE.	EDWARD S. MOSELEY.	JOSHUA HALE.
WM. FORBES.	JOHN BALCH.	WILLIAM THURSTON.
CHARLES S. SWASEY.	A. W. MILTIMORE.	ENOCH G. CURRIER.
NATHAN A. MOULTON.	DAVID WOOD.	GEORGE GREENLEAF.
HENRY FROTHINGHAM.	WM. W. CALDWELL.	AMOS NOYES.

ESSEX STREET, April 22d, 1862.

EBEN F. STONE, Esq.

Dear Sir, — The note from yourself and other gentlemen, requesting a repetition of the discourse delivered by me to my own people last Fast Day, has been received.

In the solemnity of the crisis through which we are passing, it seems fitting that every citizen should hold himself in readiness to aid and encourage, as he may be able, a spirit of genuine patriotism. With this view, I should hardly be warranted in declining the request with which you have been pleased to honor me, though a ministry of nearly twenty-five years in this city may witness that I have not been anxious overmuch, to act in any public capacity without the sphere of immediate parochial duty.

The conviction only deepens in my own soul continually, that, at whatever sacrifice, our National Union must be preserved, and the Rebellion overthrown; and that, for the accomplishment of this purpose, our confidence must be especially in Him who graciously styles himself "the Hope of Israel, and the Savior thereof in time of trouble."

As to the place for the repetition, allow me to suggest that of its original delivery; and for the time, next Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Very respectfully yours,

RANDOLPH CAMPBELL.

AID TO THE FAMILIES OF PERSONS IN THE NAVY DISCONTINUED.

May 5th. The city having been paying aid to the families of those who enlisted in the navy, and also to quite a large number who enlisted in the army, where the State would not reimburse, the city council, by an order introduced by Councilman Pillsbury, discontinued such payments: "That the families of volunteers in the navy (except in extreme cases, to be decided by vote of the Relief Committee) be stricken from the rolls from and after April 30th, 1862." Such payments amounted in all to about four hundred dollars per month.

A SERIES OF VICTORIES. THE RECEPTION OF THE NEWS IN NEWBURYPORT.

The capture of New Orleans, the evacuation of Yorktown, and finally the capture of Norfolk and destruction of the rebel ironclad Merrimack, was the cause of general rejoicing throughout the North. On Sunday, May 11th, the news of the capture of Norfolk, Portsmouth and the Navy Yard, was received in this city. Crowds of people gathered on State Street to congratulate each other, and at several of the churches the telegraphic dispatch was read announcing the victories. At the Whitefield Church, after communicating the news, Rev. Dr. Spalding offered a prayer of thanksgiving. At the Pleasant Street Church the reading of the telegram was followed by "God save the American Union" and the singing of "America" by the choir.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS BY THE CUSHING GUARDS.

May 12th. Gamaliel Hodges was elected 1st Lieutenant and Nathan W. Collins 2d Lieutenant of the Cushing Guards.

AN EXPRESSION OF THANKS FROM COMPANY I, 23D

HEADQUARTERS CO. I, 23D MASSACHUSETTS REGIMENT.

NEW BERNE, NORTH CAROLINA, May 15th, 1862.

TO THE LADIES OF THE UNITARIAN SEWING CIRCLE, AND ALL OTHER CONTRIBUTORS:

We the undersigned, in behalf of the soldiers of Company I, and all others enlisted from Newburyport in the 23d Regiment, return our heartfelt and earnest thanks for the very generous and bountifully filled box of hospital stores, etc., kindly sent us by the patriotic ladies and gentlemen of Newburyport. We assure you our hearts are melted with earnest gratitude at this sterling exhibition of thoughtfulness of us on your part, and the genuine token of substantial which you have so generously forwarded to the sick and wounded now in our regiment from our beloved city. Our path lies among the rough thorns of privations and suffering, and the alleviation from pains and sickness which the contents of your box will in a great measure afford us, will remind us of the kind friends at home, and serve to make us stronger and more faithful in the duty we are called upon to perform in the great and holy cause in which we are now engaged. Although your generous donations will pass away, yet we shall never cease to remember with deep gratitude and pleasure your thoughtful and substantial remembrance of us.

We remain very truly, your obliged friends,

RETREAT OF GENERAL BANKS IN THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY.
THE GOVERNOR'S CALL FOR TROOPS, AND THE DEPARTURE OF THE CUSHING GUARDS.

May 26th (Monday). An extra of the Newburyport Herald was issued this morning, to promulgate the call of Governor Andrew for the assembling of the State militia, which read as follows:

HERALD EXTRA!

THE CALL TO ARMS!

PATRIOT SOLDIERS! TO THE RESCUE OF THE CAPITAL.

We publish the following telegram from Governor Andrew, calling upon the soldiery of the Commonwealth at once to meet on Boston Common, prepared to rush to the defence of the capital now threatened by the rebels and traitors of the South, who, having defeated General Banks, are marching on Washington. No words of ours can add to the call of the governor. The men of Massachusetts, who were not backward in the days of our fathers' struggle for Independence, and who have never failed to answer the call of their country, will be minute men to-day. Massachusetts, whose men rescued the capital in 1861, shedding the first blood to suppress treason, will be ready to dare and do to preserve that capital in 1862. Citizen soldiers will by the first train or the first conveyance, from every part of the Commonwealth, start for Boston to answer the call of the governor; and the citizens who are not soldiers, but who are willing to become such, will fall in to fill up the ranks. This is to be the most stirring day that Massachusetts has ever known; and the sons of Massachusetts, one and all, will perform their duty.

GOVERNOR'S CALL.

BOSTON, May 25th, 1862.

TO THE NEWBURYPORT HERALD:

Please publish the within order as early as possible on Monday morning, May 26th, and call editorial notice to it.

HARRISON RICHIE,
Aide-de-Camp.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
HEADQUARTERS, BOSTON, May 26th, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER No. 14.

Commanders of regiments, battalions, and unattached companies of infantry and riflemen of the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, are hereby ordered to report with their commands to Major-General Andrews on Boston Common, forthwith, for active service, in pursuance of orders from the President of the United States. This order will be executed without waiting for the usual forms of transmission.

By command of His Excellency, John A. Andrew, Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

WILLIAM BROWN,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

The above order was received by telegraph at one o'clock A.M., Monday the 26th. Before two o'clock, Captain Bartlett, assisted by Adj. George Creasey, Lieuts. Gamaliel Hodges and Nathan W. Collins, was in the streets rallying his men. After the stationing of policemen at the several engine houses, the alarm-bells were sounded, when the people gathered on State Street, anxious and excited; and at three o'clock the armory of the Cushing Guards was filled with men ready and willing to enroll themselves in response to the demand of the governor. They were escorted to the depot by the Veteran Artillery Association, and left for Boston at ten o'clock A.M. Col. Frederick J. Coffin, formerly commander of the 8th Regiment, left on the first train to offer his services.

The company on reporting in Boston were assigned quarters in a building on Broad Street, owned by Hon. John B. Alley of Lynn. On the evening of arrival an election for regimental officers was held, when Frederick J. Coffin was unanimously elected colonel, and Ben: Perley Poore Lieut.-Colonel. Adjutant George Creasey, on reporting the regiment to Adjutant-General Schouler, was handed a commission, and immediately mustered as captain in the 30th Massachusetts Infantry, then at New Orleans, La. On Wednesday it was found that the services of the militia were not required, and they were dismissed to return to their homes, having for the second time shown their patriotism by responding to the call of the governor.

ENLISTMENT OF MEN FOR THE 32^D MASSACHUSETTS INFANTRY.

The governor having authorized the organization of three new regiments of infantry to serve for three years, Henry W. Moulton, Esq., commenced June 4th the recruiting of a company in this city for the 32d Massachusetts Infantry, at No. 42 State Street. June 16th the recruits were taken to camp at Lynnfield; and as enlistments at this time were extremely slow, not a sufficient number of men were secured to form a Newburyport company. Mr. Moulton was subsequently commissioned a captain in the regiment.

THE PRESIDENT CALLS FOR 300,000 SOLDIERS.

July 1st (Tuesday). Upon the recommendation of the governors of eighteen of the loyal States, President Lincoln called into the service an additional force of 300,000 volunteers to serve for three years, or until the end of the war, to form new regiments, and fill up the ranks of those already in the service. The proportion assigned to Massachusetts was 15,000 men.

GOVERNOR ANDREW CALLS FOR 15,000 VOLUNTEERS.

July 7th (Monday). The governor of the Commonwealth issued General Order No. 26, calling for 15,000 volunteers. This order was accompanied by a table showing the proportion of each city and town, which was based upon the annual returns made to the adjutant-general by the assessors of the several cities and towns of men liable to do military duty. The number assigned to Newburyport was one hundred and seventy-nine (179) men.

THE CITY COUNCIL OFFERS A BOUNTY OF SEVENTY-FIVE DOLLARS FOR VOLUNTEERS.

July 10th (Thursday). At a convention of both branches of the city government, the mayor stated to the council that Newburyport had been called upon for 179 men, and recommended a bounty of $50 to be paid by the city to each volunteer. The mayor addressed the convention in a patriotic speech, and urged that prompt and efficient action be taken by the city council to raise forthwith the number of men required of the city.

Alderman Nathaniel Pierce introduced an order:

That a bounty of seventy-five (75) dollars per man be offered for 179 able-bodied men between the ages of 17 and 50 years, and residents of this city, to enlist as volunteers from Massachusetts, for the service of the United States, for the term required by the United States; and that said bounty be paid to the order of each individual who shall so enlist, by the city treasurer, until otherwise ordered by the city government, on the presentation of the proper evidence of such enlistment, indorsed by the mayor; and also that a joint special committee, consisting of the mayor and two of this board, and four of the common council, be appointed for the purpose of recruiting them.

This order was unanimously adopted; and Aldermen Charles C. Dame and William H. Huse, and Councilmen Dana Dodge, Eben P. Cutter, William H. Johnson, and Moses Pettingell, Jr., were appointed as the committee.

July 21st (Monday). By a vote of the city council, twenty-five (25) dollars was added to the bounty of seventy-five (75) dollars authorized by the order passed July 10th to be paid for a number not exceeding 179 men; also "that those enlisting under any recruiting officer except those designated by the mayor shall not be entitled to relief from the State fund until such time as they shall be recognized by the governor of the Commonwealth as the quota called for from Newburyport."

THE PRESIDENT CALLS FOR 300,000 MEN FOR NINE MONTHS.

August 4th (Monday). The President under this date ordered a draft for 300,000 militia to serve in the army of the United States for nine months; also if any State did not by the 15th day of August furnish its quota under the call of July 1st for 300,000 volunteers, the deficiency for that State would be made up by a draft from the militia. The number which Massachusetts was called upon to furnish was nineteen thousand and eighty (19,080). The quota of nine months' men for Newburyport was two hundred and eighty-eight (288) men.

THE CITY OFFERS A BOUNTY OF $200 FOR VOLUNTEERS UNDER THE CALL OF JULY 1ST FOR THREE YEARS.

August 5th (Tuesday Evening). The city council held a special meeting, and determined to take the most active measures to fill up the quota of Newburyport under the first call for 300,000 men. By an order presented by Alderman Nathaniel Pierce, the bounty of $100 was increased to $200 per man for all who should enlist previous to August 11th.

OFFICIAL PROMULGATION OF THE ORDER BY THE MAYOR.

NEWBURYPORT, Aug. 7th, 1862.

TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS BOUNTY UNTIL THE ELEVENTH OF AUGUST.

A bounty of two hundred (200) dollars will be paid to volunteers from this city, who will enlist for the term of service required by the United States, as volunteers from this State, for the suppression of the present rebellion. Said two hundred dollars will be paid to able-bodied men between the ages of 17 and 50 years (who pass the regular examination) as soon as they shall be sworn into the service of the United States, at which time each volunteer will receive, in addition to the sum paid by the city, twenty-five (25) dollars bounty offered by the government, and one month's pay, making in all two hundred and thirty-eight (238) dollars. The volunteer is also entitled to the benefit of the State aid to his family of twelve (12) dollars per month to wife and two children, or one dollar per week each for wife and one child from the time of signing the enlistment papers.

Two enlistment offices are now open, — one at the Ward Room, City Hall, under the charge of Capt. A. W. Bartlett; the other at the city marshal's office, in the Market House, under the care of Capt. Nehemiah Flanders. These are the only places where men can enlist and receive the bounty offered by the city.

GEORGE W. JACKMAN, JR.,

Mayor and Recruiting Officer.

By order of His Excellency, John A. Andrew, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

VOLUNTEERS FOR THE WAR.

The generous action of the city government was nobly responded to by the young men of the city. Wednesday, August 6th, was the most exciting and eventful day seen at the recruiting offices during the war. At the Ward Room, City Hall, where Captain Bartlett was recruiting, crowds of loyal, patriotic, and earnest men were gathered, earnestly discussing the necessities of the country; while the boys, who had caught the spirit of the occasion, paraded the streets with music and banners. During the day one hundred and fifteen (115) of our citizens had enrolled their names for three years.

August 7th (Thursday). "The enthusiasm of the people, the continued excitement at the recruiting offices, and the readiness to volunteer, made it certain that the quota of Newburyport for three years' men would be filled to-day. Through the energy and patriotism of Mr. Dana Dodge, the services of the Salem Brass Band were secured, and on their arrival in the city a procession was formed, and the recruits, with a large number of our citizens, paraded the principal streets.

"At the City Hall the enlistment roll was rapidly filled; and long before sunset forty-nine (49) additional names had been added to the list, making a total of one hundred and sixty-four (164) enlistments in two days, which, with the fifteen (15) previously enlisted and 'mustered in,' made the full complement of one hundred and seventy-nine (179) men."

DEPARTURE OF THE RECRUITS FOR LYNNFIELD. THE CITY GOVERNMENT RECOMMENDED THE COMMISSIONING OF CAPT. A. W. BARTLETT AND LIEUTENANTS HODGES AND COLLINS.

August 8th (Friday). The recruits assembled at the City Hall early in the forenoon, and voted to ask the city government to recommend to the governor the appointment of Capt. Albert W. Bartlett, Lieuts. Gamaliel Hodges and Nathan W. Collins, then officers of the Cushing Guards, to be officers of the new company to be organized. The city council then in session adopted the following resolution presented by Alderman George:

That the names of Albert W. Bartlett as Captain, Gamaliel Hodges as 1st Lieutenant, and Nathan W. Collins as 2d Lieutenant, be recommended to His Excellency the Governor of this Commonwealth for officers to the company of volunteers just raised in this city, and that a committee of one from this board and two from the common council be appointed to present these names to the governor and urge their being commissioned as aforesaid. Alderman Charles C. Dame and Councilmen Thomas H. Cutter and Ralph C. Huse were appointed as the committee.

At 9.30 o'clock a column was formed, consisting of the Salem Brass Band, the Veteran Artillery Association, and the city government, who escorted the volunteers to the Eastern R.R. depot. At 10 o'clock, accompanied by the mayor and the officers selected, they left for Camp Stanton, Lynnfield.

ORGANIZATION OF COMPANY "B," 35TH MASSACHUSETTS INFANTRY VOLUNTEERS.

August 11th (Monday). The recruits from this city were to-day sworn into the United States service at Lynnfield by Lieut. J. Elder, 8th United States Infantry, after which Captain Bartlett organized his company, which was subsequently designated Company "B," and assigned to the 35th Regiment as color company.

There were also thirty-three men credited to Newburyport who were mostly attached to Company A; while seven residents of the city, who were credited to neighboring towns, joined other companies, making a total of one hundred and thirty-eight men from Newburyport attached to this regiment.

SERGT. JOSEPH L. JOHNSON PLACED IN COMMAND OF THE CUSHING GUARDS, AND AN ELECTION OF OFFICERS ORDERED.

HEADQUARTERS 8TH MASSACHUSETTS INFANTRY,
NEWBURYPORT, August 8th, 1862.

TO SERGT. JOSEPH L. JOHNSON:

The commissioned officers of Company A of this regiment having been appointed and commissioned for the same offices in another corps, you are therefore hereby directed to assume command of the company, to take charge of all the property belonging either to the Commonwealth or to the company, and to obey any and all lawful orders of your superiors. You are directed to promulgate this order, and will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

By order of Col. F. J. Coffin.

EDWARD L. NOYES, Adjutant.

HEADQUARTERS 8TH MASSACHUSETTS INFANTRY,
NEWBURYPORT, August 9th, 1862.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 10.

To SERGT. JOSEPH L. JOHNSON: You will notify and warn the non-commissioned officers and privates of Company A of this regiment, to meet at the armory of the company on Thursday, the 21st day of August current, at 8 o'clock P.M., for the purpose of electing a captain and 1st and 2d lieutenants, in place of Captain Bartlett and Lieutenants Hodges and Collins, who have been commissioned in another corps. And have you there this order with your doings thereon.

By order of F. J. Coffin.

EDWARD L. NOYES, Adjutant.

At a meeting held as above ordered, Stephen D. Gardner was elected captain, Joseph L. Johnson 1st lieutenant, and David Shackford 2d lieutenant. Lieutenant Shackford was drowned the day following his election, and Eben P. Cutter was elected to fill the vacancy.

THE TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS BOUNTY PAID BY THE CITY TO APPLY TO ALL WHO ENLISTED UNDER GENERAL ORDER NO. 26.

That those who were the first to respond to the call of the city to fill the quota of 179 men, and received but one hundred dollars bounty, might be made equal with those who subsequently enlisted and received two hundred dollars, the city council, at a meeting held August 11th, adopted an order introduced by Councilman Eben P. Cutter:

That to all persons who have enlisted and been sworn into the service of the United States as a part of the quota of Newburyport under General Order No. 26, since the eleventh day of July last and previous to August fifth and now in the service, and who by so enlisting have received from the city but $100, they be paid by the city treasurer, on the order of the mayor, the additional sum of $100.

As all the three years' men recruited by the city under the call of July 1st, and sent to Camp Stanton, Lynnfield, were not accepted by the government, and the time during which the bounty of $200 was to be paid by the city having expired, the city council, August 11th, adopted an order presented by Alderman Charles C. Dame:

That the time named in the order of the city council passed August 5th, 1862, whereby the bounty of $200 to volunteers was limited to those who should enlist until the 11th day of August inst., shall be and is hereby extended, so as to embrace all three years' men volunteers from this city who have enlisted or shall enlist before a draft shall be ordered upon this city, unless the quota of 179 three years' volunteers from this city shall be previously filled.

POSTPONEMENT OF THE DRAFT FOR NINE MONTHS' MEN ORDERED FOR AUGUST 15TH.

By direction of the President, the draft for 300,000 militia to serve for nine months, called for August 4th, was deferred until Monday the first day of September, between the hours of 8 and 9 A.M. and 4 and 5 P.M.

THE CITY OFFERS A BOUNTY OF ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS FOR NINE MONTHS' MEN.

After the departure for Camp Stanton of those who enlisted for three years, and their acceptance by the United States government, the city commenced the filling of its quota for nine months' men.

August 8th (Friday). At a meeting of the city government an order introduced by Councilman Joseph G. Gerrish was adopted:

That a bounty of one hundred dollars for a number not exceeding the number required by the order for a new draft of able-bodied men between the ages of seventeen and fifty years to enlist as volunteers on the quota of Newburyport for the term of nine months, in the army of the United States, the said sum of one hundred dollars to be paid to the order of each individual who shall so enlist, by the treasurer of the city, until otherwise ordered by the city government, on presentation to him of the proper evidence of such enlistment, indorsed by the mayor.

August 21st the city government increased the bounty for nine months' men to $200.

PATRIOTIC APPEAL BY HON. EBEN F. STONE.

August 9th (Saturday). In the Newburyport Herald of this date, Hon. Eben F. Stone published the following patriotic card announcing his determination to enlist, and calling upon others to come forward and join the army of the Union.

NEVER OR NOW.

Fellow-citizens, — By the command of the President, the order has been issued for the immediate draft of three hundred thousand of the militia of the State, to serve for the term of nine months.

Will you wait to be actually drafted, or will you voluntarily respond with alacrity to the summons?

The crisis is upon us. Delay is ruin. The blast of war blows in our ears, and indecision at this solemn juncture is cowardly and disreputable.

The subscriber has resolved to go. He invites his fellow-citizens to join him. Come, put aside the claims of business and the charms of pleasant homes, and give your entire energies to the service of your country. The occasion demands it. Let every true man put on the armor of battle, and, if need be, lay down his life in the crisis. No sacrifice can be too great for the preservation of that Union which is the last best hope of Republican Liberty in the civilized world.

(Signed) EBEN F. STONE.

RECRUITING OF A COMPANY OF NINE MONTHS' VOLUNTEERS BY HON. EBEN F. STONE.

After appealing to his fellow-citizens to respond to the President, Mr. Stone immediately commenced the recruiting of a company, and in the Herald of August 11th called for volunteers.

The subscriber, with the consent and permission of the mayor, will open a recruiting office for nine months' volunteers, this day, August 11, in the store formerly occupied by Moulton & Talbot, corner of State and Pleasant streets. Let every man that can do a soldier's duty come and enlist immediately. The crisis admits of no delay.

(Signed) EBEN F. STONE.

Under the following order, the company known as Company B, 48th Regiment M. V. M., was recruited by Hon. Eben F. Stone:

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
HEADQUARTERS, BOSTON, August 13th, 1862.
SPECIAL ORDER No. 620.

The mayor and aldermen of Newburyport are hereby authorized to raise a volunteer militia company. The mayor and aldermen will cause the enclosed enlistment roll to be returned to this office as soon as filled. The utmost promptness is requisite. By command of His Excellency, John A. Andrew, Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

WILLIAM BROWN, A. A. General.

In addition to the recruiting office opened by Hon. Eben F. Stone, three others were authorized by the mayor, — one at the Ward Room, City Hall, one at the city marshal's office, Market Square, and one at the store, corner of State and Pleasant streets.

Col. Frederick J. Coffin, having offered the services of the 8th Regiment under the call for nine months' men, issued the following order:

HEADQUARTERS, 8TH REGIMENT, FOURTH BRIGADE,
SECOND DIVISION, M. V. M.
NEWBURYPORT, August 15th, 1862.

REGIMENTAL ORDER No. 4.

The colonel informs the regiment that after consultation with the field and line officers, he waited upon His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief, and reported the 8th Regiment ready for service.

His Excellency inquired if the ranks of the regiment were full, and stated that he could not accept the services of any regiment unless it was recruited to the United States standard.

This will render it necessary for commanders of companies to recruit without delay. The regiment is now fuller than it was when it was mustered into the service in April, 1861, or when it responded to His Excellency's order in May last, but officers and men have been, and are almost daily being, enlisted from it to fill the three years' regiments, and active exertions will be necessary to raise every company to the regulation standard. There is, however, a known desire on the part of many citizens of Essex County to rally around the flag of the old Eighth, and it is believed there will be no lack of recruits. Let the regiment appear at encampment with full ranks, and you may hope to again be permitted to march to the defence of the Union.

The high encomiums paid to the regiment in different communications addressed to it by His Excellency the Governor, during its term of service in 1861, encourage a belief that he will again order it into the field, so soon as it is recruited to the number which it appears now obligatory for a regiment to bear on its rolls, before it can be accepted.

Commanders of companies will make weekly reports of the number of men on their rolls, and will without delay promulgate this order to their respective commands. The assurance that the regiments will be accepted for nine months' service and placed in camp, if recruited in season, has been received from the commander-in-chief this afternoon.

By command of Col. Frederick J. Coffin.

EDWARD L. NOYES, Adjutant.

Active measures were immediately taken to recruit the Cushing Guards to the maximum standard required by the government. The armory was open every evening for drill and the enrollment of new members.

At a meeting of some of the citizens to consider the best method of raising the quota of nine months' men, and to stimulate enlistments, a committee, consisting of Hon. George W. Jackman, Jr., David Wood, Robert Bayley, William Cushing, William H. Swasey, and Charles H. Coffin, was appointed, to arrange for a series of meetings to be held in the afternoon on the mall and in the evening at City Hall on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, August 19th, 20th, and 21st. The committee announced that distinguished speakers would address the citizens upon the present national crisis; that the Salem Band would be present at each meeting, and that the bells of the city would ring one half-hour to notify the citizens and invite them to be present.

August 12th (Tuesday). A large and enthusiastic war meeting was held at the City Hall in the evening. Alderman George J. George called the meeting to order, and introduced Ex-Alderman Philip K. Hills as president. Eloquent addresses were made by Hon. Eben F. Stone, Rev. Daniel P. Pike, Mr. Calvin M. Woodward, Principal of the Brown High School, Capt. Henry W. Moulton, Henry G. Rollins, Esq., William H. P. Plummer, a recruit for three years, Rev. Samuel J. Spalding, D.D., and Rev. Randolph Campbell. A recruiting paper was circulated, and quite a number of names secured for the companies organizing for nine months' service.

August 19th (Tuesday). The first of the series of war meetings arranged by the committee of citizens was held on the mall during the afternoon. A large platform had been erected opposite the Putnam School for the accommodation of the speakers, the invited guests, and the band. At half-past three, as announced, the bells of the city began to ring to notify the citizens and invite their presence. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. Capt. David Wood called the meeting to order, and, after stating the object in calling the citizens together, announced Ex-Alderman Philip K. Hills as chairman, and Mr. John James Currier as secretary. Mr. Hills appealed earnestly to the young men of the city to respond to the call of the President and fill the quota of the city. Rev. James N. Sykes of the Congress Street Church, William H. Huse, Esq., of the Newburyport Herald, Mr. Edmund C. Pearson, a recruit, Dr. Hubbard of Boston, and Rev. Randolph Campbell, addressed the meeting. The meeting at the City Hall in the evening was very large, hundreds going away unable to gain admission. Mayor George W. Jackman, Jr., presiding, introduced William L. G. Green, Esq., Mr. Calvin M. Woodward, George Burns, Esq., of Boston, and Hon. William D. Northend of Salem.

August 20th (Wednesday). The second war meeting, or third of the series, was held on the mall in the afternoon, Mr. William Thurston presiding. Addresses were made by Ralph C. Huse, Jr., Edgar C. Rundlett, and Edmund C. Pearson, all recruits who had enlisted under the last call for troops; also by William H. Pearson and Rev. Samuel J. Spalding, D.D. The City Hall in the evening was packed with an appreciative audience, who listened to Professor Patterson of Dartmouth College, Rev. Mr. Van Meter of New York, Mr. George C. Spurr of Boston, and Lieutenant A. P. Pierce, U.S.A.

August 21st (Thursday). At the third war meeting on the mall the attendance was large. George J. L. Colby, Esq., presided. Hon. John B. Alley of Lynn, member of Congress from this district, Hon. A. A. Abbott of Danvers, Capt. John W. Mahan of the 9th Massachusetts Infantry, and Henry G. Rollins, Esq., one of the recent volunteers, addressed the assembly, and urged the young men of the city to enlist and fill the quota.

At the City Hall in the evening the gathering was more enthusiastic and patriotic than any that had preceded it.

Hon. Alexander H. Bullock, Rev. Elias Nason, and Hon. John B. Alley, spoke eloquently and earnestly in support of the President and the National Government. Great excitement prevailed. Volunteer after volunteer signed the enlistment roll, and urged others to do the same.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
HEADQUARTERS, BOSTON, August 21st, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER No. 38.

Whereas, The provisions of the statutes of this Commonwealth are defective for the purpose of carrying into effect the draft of militia under the order of the President of the United States, bearing date August 4th, 1862, It is therefore ordered,

First, That the quota of a draft of three hundred thousand militia, to be called into the service of the United States to serve for the period of nine months, unless sooner discharged, which the State of Massachusetts has been required to furnish, to wit, nineteen thousand and eighty men, be raised by a draft, which will be conducted in conformity with the regulations of the War Department of the United States contained in General Order No. 99 of said Department, bearing date August 9th, 1862, a copy of which is published with, and as a part of, the present order (marked A).

Second, It is further ordered, That the assessors of the several towns and cities use all possible dispatch in completing and returning the new enrollment in the manner heretofore ordered, which is in no respect modified by this order.

Third, And that the selectmen of the several towns, and mayors and aldermen of the several cities, immediately return to the office of the adjutant-general a sworn statement of the names and number of their inhabitants who have heretofore been mustered into the service of the United States, whose stipulated term of service has not expired, with the companies and regiments into which they have been enlisted. This return is directed in order that the draft may be equalized as far as possible, and the towns and cities which have heretofore furnished more men than their just proportion may have due allowance for the same in the draft.

Fourth, Commissioners to superintend drafting in each county will be forthwith appointed, and surgeons to determine claims of exemption on account of disability. These officers will receive minute instructions from the commander-in-chief as to the mode of executing their respective duties.

Fifth, Copies of the enrollment list for each town and city will be kept in the office of the town or city clerk for inspection. The copies to be returned to the adjutant-general will be filed with the sheriff of the several counties for two days previous to the commencement of drafting in any city or town.

Sixth, The commissioners and surgeons will themselves appoint times and places for receiving and determining claims for exemption, conformably to the regulations of the War Department, and all exemptions must be then and there claimed and determined, and not afterwards; but all exemptions known to the commissioners to exist, will be allowed, whether claimed or not.

Seventh, After all not liable to draft have been stricken from the list in any town or city by the commissioner, he will at once report the number remaining thereon to the adjutant-general, who will proceed to fix the exact quota of said town or city, and under the commissioner to make a draft for the same in the manner prescribed in the regulations of the War Department.

Eighth, Rendezvous and commandants of the same will be seasonably appointed.

Ninth, The drafting will commence in accordance with the order of the War Department, dated August 4th, 1862, which is herewith published as a part of this order (marked B).

Tenth, The instructions relating to enrollment promulgated through the State Department are herewith republished for the information of all.

Eleventh, Although every arrangement will be made as speedily as possible to execute this draft, — and the same will be promptly and rigidly carried out in any place which fails to furnish volunteers to the number of its quota of militia, — yet the municipal authorities and citizens of Massachusetts are earnestly exhorted to furnish at once the requisite number of volunteers in order to avoid wherever possible, and if possible everywhere, any necessity for drafting.

To this end the adjutant-general will at once publish for the information of the people an approximate estimate of the number of men due from each place, although an accurate statement cannot be made until the enrollment is completed, and the names of all not liable to draft have been stricken out. To prevent all misunderstanding, notice is given that all companies of volunteer militia which do not volunteer will be disbanded before the exemptions are arranged upon the enrollment lists. This course is rendered necessary because otherwise the members of the volunteer companies would be exempt from draft.

The commander-in-chief has never for a moment doubted that the patriotism of the people of Massachusetts, already illustrated by so much devotedness to the cause of their country from the beginning of the present struggle, would voluntarily furnish all the support of means and of men which the exigencies of the service and their duty may require. Nor does he believe it now doubtful that volunteers for the quota required will be enlisted as rapidly as the means can be accumulated for their care, equipment, and organization. But, as from the first it has been the purpose and duty of the State Government to obey all lawful orders emanating from the President and the Department of War, so now it is the purpose of the Governor of Massachusetts faithfully to pursue the directions he may receive in this behalf. And he relies on the unshrinking courage, the loyal patriotism, and the ancient manly character of the people of Massachusetts for all the support and encouragement which may be needed in the future.

By command of His Excellency, John A. Andrew, Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

WILLIAM SCHOULER, Adjutant-General.

August 22d (Friday). The 35th Regiment Massachusetts Infantry, to which Capt. A. W. Bartlett's company was attached, left camp at Lynnfield for Washington. This regiment was assigned to the second brigade, second division, of the Ninth Army Corps, commanded by Major-Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside, and was attached to the Army of the Potomac. The regiment remained in that Army Corps until the close of the war.

August 23d (Saturday). The company recruited by Hon. Eben F. Stone, accompanied by the Salem Brass Band, paraded the city. This company, at a meeting held in Essex Hall, August 28th, elected the following officers: Captain, Eben F. Stone; 1st Lieutenant, Calvin M. Woodward; 2d Lieutenant, Charles P. Morrison. Upon the organization of the 48th Regiment, M. V. M., to which the company was attached, Captain Stone was elected and commissioned colonel, 1st Lieutenant Woodward was elected captain, and Ira F. Laury to fill the vacancy of 1st Lieutenant.

August 25th (Monday). In the board of aldermen a committee was established consisting of Aldermen George J. George, Charles C. Dame, and Winthrop O. Evans, to carry into effect all orders embodied in General Order No. 38, by the commander-in-chief of the Commonwealth.

August 29th (Friday). The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the board of aldermen:

Resolved, That the city council have learned with regret of the decease of John Black, late volunteer from this city in the 11th Regiment Massachusetts Infantry. That from respect to his memory, the city council attend his funeral at his late residence to-morrow afternoon, and that the mayor, Alderman Charles C. Dame, Col. Frederick J. Coffin, Capt. Robert Bayley, and Capt. David Wood, be a committee of arrangements for the same.

August 30th (Saturday). The first military funeral held in the city during the war was that of John Black, who enlisted at Newburyport, Nov. 18th, 1861, in Company C, 11th Regiment Massachusetts Infantry, and after participating in the Peninsular campaign under General McClellan, taking part in the siege of Yorktown, the battles of Williamsburg, Fair Oaks, Glendale and Malvern Hill, he was discharged for disability, August 15th. Returning to his home, he survived but a few days, dying August 29th.

The services at his late home were conducted by Rev. O. S. Butler, after which a procession was formed under the escort of the Veteran Artillery Association, Capt. John Burrill, consisting of the city government, the Cushing Guards, and the newly organized company commanded by Capt. Eben F. Stone. The remains were conducted to the new burial ground, where other exercises were held, consisting of prayer by Rev. O. S. Butler, and speaking by Rev. Randolph Campbell, after which the remains were deposited in their last resting-place.

In response to section third of General Order No. 38, issued by the governor on the 21st day of August last, the mayor and aldermen reported to the adjutant-general, August 29th, the names of five hundred and forty-eight (548) men in the army, and eighty-three (83) men in the navy, making a total of six hundred and thirty (630) whose term of service had not expired.

This report, because of its being an official document, made in response to an order from the adjutant-general's office, and because of its having been used in a tabulated statement by the adjutant-general in his report for 1862, to show the number of men which Newburyport had furnished for three years, may at some remote period be regarded as accurate and reliable. It is, however, a very imperfect document, and must have been made from memory, not from carefully prepared records in possession of the city. Many corrections have been made in the original report by the author, whose appear against the names in parentheses ().

The General Order referred to, called for "a sworn statement of the number and names of the inhabitants who have heretofore been mustered into the service of the United States, whose specified term of service has not expired," etc.

In arranging the names alphabetically, it was discovered that several soldiers were reported as being in two organizations; and by referring to the individual records of those whose names are embraced in the report, it was ascertained that one hundred and fourteen men had either been killed in action, died of wounds or disease, or been discharged for disability, previous to the date of the report; while the names of a large number of volunteers who were at the time serving in both the army and navy had been omitted, notably Capt. George Creasey, and at that time Lieut. George Barker of the 30th Massachusetts Infantry, Benjamin Houston, Patrick Wall, and John Lockery of the 11th Massachusetts Infantry, and Albert Richardson, Paul A. Perkins, James Finn, and John McKnight of the 17th Massachusetts Infantry, while Daniel D. Aubin, Alvin Armitage, Jacob W. Cram, Charles L. Fleury, George W. Greenough, Joseph C. Pettingell, Henry C. Rich, and about fifty others, who were serving in the United States Navy, with a much larger number in the army, were not included in the report.

It is not strange that the errors noted should have found their way into this return. Evidently there was but little or no effort made by the city officers to keep a record of the enlistments or of the service of the soldiers and sailors who went from the city during the war. Indeed, aside from the books of record of the city council, there is practically nothing relating to the work done by the city during those eventful years. Not a copy of a single report or of an official letter is on file; while nothing can be found in the treasurer's office relating in the remotest degree to the large amount of money paid by the city for bounties, or for aid to the families of volunteers. The importance of preserving such a record seems not to have been considered.

September 1st (Monday). In board of aldermen, the mayor was authorized to draw his order for such a sum of money "as shall be sufficient to defray the expenses of the funeral of John Black, late a volunteer in the army of the United States, also that the city continue the payment of State aid to the family for one year from the date of his decease, or until otherwise ordered by the city council."

By General Order No. 43, from the adjutant-general's office, dated Sept. 1st, 1862, it was ordered: That exemptions claimed for disability must be certified to by a surgeon appointed by the governor for that purpose. Among those appointed for Essex County was Henry C. Perkins, M. D., of Newburyport.

The news of the second battle of Bull Run and the need of hospital supplies at Washington, D. C., was announced in the various churches on Sunday.

September 1st (Monday). Under the direction of the Soldiers' Aid Association, nearly four hundred ladies were employed at City Hall in preparing lint and bandages for the army. On Tuesday the hall was crowded with ladies engaged in the same patriotic work. At ten A. M. two boxes were forwarded, and before night four others followed, all containing hospital stores for the sick and wounded.

September 4th (Thursday). An order was adopted by the city council

Appropriating such sums of money as may be necessary for the temporary relief of the families of those volunteers who are now engaged in the army of the United States, and those heretofore engaged in said service and deceased, also those who may be hereafter so engaged.

A letter from the adjutant-general's office, dated Boston, September 10th, informed the mayor and aldermen, "That the secretary of war had not given permission to credit the men in the naval service of the United States in making the quota of nine months' men." Without giving such credits, the quota of Newburyport was one hundred and fifty-six (156) men.

September 10th (Wednesday). The company recruited and commanded by Capt. Eben F. Stone left the city for "Camp Lander" at Wenham, where it was mustered into the United States service September 16th. It remained until the organization of the 48th Regiment was completed, when it was removed with the regiment to "Camp Meigs," Boxford, Mass.

The 48th Regiment Infantry, M. V. M., was organized as an Essex County regiment, under the call of August 4th for 300,000 volunteers to serve for nine months. It left Camp F. W. Lander, at Wenham, Massachusetts, for New York, Dec. 27th, 1862, and sailed for New Orleans, La., Jan. 4th, 1863, where it arrived February 1st. It was sent two days later to Baton Rouge, and became part of the first brigade, first division, Nineteenth Army Corps. It took part in the Port Hudson campaign under General Banks, and was engaged at Plains Store, La., May 21st, Port Hudson, La., May 27th, furnishing ninety-three men from its ranks for the storming party; siege of Port Hudson, June 12th-14th; Baton Rouge, La., July 8th; Donaldsonville, La., July 13th. The casualties in the regiment during its term of service, as given in the adjutant-general's report, were, killed and died of wounds, 18; died of disease, 40; wounded in action, 69. Aug. 9th, 1863, the regiment left for Massachusetts, its term of service having expired. It arrived at Boston, August 23rd, and was mustered out of service at Camp Lander, Wenham, Sept. 3rd, 1863.

September 12th (Friday). The Cushing Guards, Company A, 8th Regiment Infantry, M. V. M., Capt. Stephen D. Gardiner, left home for Camp Stanton, Boxford, Mass. Having recruited to the maximum standard, it was mustered into the United States service September 15th.

The 8th Regiment, Massachusetts Infantry (militia), was in every respect an Essex County organization. It was organized in 1855, and constituted a part of the State militia at the breaking out of the war. It served in the three months' campaign in 1861, and was again recruited, for nine months' service, at Camp Stanton, Boxford, and Camp F. W. Lander, Wenham, Mass. On Nov. 25th, 1862, the regiment left the State for North Carolina, where it arrived on the 30th. Proceeding to New Berne, it was assigned to the second brigade, first division, commanded by Col. Thomas G. Stephenson of the 24th Massachusetts Infantry. Companies A of Newburyport and E of Beverly were detached from the regiment, and assigned to garrison duty at Roanoke Island. On June 28th, 1863, the regiment was ordered to Massachusetts to be mustered out, but on the 30th was sent to Baltimore, and assigned to a brigade commanded by Brigadier-General Briggs. July 7th it marched to Maryland Heights, and on the 13th joined the Army of the Potomac at Funkstown, and was assigned to the second division, First Army Corps, where it remained until July 26th, when it was ordered home. On July 29th the regiment returned to Massachusetts, and was mustered out Aug. 7th, 1863.

September 16th (Tuesday). At a meeting of the city council

A bounty of $200 was authorized to be paid to each of those volunteers who, as citizens of Newburyport, have been or may be mustered into the service of the United States previous to the first day of October next, in the companies commanded by Capt. Eben F. Stone and Capt. Stephen D. Gardiner for the term of nine months.

At a meeting of the city council on the 18th, the words "Citizens of Newburyport," as expressed above, were defined as residents of Newburyport.

September 21st (Sunday). Mayor George W. Jackman, Jr., to-day received the following dispatch from Baltimore, Md.:

Shall leave for home this afternoon with the body of Capt. A. W. Bartlett.

(Signed) GEORGE W. CREASEY.

September 22d (Tuesday). At a special meeting of the city government, called for the purpose of arranging suitable funeral honors to the memory of Captain Bartlett, as the commander of the first Newburyport company to leave for the war, and the first commissioned officer from the city killed in action, a joint special committee, consisting of Aldermen Nathaniel Pierce and William H. Huse, and Councilmen Charles O. Morse, Joseph G. Gerrish, and Daniel A. W. Perkins, reported the following:

Resolved, That the city council of Newburyport has learned with deep regret of the decease of Albert W. Bartlett, late captain of Company B of the 35th Massachusetts Regiment, who has fallen in the late battle near Maryland Heights.

Resolved, That by this sad event the country has lost a true patriot, the city a useful and enterprising citizen, our militia a most zealous, brave, and efficient officer, and the community one who, in all the relations of life, was a most gentlemanly and honorable man.

Resolved, That the bravery and patriotism of Captain Bartlett were equally displayed in the battle in which he fell, and when as captain of Company A of the gallant Eighth, with but eighteen men, he reported himself ready to march in the defense of the capital; and though it is appropriate for a brave man to die leading his comrades on to victory, yet we cannot but regret that his bravery and services in the cause of the right should be lost to his country.

Resolved, That we tender our sympathy to his family and friends in this their sad hour of bereavement, mitigated only by the reflection that he died an honorable and heroic death.

Resolved, That the city clerk transmit a copy of these resolutions to the family of the deceased, and that they be entered on the records of the city.

A general committee was appointed to arrange for the funeral ceremonies, and Aldermen George J. George and Winthrop O. Evans, and Councilmen Jacob G. Brown, Ralph C. Huse, and William P. Plummer, were appointed to receive the body on its arrival in Boston, and accompany it to Newburyport.

On the arrival of the remains in Newburyport they were taken to the family residence on Winter Street, where they remained until noon, when they were conducted to the City Hall, and guarded by a detachment from the Veteran Artillery Association until the hour of exercises at the Pleasant Street Church.

The following account of the funeral of Captain Bartlett is taken from the Newburyport Herald:

Capt. Albert W. Bartlett was buried under arms on Tuesday afternoon. The order as announced was, in the main, observed in the obsequies of the fallen soldier. It was as follows:

ORDER OF EXERCISES AT THE CHURCH.

Voluntary on the organ by James W. Cheney.

The remains were received by the nine o'clock train from Boston, and placed in the City Hall. From thence, at the appointed time, they were conveyed to the Pleasant Street Church, where exercises highly appropriate, solemn, and touching were listened to by as many as could gain admission, — a much larger number leaving in disappointment for want of accommodation.

The addresses by Drs. Vermilye and Spalding, which followed the opening prayer and reading of the Scriptures, were brief but pertinent; neither the virtues of the deceased, nor the noble example he had set before the world, were forgotten. He had started at the first call of his country, when as yet there was little excitement and the sympathies of the public had not been stirred. The capital, it was announced, was in danger, and it was enough; and gathering a patriotic company by individual effort, he at once reported himself with his comrades ready for any duty the exigency might require. So it had been again, and yet again; and now having been brought into conflict with the enemy in the hardest fought field, and in the hardest fought battle of that field, he had fallen, yielding up his life for his country and her blood-bought institutions. We could but be sad, and mourn the loss of a true soldier and a warm-hearted patriot. We could but condole with the bereaved friends, weeping wife and fatherless child, father and mother, brother and sister. Still, the dark cloud had a silver lining: there was in the deep gloom much to rejoice over and quicken to duty. The only commissioned officer who had gone from Newburyport, fallen in battle and been brought home for burial, we lamented; but his life was a noble sacrifice, and it was freely offered, and so it would be regarded. Whatever the wants of the nation might be, whatever the requisitions upon her citizens, they would be responded to; and it was such unconquerable purpose, such dauntless courage, such lofty patriotism as the deceased had evinced, that would secure such a result hereafter. But it was more than the death of a single individual we deprecated. Others had met the same fate; and many had been wounded, and might soon be reported beyond the reach of hope. We were, however, to maintain our firmness and be confident to the last.

The closing exercises at the church was a dirge by Hall's Boston Brass Band, which seemed a fitting finale when we remember that the brave man breathed out his expiring breath while yet "martial sounds" fell upon his ear, drowning the groans of the dying comrades, and rendering his last moments peaceful and exultant.

The body was deposited in Oak Hill Cemetery, with military honors. After it had been placed in its last home, a dirge was played, three volleys were fired, friends gazed once more upon the receptacle of "the dear dust," and then passed away to scenes which when animate it had filled with life and joy. Whether we speak of what occurred at the grave, in the church, or in reference to the general arrangements for the funeral, we may say all was done that affection could ask, or the purest patriotism merit. Business was generally suspended, the schools closed, stores dressed in mourning, flags of the shipping and at other points placed at half-mast, and bouquets, wreaths, and chaplets brought forward in profusion to mark the sad event and impress it upon the memory of every sympathetic heart. And this indeed is well. We cheer the soldier when he first devotes himself to the cause of liberty and his country, and we give him a hearty welcome when his term of service expires and he comes from the battlefield again to engage in the pursuits of peace; or, if it be his fate to die in the conflict, he has earned the glory which ever crowns a patriot's grave; and that man is a traitor, or a villain, or both, who is not proud to acknowledge it.

The Daily Herald of the same date editorially said :

Our community was filled with sadness on Sunday afternoon, by a telegram from Baltimore announcing that Captain Bartlett of Company B, 35th Regiment, was dead, and his remains then on the way home for burial. The messenger with the corpse was expected here last evening or this morning, and the funeral will be on Tuesday afternoon. This was the first news of the casualty, and we have few particulars. It is probable that Captain Bartlett was killed in the battle of Wednesday, and perhaps the body was not recovered till Thursday, or the fact would have been reported with the casualties to other officers.

Captain Bartlett was a young man, but thirty years old, and leaves a wife and one child. He had much military taste, and for many years had been connected with the volunteer militia, holding the position of captain when the rebellion commenced. He was one of the first to answer the call of the President for 75,000 men to defend the capital. His orders were received late in the afternoon, and he reported the next morning. He served honorably during the three months; and the acts of the 8th Regiment are known to the country and the world, for at the time their praises were on all tongues, and in all papers at home and abroad. The regiment had a public reception in Boston, and the Cushing Guards was in the same manner received here. As they were not again called into service, Captain Bartlett was at home a full year; but when during that period the alarm was sounded that the capital was again in danger, at the time of Banks' retreat, he called his men out at dead of night, and with full ranks they reached Boston in the first train of cars. Ever was he ready to serve his country — to fight its battles; and he would not have been absent from the camp or field a day, if he could have avoided it. At the last call for three years' men, he aided in recruiting Company B, of the 35th Regiment, and was elected their captain, and hastened to the conflict. In less than four weeks from leaving this city he was dead. He fell where he would have wished to die, at the head of his brave men, fighting for the Constitution and the Union: he died where he would have wished to die, where the booming of cannons sounded his requiem, and the cry of victory cheered his last moments. Brave man, farewell! Peace, an eternal peace to thee! Friends will lament thee; acquaintances will recall thy generous and manly qualities; and a grateful country will enroll thy name on the list of martyrs who died for freedom.

At a meeting of the officers of the 8th Regiment, M. V. M., held at their regimental headquarters, at Camp Stanton, Boxford, September 24th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the officers of the 8th Regiment, M. V. M., now in the United States service, have heard with sadness of the death of our old companion in arms, Capt. Albert W. Bartlett of Newburyport, late captain in the 35th Regiment Massachusetts Volunteers, who was killed in the battle of Antietam September 17th, bravely fighting at the head of his company.

Resolved, That we fully appreciate the patriotism and perseverance which on the first call of the President led him, in the face of obstacles which none of the rest of us had to encounter, to hurry forward with a handful of men, relying on the justice of his cause, and sober reflections of his fellow-citizens, for the filling up of his ranks.

Resolved, That we remember with pleasure his frank and cordial manners, and bear witness to his ability as an officer, to his promptness, his reliability, and especially to his great modesty, with the utmost satisfaction. We believe that no officer in our regiment was more esteemed by his companions or respected by his command.

Resolved, That to his many mourning relatives and friends we desire to extend all the sympathy which these or which any words, however fitly spoken, might freely express.

Captain Bartlett is no more: to our righteous cause he gave "all that he had," — his life. Let us as brother soldiers in the impending conflict keep his memory green. Goodwin and Bartlett have gone before; others probably soon must follow; but whatever we do, or whatever we suffer, let us, like them, remember

"God and our native land."

JAMES HUDSON, JR.,
Captain Company F, Chairman.

DAVID W. LOW, Captain Company G, Secretary.

The death of Captain Bartlett was not known until after the battle had ended. He was killed after dark on the evening of September 17th, near what is known as Burnside's bridge while the regiment occupied the advanced position near the lane, and before it had withdrawn to the shelter of the rising ground. This, however, was not known until Friday morning, as the field between the regiment and the rebel line, a distance of about five hundred feet, over which the regiment had retired after dark, was strewn with the dead and dying of both armies. Neither would permit the other to visit it. The last seen of the captain was after the darkness had closed in upon the terrible scene of the afternoon. He walked along the line to the left, and stood for quite a time in conversation with Captain King; as he turned to go to his own company, he remarked, "Captain, my men are being terribly cut up." His body was found near where the conversation was held, among the dead of Company K, which accounts for his not having been seen by the men of his own company after he fell. The body contained four wounds, — one in the right thigh, another in the right arm, the third in the right side, while the fourth shattered the left leg below the knee. As the position occupied by the body was commanded by a cross-fire from a rebel battery, it is presumed that all the wounds were received at the same time. The body was first discovered by Colonel Provost of the 118th Pennsylvania Infantry, who was in command of the skirmish line which advanced early Friday morning. The remains were soon in the hands of friends. Not far from where the body of the captain lay, and in rear of the position occupied by Company B, were the remains of David R. Hinkley, Alphonso P.

Reed, and Caleb C. Pike, all of Company B. Jeremiah Long, Jr., who was killed by a shell or solid shot striking him in the head, was not identified. George W. Hodgdon was doubtless severely wounded, and died at some field hospital, as his body could not be found. All the wounded of Company B were at this time being cared for at the hospitals in the rear of the lines, excepting Corp. William C. Colby and Joseph Cossar, who were both mortally wounded and remained on the field.

The casualties among the soldiers from Newburyport were greater during the Maryland campaign under General McClellan than at any period of the war. The week embracing the battles of South Mountain and Antietam was one of painful anxiety, bringing sadness and desolation to many hearts and homes. The 35th Regiment, in which so many men from Newburyport had enlisted, left the State August 22d, and was immediately sent to the Army of the Potomac. In less than four weeks from time of its leaving home, it had been actively engaged in both of the battles mentioned, and eleven men from this city had been killed or died of wounds, and twenty-eight wounded; while in the 19th Massachusetts Infantry, two men from this city were killed and three wounded, and one from the 1st Company of Massachusetts Sharpshooters killed.

The sad news received from the battlefields of South Mountain and Antietam prompted Postmaster Nathan A. Moulton and Mr. Eben Manson to start immediately for the front, to assist in any way possible the soldiers from Newburyport who were wounded or sick in hospital, and to visit the men from this city in the 35th Regiment. In company with Sergt. George W. Creasey they arrived in Baltimore and visited the Stewart Mansion, West Warehouse, and McKim's hospitals, at each of which places Newburyport men were found. They also visited the hospitals in Frederick City, Middletown, Boonsboro, Keedysville, Md., and the field hospitals near Antietam, distributing at each place a portion of the supplies brought from home. Their advent among those who were suffering in hospital was hailed with expressions of joy, while the delicacies distributed were received with grateful hearts. Their kindness of heart will always be remembered by those who were consoled by their sympathy, enlivened by their cheerfulness, and assisted by their liberality.

October 6th (Monday). At a meeting of the city council the following resolutions, introduced by Alderman William H. Huse, were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has come to the knowledge of the city government that Corp. William C. Colby of Company B, 35th Regiment of Massachusetts Volunteers, died at Boonsboro, Md., on the third instant, from wounds received at the battle of Antietam, therefore

Resolved, That by his death the city of Newburyport loses a worthy and patriotic citizen, who has laid down his life in defense of the government, and whose name deserves remembrance as a martyr in the cause of constitutional liberty, which was dearer to him than life itself.

Resolved, That we hereby tender our sympathies to the widow of the deceased, and the friends who are called to mourn his early death.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the records of the city in honor of the man, that a copy of the same be presented to the family of the deceased, and as a further token of respect the city government will attend his funeral, and during the funeral ceremonies display the flag for which he fought at half-mast on the City Hall.

A committee, consisting of Aldermen William H. Huse and George J. George, and Councilmen William H. Johnson, Jacob G. Brown, and Moses Pettingell, Jr., was appointed to make arrangements for the funeral.

The city council also provided that all volunteers from the city who were not commissioned officers, who had been or should thereafter be discharged from the army for disability contracted while in the service, might receive aid from the city not to exceed $12 per month, at the discretion of the Relief Committee. At the same meeting the Veteran Artillery Association was given the custody of the two field-pieces belonging to the State.

October 7th (Tuesday). The funeral of Corp. William C. Colby of Company B, 35th Regiment Massachusetts Infantry, who died at Boonsboro, Md., from wounds received at Antietam, took place from the Christian Chapel on Court Street.

The attendance was very large, the people surrounding the church for hours before the time. The exercises at the church were marked by the deepest solemnity, and the remarks of Rev. Daniel P. Pike were listened to with the closest attention. The deceased was a man of generous feelings, and had attached to him many warm friends, who will long remember and sincerely mourn him. In the procession to the grave were the city government, the United States officers in town, the firemen, and many soldiers.

At a meeting of the Board of Engineers of the city, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Whereas, The mournful event of the death of Corp. William C. Colby, late a member of this Board, who fell while gallantly fighting for his country, at the battle of Antietam, on the 17th day of September last, demands from us a suitable record of the feelings of sorrow engendered in our hearts by the loss of one whom, now that he is no more, it is our sad privilege to mourn: therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Corp. William C. Colby, the country has lost the services of a brave and faithful soldier, the Fire Department a faithful member, and we a devoted friend.

Resolved, That we deeply deplore the death of our late friend and companion, and we beg leave to tender our heartfelt sympathy and condolence to his widow and relatives; and although we shall see his manly form no more among us, we console ourselves with the reflection that his spirit is now in a better world, while the memory of his many virtues will long be cherished in our hearts.

October 9th (Thursday). The mayor was authorized by the city council to pay the bounty of $200 to five men belonging to the company commanded by Capt. Stephen D. Gardiner, and the same amount to two men in the company commanded by Capt. Eben F. Stone, the parties having enlisted previous to the first day of October, but not mustered into the United States service until after that date; the order passed September 16th paying a bounty of $200 to volunteers having expired by limitation October 1st.

October 22d (Wednesday). The remains of Andrew J. Nash of Company B, 35th Massachusetts Infantry, who died at Middleton, Md., September 25th, from wounds received in the battle at South Mountain, arrived in the city. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Daniel P. Pike at the Christian Chapel on Court Street.

November 22. General Order No. 58 by the governor, ordering a draft to be made on the 8th of December, gave a schedule by which it appeared that in this city

was	1,564
Whole number of non-exempts in three years' service	548
Liable to draft	1,016
Newburyport's whole quota as assigned by General Order No. 58	836
Whole number of men in three years' service	548
Whole number of nine months' men required	234
Number of nine months' men mustered in	288
Number of nine month's men mustered in	235
Leaving number to be furnished at this date	54

November 24th (Monday). At a meeting of the city council the mayor was authorized to draw his order on the city treasurer for a sum of money to pay the funeral expenses of Andrew J. Nash, formerly a private in Company B, 35th Regiment Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry.

Colonel Fry, provost-marshal-general of the United States, having changed his original decisions allowing credit for surplus men furnished by the cities and towns, the draft for the nine months' men was ordered to proceed as though no surplus existed. Newburyport had furnished, exclusive of naval enlistments, five hundred and eighty-five men for three years, thirty-seven men in excess of all demand made upon the city. This surplus the government having refused to consider when the quota of nine months' men was being recruited, left a deficiency on the first of December of over fifty men. The city council at its meeting December 1st authorized the mayor

To offer and pay a bounty of $200 per man for a sufficient number of men to answer the requisition upon the city for nine months' service, under the recent apportionment, and that he take such measures as he shall deem expedient for raising said men.

At a meeting of the city council held December 3, the bounty of $200 was made to apply to all volunteers enlisting for nine months' or three years' service.

December 3d (Wednesday). The city council chose a committee consisting of Aldermen Nathaniel Pierce, George J. George, and Councilmen Curtis French, Ralph C. Huse, and Stephen M. Pillsbury,

To confer with the commissioners appointed to allow exempts upon the military rolls of this district, and to do and to perform any and all service required to perfect the enrollment list of this city, in such a manner as will fully and plainly exhibit the exempts to which the city is entitled, and generally to do all other acts necessary for a compliance with General Order No. 58.

December 30th (Tuesday). The city government ordered

That the Relief Committee pay to the families of deceased volunteers the amount of State Aid said families would have been entitled to receive had they continued in service, until such families shall receive the pension passed by the Congress of the United States, July 14th, 1862.

CITY TREASURER.

DANIEL GRANGER.

Mayor Boardman in his inaugural address made the following allusion to our national affairs:

It has fallen to our lot to be called to manage the municipal affairs of our city, in this, as it appears to me, the most critical period of our nation's history; for contrary to the most cherished hopes and sanguine expectations indulged by us all at the commencement of the year just closed, the dark cloud of war still hangs over our beloved country, and our citizens are still required by the National Government to go forth to mortal combat against those once our brethren.

To all the demands which have been made upon our city, whether for men or means, nobly has she responded; and the fair fame and glorious record of our fathers has suffered no blot at the hands of their sons. Out of a population of less than thirteen thousand, we have already sent into the field nine hundred and one (901) men, and ninety-five (95) of our seamen have entered the naval service. The oft decimated ranks of our companies furnish honorable proof that they have been foremost among the brave.

* Resigned.

January 4th (Sunday). Rev. Samuel J. Spalding of the Whitefield Church, State Street, announced to his congregation that he had been commissioned chaplain of the 48th Regiment of Infantry, M. V. M.

January 5th (Monday). At a meeting of the city council, the mayor and aldermen, with Councilmen Moses Pettingell, Jr., Thomas C. Goodwin, William H. Johnson, Charles M. Hodge, Thomas H. Cutter, and John Currier, 3d, were chosen a special committee for 1863, to have charge of all matters relating to aid of families of volunteers.

February 2d (Monday). At a meeting of the mayor and aldermen, the mayor presented the following report:

At a meeting of the Relief Committee held on Tuesday, January 27th, it was voted to recommend to the city council the appropriation of a sum of money to be applied to the relief of the families of those volunteers who have died, or may die, and also to those who have been or may be discharged permanently disabled, the same to be continued for the space of six months unless a pension should sooner be received, or unless further State legislation shall render such aid unnecessary.

February 4th (Wednesday). The funeral of Elbridge Graves, late of Company A, 45th Massachusetts Infantry, who died at Kinston, N. C., December 17th, from wounds received December 14th, took place at the North Church. The services were most solemn and impressive, the Rev. Mr. Campbell of the Prospect Street Church reading selections of Scripture, and Rev. E. C. Hooker offering prayer. Dr. S. K. Lothrop of Boston, who acted as chaplain of the 45th Regiment while encamped at Readville, made an eloquent and touching address. The ceremonies at the church were concluded by a dirge from the Newburyport Brass Band, after which a procession was formed under the escort of the City Cadets, Capt. Luther Dame, which marched to the Oak Hill Cemetery, where the remains were deposited in the receiving tomb. They were subsequently removed to the burying-ground on Ring's Island, Salisbury.

February 8th (Sunday). Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church, Congress Street, over the remains of Sergt. Whitman Holmes of Company B, 40th New York Infantry (Mozart), who died at Falmouth, Va., January 31st. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Campbell officiated. The procession was escorted to the burial-ground on Westley Street by the City Cadets, accompanied by the Newburyport Band, where the ceremonies were concluded by a dirge and the military salute.

February 12th (Thursday). The obsequies of Jeremiah Downs, who enlisted from this city in the McClellan Guards, were attended at the Pleasant Street Church this afternoon, Rev. A. B. Muzzey conducting the services. In his address he referred to the testimonials of good character and good conduct the deceased had received from the officers of his company, how bravely and how firmly he had stood the shock of battle, and finally, when unable by sickness to meet the rigors of camp life, he was transferred to hospital, where, while ministering to the comforts of others, he contracted disease that cost him his life.

The number of families receiving aid from the city on account of those who have enlisted in the service of the United States as part of the quota of the city, was four hundred and thirty-four (434). The disbursements, amounting to eight hundred and sixty-one ($61) dollars weekly, were divided as follows: Ward One, 82 families receiving $158; Ward Two, 63 families receiving $133; Ward Three, 55 families receiving $104; Ward Four, 73 families receiving $132; Ward Five, 90 families receiving $183; Ward Six, 71 families receiving $151. Of the whole number of families receiving assistance, 139 received $3 per week, 151 received $2 per week, and 142 received $1 per week.

March 2d (Monday). At the regular meeting of the city council, the mayor laid before the board of aldermen a telegraphic message from C. M. Davis at Portland, Me., notifying him that General Wool would visit Portsmouth, N. H., on the 3d inst., and would like to meet the mayor in regard to fortifications at the mouth of the Merrimack River. The mayor being unable to attend, it was voted that he be requested to appoint a committee to meet General Wool and confer with him upon the subject. Alderman William Graves and Norman C. Greenough were selected as the committee.

They conferred with General Wool at the time and place named; and after the examination of a chart of the coast and the Merrimack River, and having ascertained all the facts relating to our harbor, the General expressed the opinion that a fortification should be built without delay.

March 13th (Friday). The body of Daniel P. Howard, late of Company B, 19th Massachusetts Infantry, killed at Fredericksburg, Dec. 13th, 1862, was buried from the Prospect Street Church, Rev. O. S. Butler, pastor, officiating. The services were attended by His Honor Mayor Jackman and a large number of soldiers.

April 6th (Monday). At the regular meeting of the city council, Alderman John J. Currier presented the following resolutions, which were unanimously passed:

Whereas, Company B of the 40th (Mozart) Regiment of New York State Volunteers is mainly composed of citizens of Newburyport, who enlisted at the commencement of the present Civil War, neither expecting nor receiving pecuniary reward, and since that date have endured all the hardships and privations of a soldier's life; and whereas, in consequence of their identification with the New York State Volunteers, their services have failed to receive from this Commonwealth that acknowledgment and commendation which would seem to be justly due them; therefore, be it

Resolved, That for soldierly and exemplary conduct in camp, and brave and heroic conduct on the field, the thanks of the city be tendered to the commissioned officers and privates of Company B of said regiment, with the assurance on our part that while Williamsburg and Fair Oaks and Malvern Hill and Fredericksburg are remembered, their deeds of valor on those blood-stained fields will never be forgotten.

Resolved, That while we mourn the loss of those of said company who have fallen in the shock of battle, or have yielded to disease contracted in camp, we are proud to know that while living they were stout of heart and valiant in spirit, at all times nobly sustaining the honor and credit of the city of their birth and adoption.

Resolved, That the city clerk be directed to forward a copy of these resolutions to Capt. Henry H. Foster of Company B, New York State Volunteers (Mozart Regiment), to be communicated through him to the members of said company now in camp on the banks of the Rappahannock.

These resolutions having been forwarded to Captain Foster and communicated to the company, the following response was received by the mayor:

HEADQUARTERS 40TH REGIMENT NEW YORK VOLUNTEERS,
NEAR POTOMAC CREEK, VA., May 10th, 1863.

TO THE HONORABLE THE MAYOR AND ALDERMEN AND COMMON COUNCIL
OF NEWBURYPORT, MASS.:

Gentlemen, — I have been favored by Captain Foster of Company B of this regiment with a copy of the resolutions of your honorable body, with reference to him and his command, and I beg you will allow me to give those resolutions my full approval.

As commandant of the regiment I have been cognizant of their conduct, and may freely say that they have contributed largely to the glory which the regiment has earned in many a hard-fought battle, — a glory which I am proud to say is conceded by all military men, and which has been bought by the sacrifice of much blood, in which your city has offered a free tribute.

Company B has ever been ready at the right time, in the right place, and Captain Foster has ever been with them to show them the way. Much as I rejoice that the company is in my regiment, I have often wondered that Massachusetts should allow so fine a body of men to leave the State for service at a time when every loyal State needs all of her best and bravest sons in her own ranks.

Captain Foster, I consider, stands in the front rank of military men, and as a brave and fearless officer has few equals and no superiors. And I may safely add the same of Lieutenants Stover and Welch, whose loss to the regiment I very much deplore.

With many thanks for the generous though just and deserved sentiments embodied in these resolutions, I remain, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

T. W. EGAN, Colonel 40th New York Volunteers, Commanding First Brigade.

CAMP 40TH NEW YORK VOLUNTEERS,
NEAR POTOMAC CREEK, VA., May 9th, 1863.

TO THE HONORABLE THE MAYOR AND ALDERMEN AND COMMON COUNCIL
OF NEWBURYPORT, MASS.:

Gentlemen, — The preamble and resolutions which your honorable body were pleased to pass April 6th, 1863, with reference to myself and my command, I have the pleasure of communicating in person to the few who now remain of the company. I assure you, gentlemen, that I am truly grateful for your kindness in thus indorsing not only my military conduct, but the conduct of the brave men whom it is my fortune to command.

The peculiarly trying circumstances under which we entered the service, together with the efficient and indomitable energy of Captain Westcott, did much to prepare them for the trying scenes through which they have passed, and in which so many have suffered, but above and before all, Nature made them brave. They enlisted without a bounty, and they have fought without flinching. There are a few who with neither moral courage nor pride of character have basely deserted rather than stand before the shock of battle. Cowards and poltroons! Their names have been obliterated from the roll of honor, which is in so many places crimson with the blood of those who have fallen under the flag we have sworn to defend.

To Captain Westcott we owe much for the energy which overcame the many obstacles thrown in our path, and gained for us a position in one of the best regiments in the service; and to him personally I am under lasting obligations, not only for the kind courtesy with which he ever treated me while an officer under him, but for the many acts of kindness manifested towards myself and the men since his retirement from the service.

In Lieutenants Stover and Welch I have had able support, and the noble example of unflinching courage to stimulate the men in the hour of peril; and in the men I have had a devotion and heroism worthy of the highest praise.

If in the various and oftentimes perplexing duties I have been called upon to perform, I have succeeded in gaining your approval, I am truly proud, but can only claim to have tried earnestly to do my duty.

In behalf of myself and the men, I again thank you for your kindness, and remain, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

HENRY H. FOSTER,

Captain Company B, 40th New York Volunteers.

The Newburyport Herald records the death of Charles Walter Huse, aged twenty-one years, son of Mr. Charles L. Huse of this city, who died at the residence of his father, Monday morning, April 6th, and says of him:

He belonged to our National Guards, Company B, 40th New York (Mozart) Regiment, from which he was discharged as incurably sick January 7th, after serving nineteen months. He was in several hard battles and a number of skirmishes, his regiment being in the thickest of the fight in the Peninsular campaign. He held a good reputation as a soldier, never shrinking and never fearing. But the labors and exposure were too much for him; and after escaping the bullets of the foe so many months, he at last succumbed to disease and returned home to die.

April 18th (Saturday). The funeral of Edward W. Page, private of Company A, 23d Massachusetts Infantry, occurred this afternoon at the residence of his father, Mr. William E. Page, No. 2 Winter Street. He enlisted in August, 1861, and followed his regiment to North Carolina, where he was sick in the hospital for several months, but unable to get his discharge until the 7th inst., when he was too far gone to recover. He reached home Wednesday the 15th, and died Friday the 17th inst.

April 29th. The Legislature passed an Act to provide for the reimbursement to the cities and towns of the Commonwealth the bounties which had been paid by them to volunteers who had enlisted and been mustered into the service of the United States under the calls of the President made in July and August, 1862, not exceeding $100 for each volunteer. The governor of the Commonwealth issued an executive order, May 13th, 1863, requiring all cities and towns to make returns, giving the names of all such volunteers to whom they had paid bounties, the amount paid to each, and the regiments to which they were assigned.

The following is the return made by the mayor and aldermen June 30th, 1863:

A LIST OF THOSE TO WHOM A BOUNTY OF $200 WAS PAID, WHO WERE ENLISTED AND MUSTERED INTO THE SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE CALLS OF THE PRESIDENT MADE IN THE MONTHS OF JULY AND AUGUST, 1862.

From the assessors' books the tax for 1863 was assessed upon a value in real estate of $3,048,700, personal property $3,395,000, total $6,443,700, — a decline on the real estate from 1862 of $114,750, while the personal property is advanced $339,000, which makes a total gain of $224,250. This gain does not, however, reach the valuation of 1861 by $154,400. The amount of money required by the city for the current year was derived from tax on real estate, $42,647.40; tax on personal property, $47,570; tax on polls, $4,696.00, — making a total of $94,913.40. The demands were as follows: State tax, $18,768; county tax, $7,818.29; city appropriation, $65,000; overplus, $3,337.11. The polls for this year were 2,348, which is 114 less than 1862, and 82 less than 1861.

May 4th (Monday). At a meeting of the city government the following order was adopted: —

That the room in City Hall used as a ward room be, until otherwise ordered, used as a recruiting office to obtain recruits for the Artillery Regiment now stationed at Fort Warren; the expense of heating and lighting the same, and the expense of advertising the same, also of posters, be paid by the city, and charged to the appropriation of incidentals.

The above to be carried into effect so soon as Lieut. J. H. Baldwin shall satisfy the mayor that all recruits obtained at said office shall be credited to this city as a part of any quota it may be called upon to furnish, and the bounty of six dollars per man for all accepted men be paid into the city treasury.

May 15th. The remains of Alphonso P. Reed of Company B, 35th Massachusetts Infantry, killed at Antietam, Sept. 17th, 1862, were buried from his father's residence on Middle Street.

June 1st (Monday). The United States side-wheel steamer Ascutney, built by Hon. George W. Jackman, Jr., sailed to-day for New York.

She is 974 tons' burden, her extreme length 242 feet, width 35 feet, over guards 57 feet, depth of hold 12 feet. She is schooner-rigged, with wire rope rigging; and in the fore and main top are rifle pits designed for sharpshooters. She has two rifle-proof pilot-houses covered with $\frac{3}{8}$ in. composition, and when in action they are entirely closed, with the exception of a small lookout about two inches in diameter. Being designed for river navigation, she is provided with a rudder at each end, that she may move about with greater facility. Her bulwarks are iron plates $\frac{5}{16}$ of an inch in thickness, and intended to be bullet-proof. Her armament will consist of ten guns. Her engines, built at the Morgan Iron Works in New York, are of 300 horse-power. The dimensions of the wheels are 26 feet 8 in., and she draws less than five feet of water.

June 12th (Friday). The remains of David R. Hinkley of Company B, 35th Massachusetts Infantry, killed at Antietam, Md., Sept. 17th, 1862, were brought to this city and buried this afternoon.

June 16th. Funeral of Capt. Charles E. Cross, Brevet Lieut.-Colonel United States Engineers, a native of Amesbury, and a cadet at the United States Military Academy from July 1st, 1856, to May 6th, 1861, who was killed at Franklin's crossing of the Rappahannock, June 5th, 1863, was held at the Unitarian Church, Rev. A. B. Muzzey officiating. Burial at Curson's Mills.

The mayor by the following letter again called the attention of the State government to the necessity of protecting the city and harbor by the erection of fortifications at the mouth of the river.

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT,
June 29th, 1863.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR:

Dear Sir, — In behalf of the city government, and in view of the transaction which has just transpired at Portland, I take the liberty to call the attention of your excellency to the totally defenceless condition of the harbor and city of Newburyport, and to earnestly ask that at least some immediate temporary protection may be afforded us.

The United States Government have made surveys of our harbor and decided upon a location, where a permanent fortification will doubtless be erected; but as the engineers informed us that at least two years would be required to complete such works as were contemplated, they thought a temporary defence should at once be commenced, and suggested that earthworks might at a small outlay be thrown up on Plum Island, which would effectually command the entrance to our harbor, and that they should urge its importance upon the Department at once. Still nothing has been done, and we are now at the mercy of any marauder who by an armed vessel, or even by armed boats, could lay us under contribution or destroy our shipping and a large number of valuable vessels now building on the banks of the Merrimack; for with the exception of two small and comparatively useless field-pieces, and these without ammunition, the entire population are without any means of defence against even an armed boat's crew. Under the provision of Chapter 118 of the Acts of the Legislature of 1863, it is believed that this point is one which imperatively demands the immediate attention of the State authorities for the protection not only of this city, but of the numerous towns and manufacturing villages on the Merrimack River.

With the highest regards,

I am truly your obedient servant,

I. H. BOARDMAN, Mayor.

The governor replied as follows: —

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

BOSTON, June 30th, 1863.

TO HON. ISAAC H. BOARDMAN,

Mayor of Newburyport.

Sir, — Your letter concerning the defenceless condition of your harbor has been copied and forwarded to the Head of the Corps of the United States Engineers at Washington, with appropriate remarks in aid of its views.

In the absence of permanent fortifications, earthworks if necessary have always been contemplated at various points on the coast. These precise points the United States Engineers wish to designate, and wish also to superintend their erection whenever it is done. It is, moreover, desired that none should be erected unless, nor until, the guns are at hand to mount in them. We here at the State House are, and have been, doing our utmost to procure the guns. We have some ordnance belonging to the State, now at New Bedford, which might be transferred to Newburyport, their place being supplied there by new ordnance in their new forts.

The United States engineer for this post is Major Blunt. He who made a recent survey on the north and south shores is Lieutenant Alexander. His report was promised me. I hope for a copy by an early mail. Not being an expert in that science, I am not able myself to give advice touching the erection of earthworks for defensive purposes, and cannot venture to give original opinion; but I will impart to you all information I possess from the proper quarters, and I will gladly render any official aid or promote any official action which may be found desirable for the benefit of your harbor. Any suggestions will be immediately and respectfully considered, and such action as may be found desirable and possible promptly taken.

I am, Mr. Mayor,

Respectfully your obedient servant,

JOHN A. ANDREW, Governor.

The raising of troops by draft, in accordance with the law of Congress, was commenced in this Commonwealth in the months of June and July. Major Clark, U.S.A., was made provost-marshal-general for the State, and assistant provost-marshals for the several Congressional Districts were appointed at Washington to conduct the draft.

Capt. Daniel H. Johnson, Jr., of Salem was appointed provost-marshal for the Fifth District, including twenty-six cities and towns of Essex County, Newburyport being one of the number. A Board was also established to make an enrollment of all persons in the Commonwealth between the ages of twenty and forty-five years.

July 4th (Saturday). Anniversary of our national independence. By order of the mayor the several bells in the city were rung one hour at sunrise, noon, and at sunset.

July 5th (Sunday). At noon to-day an extra of the Newburyport Herald was issued, announcing the glorious victory at Gettysburg, with a congratulatory address of President Lincoln to the people of the country on the success of the Army of the Potomac and the cause of the Union.

July 7th (Tuesday). Hardly had the people ceased rejoicing over the victory of our army in Pennsylvania before the telegraph announced the again glorious news of the unconditional surrender of Vicksburg to General Grant. No sooner was it announced by the operator than the city was wild with excitement and delight. Business was suspended, the schools dismissed, and men, women, and children rejoiced together.

"The Veteran Artillery and City Cadets paraded the streets with music. All the bells of the city were rung for six hours, artillery's alutes fired, firecrackers and fire-arms exploded, while cheer upon cheer rent the air until the heavens reverberated the notes of gladness and thanksgiving for the patriotism, bravery, and success of our gallant armies in the field."

July 8th (Wednesday). A meeting was held at the Prospect Street Church this morning at eight o'clock, continuing one hour, "For praise and thanksgiving to God our Saviour, for the recent signal successes which have been graciously vouchsafed to our arms at the East and the West." Rev. Randolph Campbell conducted the services, followed by Dr. Leonard Withington, and Revs. James N. Sykes, John R. Thurston, and Elias C. Hooker.

July 10th (Friday). The draft for Congressional District No. 5 commenced at Lyceum Hall, Salem, to-day. The draft is from the first class of the national forces, which embraces all married men between the ages of 20 and 35 years, and all unmarried, including widowers, between 20 and 45 years, to the number of 1,851 men.

The number of men required from Newburyport is 158, divided as follows: from Ward One, 32; Ward Two, 26; Ward Three, 23; Ward Four, 28; Ward Five, 23; Ward Six, 26. To cover any deficiencies caused by physical or other exemptions, fifty per cent above the quota were drawn.

July 13th (Monday). The draft for Newburyport took place at Mechanics' Hall, Salem, this afternoon, under the superintendence of Capt. Daniel H. Johnson, provost-marshal, assisted by George W. Boynton, Levi Shaw, and Caleb H. Newcomb, Esq. The following named were drafted from this city, and the cause of their subsequent discharge placed opposite their names.

WARD ONE.

Cheney, Chas. H. Disability.	Ewin, John M. For disability.
Adams, Wm. H. Only son of widow dependent.	Frost, John S. Elected by aged and dependent father.
Adams, Chas. A. For disability.	Fuller, John.

DRAFTED.

(Form 39.)

PROVOST-MARSHAL'S OFFICE, FIFTH DISTRICT,
STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS,
54 WASHINGTON ST., SALEM, July 14th, 1863.

To A. B., NEWBURYPORT.

Sir, — You are hereby notified that you were, on the 13th day of July, 1863, legally drafted in the service of the United States for the period of three years, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress for "enrolling and calling out the National Forces, and for other purposes," approved March 3d, 1863. You will accordingly report for duty, at such a time as I shall hereafter designate, at the place of rendezvous in Salem, Mass., or be deemed a deserter, and be subject to the penalty prescribed therefor by the Rules and Articles of War.

(Signed) DANIEL H. JOHNSON, JR.,
Provost-Marshal Fifth District of Massachusetts.

COPY OF RECEIPT FOR THE SUM PAID FOR COMMUTATION.

(No. 44.)

Received at Salem, Mass., on thirtieth day of July, 1863, from A. B., of Newburyport, who was drafted into the service of the United States on the thirteenth day of July, 1863, from the Fifth Congressional District of the State of Massachusetts, the sum of three hundred (300) dollars, to obtain, under Section 13 of the "Act for enrolling and calling out the National Forces, and for other purposes, approved March 3d, 1863," discharged from further liability under this draft.

Signed in triplicate,

RECEIVER OF COMMUTATION MONEY.

CERTIFICATE OF NON-LIABILITY TO BE GIVEN BY THE BOARD OF ENROLLMENT.

(Form 31.)

We, the subscribers, composing the Board of Enrollment of the Fifth District of the State of Massachusetts, provided for in Section 8, Act of Congress, "for enrolling and calling out the National Forces," approved March 3d, 1863, hereby certify that A. B., of Newburyport, Essex County, State of Massachusetts, having given satisfactory evidence that he is not properly subject to do military duty, as required by said Act, by reason of having paid three hundred dollars, is exempt from all liability to military duty for the term of this draft.

(Signed) DANIEL H. JOHNSON, JR., Capt.,
Provost-Marshal and President of Board of Enrollment.

HENRY W. MOULTON,
Commissioner and Member of Board of Enrollment.

DANIEL PERLEY,
Surgeon of Board of Enrollment.

Dated at Salem, this thirtieth day of July, 1863.

ACCOUNT OF DISABILITY.

(Form 32.)

This is to certify, That A. B., of Newburyport, Essex County, State of Massachusetts, having been drafted, and claiming exemption on account of disability, has been carefully examined, and is found to be unfit for military duty by reason of ———, and in consequence thereof he is exempt from service under the present draft, ordered by the President June 3d, 1863.

(Signed) DANIEL H. JOHNSON, JR., Capt.,
Provost-Marshal and President of Board of Enrollment.

HENRY W. MOULTON,
Commissioner and Member of Board of Enrollment.

DANIEL PERLEY,
Surgeon of Board of Enrollment.

Dated at Salem, Mass., this 17th day of August, 1863.

July 15th (Wednesday). At the regular meeting of the city government, the following was adopted: —

That a committee be appointed by the mayor to wait upon the governor and represent the defenceless condition of this city in case of any disturbance of the public peace; at the same time asking for one hundred muskets with the necessary ammunition; also fixed ammunition for the two guns now in the possession of the city, together with harnesses, etc., for the guns. The committee to consist of the mayor and two aldermen. Aldermen John N. Pike and Norman C. Greenough appointed.

By General Order No. 191 of the War Department, dated June 25th, 1863, volunteers for infantry, cavalry, and artillery were to be enlisted at any time within ninety days from the date of the order. All able-bodied men, between the years of eighteen and forty-five, who had served for not less than nine months, and such of the three years' troops then in the field as might re-enlist, with all volunteers so enlisting in accordance with the provisions of the order, constituted a force designated "Veteran Volunteers."

Every volunteer enlisted and mustered into service as a veteran, under this order received from the United States one month's pay in advance and a bounty and premium of four hundred and two (402) dollars paid as follows:—

I.	Upon being mustered into service, he was paid one month's pay in advance	$13.00
	First installment of bounty	25.00
	Premium	2.00
	Total payment on muster	$40.00
II.	At the first regular pay-day, or two months after muster-in, an additional installment of bounty was paid of	$50.00
III.	At the first regular pay-day after six months' service, he was paid	$50.00
IV.	At the first regular pay-day after the end of the first year's service, he was paid	$50.00
V.	At the first regular pay-day after eighteen months' service, he was paid	$50.00
VI.	At the first regular pay-day after two years' service, he was paid	$50.00
VII.	At the first regular pay-day after two and a half years' service, he was paid	$50.00
VIII.	At the expiration of three years' service, the remainder of the bounty was paid	$75.00
	Total bounty and premium exclusive of one month's pay in advance	$402.00

The order also provided, that should the services of these troops not be required for the full period of three years, they should receive, on being honorably mustered out of service before the expiration of their term of enlistment, the whole amount of bounty remaining unpaid, the same as if the full term had been served.

July 22d (Wednesday). Nearly fifty members of the Cushing Guards, Company A, 8th Regiment, arrived home to-day from their nine months' campaign in North Carolina. The remaining portion of the company accompanied Colonel Coffin and the regiment to Maryland Heights, Virginia, and did not reach home until the 29th inst. No public reception was given the company, because of its return by detachments.

July 20th (Monday). Lieutenant-Colonel Macomb of the Engineer Department stationed at Portsmouth, N.H., visited the city and informed Mayor Boardman that the erection of a fortification on Salisbury Point, just below Black Rocks, had been determined upon by the War Department, and that operations would immediately commence.

August 3d (Monday). At the meeting of the city government, Alderman William H. Huse offered an order which was adopted: —

That the mayor be and hereby is authorized to ascertain the true number of men that have enlisted from this city during the present civil war, and also whether the same have been passed to the credit of the city.

August 6th (Thursday). To-day was observed as a national Thanksgiving, services being held in Congress, Titcomb, Court, Green, Harris, Charter, Prospect, and Purchase Street Churches.

August 7th (Friday). The 8th Regiment, M. V. M., having returned from their nine months' campaign in North Carolina, were mustered out of service at Wenham to-day. The Cushing Guards, Company A, returned home in the afternoon.

August 8th (Saturday). The Cushing Guards, accompanied by the Germania Band of Boston, were received at eleven A.M., by Samuel T. De Ford and family at their residence on High Street. The host welcomed the company in a very patriotic and affecting speech, in which he reviewed his early associations, his sixty years' residence in the city, during which time he had watched the coming-up of the generation who stood before him, and had contributed to that education and training which had fitted them to fight the battles of life.

Captain Gardiner responded in behalf of the company, when they were invited to make themselves at home, and enjoy the pleasures of the house and grounds. A pavilion was erected, in the garden, under which tables were spread with a fine collation. Patriotic toasts were given and responded to, while the music by the band was highly appreciated. The company, after visiting different parts of the city, sat down to a sumptuous dinner at City Hall. Captain Foster of the 40th New York, Lieutenant Hodges of the 35th and Lieutenant Ricker of the 48th, were guests of the company.

August 11th. The funeral of Edgar C. Rundlett, Sergeant of Company B, 40th Massachusetts Volunteers, son of Mr. Samuel H. Rundlett, who died at the residence of his father of typhoid fever, Monday, August 10th, was solemnized this afternoon.

August 19th (Wednesday). John H. W. Talbot of Company E, 11th Massachusetts Infantry, was buried from the residence of his father on Middle Street. The City Cadets escorted the remains of the young soldier to their final resting-place to the music of the fife and drum.

The friends of Colonel Stone and the Newburyport soldiers in the 48th Regiment held a meeting at Ward Room, City Hall, and voted to give a public reception to Colonel Stone and staff and all soldiers in the regiment belonging to this city. Sub-committees were chosen to make arrangements:— On Order of Exercises, John H. Smith, William E. Currier, John Burrill, Eben P. Goodwin, and Luther Dame; Music, Charles W. Bayley, H. T. Crofoot, and John T. Page; Finance, Charles H. Coffin, Philip K. Hills, E. S. Moseley, Warren Currier, and Richard Plumer; Collation, David J. Adams, Charles M. Bayley, William E. Currier, Charles F. Horton, and Jacob I. Danforth.

THE ARRIVAL OF COMPANY A OF THE 48TH REGIMENT.

That portion of the 48th Regiment comprising Companies A, B, and C, arrived at the Eastern Depot Sunday afternoon, August 23d, just as the first bell was ringing for the afternoon service. By a telegraphic dispatch through Mr. Brown, the operator in this city, their arrival in Boston and departure for home was announced; and on their arrival at the depot they were greeted by a multitude of friends, men, women, and children, desirous of expressing their respect and gratitude to those who had so nobly done their duty, and to give them a hearty welcome home.

RECEPTION OF COLONEL STONE AND COMPANY A.

Monday, August 24th.

The following is the arrangement agreed upon by the committee for the reception of returned officers and soldiers:—

The guests will be received this day at the mall by the committee, Veteran Artillery Association, and City Cadets, at one o'clock P.M., and be escorted by them through the following streets:—

From the mall down High Street, down State through Liberty, up Fair, through Orange, up Federal, up High, down Olive, through Washington, down Market, down Merrimack, up Green, to City Hall, where a collation will be provided.

The committee voted to extend an invitation to Colonel Coffin and staff, and Company A of the 8th Regiment, to participate as guests in the reception.

Per order,

JOHN BURRILL, Chairman.

ISAAC NOYES, Secretary.

Goodwin, Tristram Talbot, H. T. Crofoot, S. S. Blake Dr. Enoch Cross, Isaac P. Noyes, William J. Hodge, Charles H. Coffin, Edward S. Moseley, John Porter, Isaac H. Boardman, H. N. Dennett.

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.

NEWBURYPORT, Aug. 24th, 1863.

At a meeting of the Cushing Guards, Company A, 8th Regiment, held at the Gun House on Monday morning, it was unanimously voted to respectfully decline the invitation to a reception at City Hall. They also unanimously voted to tender a reception to Company A of the 48th Regiment on their return home after being mustered out of service; and Lieut. Eben P. Cutter, Sergt. Edward J. Sawyer, Sergt. Sanford W. Grant, Privates Ezekiel G. Whittier and Charles O. Morrill, were selected as the Committee of Arrangements.

At the appointed hour the procession formed on the mall, consisting of the Veteran Artillery Association, Capt. John Burrill, the City Cadets, Capt. Luther Dame, with that portion of the 48th Regiment to be received, with Bond's Union Band of Boston and the Committee of Arrangements. The route as arranged by the committee was adhered to, and from the commencement to the end of the march it was one continuous expression of joy and gratitude by the thousands of friends who had gathered to bid them welcome. The streets through which the procession passed were profusely decorated, and the national emblem waved from almost every house-top. At the residence of Col. Frederick J. Coffin on Green Street, the commander of the 8th Massachusetts Infantry, that had but just returned from nine months' service in North Carolina, Maryland, and Virginia, were displayed:—

The national flag presented to the 8th Regiment by the Sons of Massachusetts resident in New York when on their way to defend the capital in 1861.

The national flag given by the State in the fall of 1862 to the 8th Regiment when they volunteered.

The national flag presented by the Union Ladies of Baltimore to the 8th Regiment when they occupied that city in 1861.

The regimental flag of the 8th Regiment, carried in its first campaigns of 1861.

The regimental flag of the 8th Regiment, carried in their campaigns in North Carolina, Maryland, and Virginia.

At the City Hall were some three hundred invited guests, including military men, sons of Newburyport from abroad, and ladies who had made ample preparations for the occasion. Tables were placed the length of the Hall, and abundantly supplied with all procurable luxuries.

The company was called to order by Capt. John Burrill of the Veteran Artillery Association, who acted as chairman. Capt. William E. Currier spoke as follows:—

"Col. Eben F. Stone and Staff, and Captain Woodward, subalterns and members of Company A, 48th Regiment Massachusetts Volunteers:

"The citizens of Newburyport, your friends, and the friends of the soldiers, have come here to meet you, and have given me the honor to say in their behalf we welcome you to our city, your home, — the home where affection dwells and where the heart can bloom; we have come to meet you and to behold each well-remembered face, and to count you with the living, — for you have come from the field of battle and from the field of carnage; you have come with victories on your ensign and with laurels on your brow, — laurels won in the maintenance of our national government, — a government without a parallel in the age of the world.

 "We are assembled here to-day to do you, 'Returned Soldiers,' homage. We are assembled here to-day to cherish the remembrance of the heroic dead, those patriots belonging to this command, who in the deadly conflict on the battlefield poured out their liquid life to brighten their country's altar, and had their sacred bodies committed to the clod of the valley by the margin of the Father of Waters, hallowing it. May they be in sacred remembrance while the valley bears a plant or river waters run!"

Rev. Randolph Campbell was next introduced, who asked divine blessing, after which a brief season was enjoyed discussing the luxuries of the tables.

Captain Burrill introduced Philip K. Hills, Esq., as toastmaster, who introduced as the first regular toast, —

"The 48th Regiment."

Colonel Stone in responding gave a brief history of the doings of the 48th from the time it went into active service up to the day it left for the North. He spoke of the thrilling events of May 21st, 27th, and June 14th, and then of the fight at Donaldsonville, July 13th, and the consequences that followed, so deeply to be lamented, which had made homes desolate and filled hearts with sadness. These were dates which the 48th would never forget, and which they inscribed on their banner, perforated and torn, and still the more to be valued and cherished, on account of the terrible scenes through which it had been carried, and that now it was again in the city where it was received in its original beauty. He spoke of the severe marches from time to time beneath a burning sun, with short rations, and with no beds but the earth. And yet the regiment was more than repaid when it saw the evidences that its services were appreciated, and that it had not gone forth without sympathy and the confidence of the community. He next paid a merited tribute to the memory of the noble men who had fallen in their attempts to defend their country. There were Peabody, Lunt, and Poor, young, brave, and patriotic; Perkins and Houston, determined and gallant, — loved by their associates and lamented in their fall, with a poignancy of grief which language had no power to express. He referred also to Lieut-Col. James O'Brien, and cherished him as being as generous, valiant, and whole-souled an Irishman as ever lived; and this he regarded as high a compliment as he was capable of paying him.

Colonel Stone offered as a sentiment, "The memory of the fallen of the 48th Regiment," and suggested that it be drank standing and in silence.

2d. "Company A, 48th Regiment — our sons, our younger sons: by their valor and endurance they have reflected great credit on their fathers and the city of their birth."

Captain Woodward in responding spoke of the feeling which had been manifested all the way in their journey home. They had been received with kindness in the several cities and towns through which they passed, the people seeming unable to do enough. This was a cause of gratitude, and he trusted he and Company A were impressed with the obligations under which it laid them. The demonstration before him was more — they were among their friends, those whom they loved, whose interests were theirs, and they could never forget the day and its happy incidents. He closed with the sentiment, "Home."

3d. "The President of the United States."

Responded to by Enoch G. Currier, Esq., collector of the Port, who alluded to the arduous duties of President Lincoln and what he had already accomplished — the emancipation proclamation and its effects in freeing the country from slavery.

4th. "The Army and Navy."

Chaplain Samuel J. Spalding responded. He claimed to have seen personally few of the perils of the field. He had done what he could among the sick and the wounded. His main theme was the endurance of the men under the trying circumstances in which he had met them. He had heard no word of complaint — no doubts or fears expressed of the ultimate result. All were hopeful and determined, ready to do to the last and with cheerfulness all their country could demand at their hands.

5th. "The City of Newburyport — loyal and patriotic to its heart's core: the evidences of it are all around us."

Mayor Isaac H. Boardman responded, not as mayor, he remarked, but as a private citizen, for the city, as such, was not known in the reception, though its government entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion, and would gladly, in their corporate capacity, welcome home every citizen who had gone forth to fight for his country. He spoke of what Newburyport had done, and from the record of the past what we might expect at her hands through her sons. They would never be found wanting; and too much could not be done as expressive of our gratitude and sympathy for our self-exiled soldiery.

6th. "The Ladies. Their constant care and attention to the soldier entitles them to the highest praise of being called the worthy daughters of the mothers of the Revolution."

Responded to by Deacon William Thurston. He referred to the noble work the ladies had done, and looked forward to what they would yet accomplish. Without their aid the war could not be successfully stopped: with their efforts the end would soon appear.

7th. "The Returned Soldiers, our Guests. We are honored by their presence among us, — the best type of true manhood, maimed and disabled in their country's cause."

Lieut. John W. Ricker of the 48th, who lost a leg at Port Hudson, was called upon to respond. He alluded to the victories that had attended our armies in the field.

8th. "The Sons of Newburyport from abroad. We welcome you to the paternal roof on one of Newburyport's most glorious days."

Responded to by Colonel Clement of Wisconsin, who spoke in very complimentary terms in reference to the daughters of Newburyport. He did not believe there was a city in the country, of forty thousand inhabitants, that could boast of so many beautiful, accomplished, and patriotic ladies. He gave as a sentiment, "The Sons of Newburyport: they will never dishonor the place of their birth."

9th. "The Press. Its power is incalculable by any arithmetic yet applied to mortal problems."

George J. L. Colby, Esq., editor of the Newburyport Herald, responded, saying that he had taken a deep interest in the 48th from its organization, from the fact that he was personally acquainted with a large portion of its members belonging to this city and the adjoining towns. Of Company A, eight or ten members had been connected as apprentices or newspaper carriers with the Herald office; and two members were still nearer to him, belonging to his own family.

10th. "The Clergy. Nobly have they emulated the example of their predecessors of the Revolutionary era."

Rev. Randolph Campbell responded. He had never introduced politics into the pulpit. He had aimed to preach the gospel. The assault upon Sumter had led him to inquire into the motive and purpose of the South, and it was apparent, and from their own avowal, that they would the more firmly establish and perpetuate slavery. Acting in view of this admission, he had never doubted that the cause of the loyal States was the cause of God, and he had felt called upon to advocate it as such, whenever a favorable opportunity presented itself. He believed it to be the duty of the pulpit to speak out: — the Master demanded it of his servants, and they who would be found faithful must obey the teachings of Providence, as well as of the written Word.

Other gentlemen followed. Mr. Charles H. Coffin submitted the following toast, which was most enthusiastically received: —

"Colonel Coffin, his Staff, and the 8th Regiment."

Capt. John Burrill of the Veteran Artillery Association presented the following: —

"The Mothers of '76, and the Daughters of '63, — worthy daughters."

At the close of the exercises at City Hall, the company with their guests formed on Brown's Square and marched to the mall, where, after a dress-parade, they were dismissed.

September 3d. The reception tendered by Company A of the 8th Regiment, the Cushing Guards, to Company A of the 48th Regiment, on their return from Wenham after having been mustered out of service, occurred this afternoon. Company A of the 48th was received at the Eastern Depot, and after parading through many of the principal streets were conducted to the City Hall, where a very fine collation had been prepared. Capt. Stephen D. Gardiner of the Cushing Guards, in the name of that company, welcomed the men of the 48th, and Captain Woodward responded. The occasion was one of great good feeling.

September 30th (Wednesday). The anniversary of the organization of the City Cadets was celebrated at the Merrimack House in the evening. It consisted of a supper, a presentation, toasts, and speeches. The company is now organized as a part of the State militia, and designated as the 3d Unattached Company of Infantry, M. V. M.

October 30th (Friday). The President of the United States, under date of October 17th, issued a call for 300,000 men to serve for three years, or during the war, to take the place of those who were to go out of service the following year; until Jan. 5th, 1864, was given to raise the number by volunteers. The quota assigned to Massachusetts was 15,126 men. By the governor's General Order No. 30, dated Boston, October 29th, the quota for Newburyport was one hundred and seventeen (117), divided as follows: Ward 1, twenty-four (24); Ward 2, nineteen (19); Ward 3, seventeen (17); Ward 4, twenty-one (21); Ward 5, seventeen (17); Ward 6, nineteen (19).

November 2d (Monday). At a meeting of the city council, Alderman John J. Currier introduced the following, which was adopted:—

Whereas, The city council of the city of Newburyport have been informed that a movement is on foot in the different cities and towns in the State to induce the governor of this Commonwealth to call an extra session of the Legislature for the purpose of repealing the law prohibiting the cities and towns to offer bounties to soldiers enlisting in the service of the United States, and, whereas, they believe that the system heretofore obtaining of one city or town bidding upon another is prejudicial to the best interests of the people and tends to diminish enlistments, therefore be it

Resolved, By the city council, that in their opinion it is not advisable to repeal said law, but they would respectfully petition the governor of the Commonwealth to call an extra session of the Legislature for the purpose of increasing the bounties to be paid from the State Treasury to those who may hereafter enlist in the service of the United States.

Resolved, That the city clerk be directed to forward a copy of these resolutions to the governor of the Commonwealth.

November 12th (Thursday). In response to the call of the President for additional troops, and to facilitate the filling of the quota of the city, the following appeal for a public meeting at Market Hall was published in the Herald: —

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEWBURYPORT:

Earnestly desiring that the patriotism of the people may be publicly manifested, our quota speedily filled, the old enthusiasm be again revived, and every member of the community become interested in the work, we invite the citizens of Newburyport to meet us at Market Hall, this (Thursday) evening, November 12th, at 7.30 o'clock P.M., to make arrangements for holding a series of war meetings, to subscribe a fund for this purpose, and to transact any other business connected with the subject, which may come before us.

Let Newburyport sustain her former reputation: let her be first among the cities of the Commonwealth to respond to this latest call of our country.

The meeting at Market Hall in the evening was called to order by Mayor Boardman, who was chosen chairman of the meeting, and Albert W. Greenleaf, secretary. A committee of five, consisting of Albert Currier, Eben F. Stone, Philip K. Hills, Robert Bayley, and Henry Cook, was appointed to carry out the object of the meeting. The committee reported the following, which was adopted:—

For Finance Committee: Robert Bayley, Edward S. Moseley, William H. Swasey. Committee of Arrangements: Isaac H. Boardman, Eben F. Stone, Frederick J. Coffin, David Wood, John E. Bayley, William E. Currier, Charles H. Coffin, Henry Cook, Nicholas Varina, Albert W. Stevens, Isaac A. Bray, Charles F. Horton, Joshua Hale, Henry M. Cross, David J. Adams.

Col. Eben F. Stone submitted the following resolutions, which were adopted:—

Resolved, That in order to stimulate recruiting most effectively, it is in our opinion very important that a liberal sum should be offered as a bounty to volunteers, payable in full immediately on enlistment, and not in installment from time to time, in the nature of increased wages.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolves be communicated immediately to our Representatives in the Legislature.

Henry M. Cross, Esq., presented the following, which was also adopted:—

Resolved, That every member of this meeting will use their utmost endeavors and influence to see that the quota of Newburyport be filled to the maximum within ten days after the action of the present session of the Legislature shall become known.

The meeting was addressed by Col. Eben F. Stone, Capt. Henry W. Moulton, and Henry M. Cross.

November 16th (Wednesday). The first war meeting arranged by the committee selected at the meeting at Market Hall on the 12th inst. was held at City Hall this evening. It was large and enthusiastic. Speeches were made by Rev. Willard Spaulding of Salem, Rev. Samuel J. Spaulding, late chaplain of the 48th Regiment, and Rev. John R. Thurston of this city.

November 17th (Thursday). The second war meeting took place at City Hall this evening, and notwithstanding the very severe rain, the hall was filled to its utmost capacity. Colonel Gould of the 59th Massachusetts, and Lieutenant Cailef of the 9th Massachusetts, spoke eloquently in support of the government, urging the people to renewed patriotism and devotion in responding to the call of the President and support of our armies in the field.

November 19th (Thursday). The funeral of John H. Ryan, formerly of Company B, 19th Massachusetts Infantry, who died at his home in this city on the 16th inst., occurred at the Purchase Street Church.

By an Act of the Legislature passed Nov. 18th, 1863, the State offered a bounty of $325 to all volunteers who enlisted and were mustered into the service of the United States for three years; to those volunteers who preferred, instead of the $325 in hand, $50 was offered at the time of enlistment, with an additional pay of $20 per month. In case the volunteer chose to receive the increased monthly pay instead of the larger bounty, he was to receive the same pay of $20 per month for six months after his honorable discharge for disability after six months' service.

In case of death while in the service, his widow or heirs were to receive the same additional six months' pay after his death, with, however, the limitation that it should not continue more than three years in the whole. By accepting the bounty of $325, the recruit made sure of that sum and waived all chances of more. By accepting the $50 and monthly pay of $20, he would receive $330 from the State at the end of fourteen months, or $5 more than the bounty of $325. At the expiration of his three years' service he would receive $770. This bounty, in addition to the United States bounty of $402 to "veterans" and $302 to new recruits, made the pay of those who served in Massachusetts regiments greater than was ever before given to soldiers.

Governor Andrew, in his proclamation to the people of Massachusetts, dated Nov. 18th, 1863, says: —

I know that the people of Massachusetts do not fight for money nor vulgar glory. They fight for their country, to subdue the enemies of her rights and their own liberties, under the better impulses of duty, patriotism, and manly honor. But the purpose of the State is to provide for the comfort and protection of the soldier's household, so that the highest duties of patriotism may be found consistent with those of domestic affection.

For the regulation of recruiting in the State, General Order No. 32 was issued November 20th, appointing the mayors of cities and selectmen of towns recruiting officers. In accordance with this order, Mayor Boardman, to facilitate recruiting, issued the following: —

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, Nov. 20th, 1863.

Having been appointed, by authority of the provost-marshal-general, as recruiting agent for the city, notice is hereby given, that Lieut. John W. Ricker, at No. 11 State Street, Lieut. Samuel W. Haynes, at No. 33 Market Square, and D. Clark Batchelder, at city marshal's office, are duly authorized to recruit for all branches of the service, and at either of these offices the generous bounties allowed by the General and State Governments can be secured.

Young men of Newburyport, rally once more for the defence of your country, and by a prompt and enthusiastic response to the call to arms, maintain the high position this community has ever held in its devotion to the Union. Never despair, nor doubt the final result: —

“For freedom's battle, once begun,
Bequeathed from bleeding sire to son,
Though baffled oft, is always won.”

ISAAC H. BOARDMAN, Mayor.

December 7th (Monday). At the meeting of the city council, an order was adopted — authorizing and requiring the mayor to employ an agent at the city's expense, and upon the best terms which can be made, to visit such of the headquarters of the Massachusetts regiments as may not be too remote, having soldiers serving therein enlisted from this city, to ascertain the names of such as have re-enlisted, or may by said agent be induced to re-enlist, in the service of their country, provided the mayor can previously obtain from the proper quarters assurances that the names of such re-enlisted soldiers will be counted in the present quota assigned to Newburyport on the last call of the President for troops; and be it further ordered, that the sum required for such service of agent be taken from the appropriation of incidentals.

In compliance with the above order, the mayor addressed the following letter to the governor, stating the action of the city government, and asking authority to act in accordance therewith:—

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, Dec. 8th, 1863.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, JOHN A. ANDREW, Governor.

My dear Sir,—At a meeting of our city council last evening, I was authorized to send an agent to such of the headquarters of the Massachusetts regiments (not too remote) in which troops from this city are serving, to induce the enlistment of as large a number of them as may be practicable, provided I can previously obtain from the proper authorities the assurance that such re-enlisted soldiers will be counted in the present quota assigned to Newburyport, under the last call of the President for troops. On account of the indisposition of Adjutant-General Schouler, I have taken the liberty to address you upon the subject, and respectfully to ask that the information desired may be forwarded at an early day.

In reference to enlistments, I have the honor to report that we are using our utmost exertions, and that, too, in strict compliance with the spirit of the law and your oft expressed wishes on the subject of bounties, to fill our quota, and we have already secured about one-half of the required number.

No exertions on my part, or on that of the city government, will be spared to complete our quota. The greatest obstacle now in the way of enlistments is an impression prevailing among some of our returned volunteers, that the State bounty will not be punctually paid; and with my most strenuous attempts to convince them to the contrary, they still cling to the doubt.—"Show us the first man who has received the cash in hand, and we are ready."—Pardon me for annoying you with so long a letter. My only excuse is, the good cause demands it.

In the firm and unwavering faith of a regenerated and more glorious Union, I am with respect and esteem,

Your obedient servant,
ISAAC H. BOARDMAN, Mayor.

The governor under the same date answered as follows:—

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, BOSTON, Dec. 8th, 1863.

HIS HONOR ISAAC H. BOARDMAN,

Mayor of Newburyport.

Sir,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this day, and in reply to state that no recruit has any color of reason to distrust the good faith of Massachusetts. Many thousands of dollars have been paid from the treasury under the law of last spring, giving a State bounty of fifty dollars, and the money now lies ready, to pay the recruits at General Deven's Camp, who go to the old regiments in the field as fast as they are mustered in and the papers can be prepared.

The State Paymaster is under orders to visit the camp at Long Island every day for this purpose, and either to pay or assist in preparing the papers, as the case may be.

Recruits sent to the camps at Readville and Worcester for new organizations will be paid as soon as companies are ready for muster. The United States Provost-Marshal-General, Col. J. B. Fry, has apprised me that soldiers now in the field, who re-enlist as veterans, will be duly credited to the quotas where they properly belong under the call of the President of October 17th. His declaration upon this point is explicit. There is, of course, no objection to the sending of an agent to stir up and promote re-enlistments in the regiments in the field, which should be encouraged in every possible way.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully, Mr. Mayor,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN A. ANDREW,

Governor of Massachusetts.

From the information communicated by the governor, that the provost-marshal-general had determined that all soldiers then in the field who should re-enlist would be credited to the quotas where they properly belonged, it was deemed inexpedient to further comply with the order of the city council of December 7th.

That the quota of the city might be filled as speedily as possible, and to prevent imposition upon those who might enlist, the mayor issued the following: —

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, Dec. 21st, 1863.

To prevent illegal recruiting, notice is hereby given, that Lieuts. John W. Ricker, Samuel W. Haynes, John L. Perley, and D. C. Batchelder, are the only authorized recruiting officers for this city, and information is earnestly requested to be given at this office of any enlistments made by other parties here; and it is also important that any resident of Newburyport who has enlisted or may enlist in any other city or town, should be at once reported.

As earnest efforts are being made to induce the re-enlistment of our soldiers now in the field, all information on this point, with the names of all such who have re-enlisted or may hereafter re-enlist, which may come to the knowledge of our citizens, is respectfully solicited.

ISAAC H. BOARDMAN, Mayor.

COMPANY B, 40TH REGIMENT NEW YORK INFANTRY (MOZART REGIMENT), CREDITED TO MASSACHUSETTS.

The following order from the War Department to His Excellency Governor Andrew is self-explanatory: —

WAR DEPARTMENT,
ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, Aug. 10th, 1863.

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE GOVERNOR OF MASSACHUSETTS:

The following companies of volunteers mustered into New York
regiments are credited by enrollment to the State of Massachusetts; viz., Company B, 40th New York Volunteers. Strength, 101 men.

THOMAS M. VINCENT,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

It is evident from the above order that the credit of the men from Newburyport attached to the "Mozart" Regiment, so called, was transferred from the State of New York to the State of Massachusetts, but I have failed to find that New-buryport received, as she should have done, credit for the men which belonged to her by the issuing of the order. That the order of August 10th was not rescinded is apparent from the following letter: —

WAR DEPARTMENT,
ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5th, 1879.

On Aug. 20th, 1863, an exhibit rendered by the Adjutant-General, U. S. A., to the Provost-Marshal-General, U. S. A., which included the following: —

"The following companies of volunteers mustered into New York
regiments are credited by enrollment to the State of Massachusetts:
Company B, 40th New York Volunteers. Strength, 101.

The above were mustered in during June, 1861. These credits were passed to the State of Massachusetts, and applied upon the quota of three years' troops called for from that State in 1861."

Assistant Adjutant-General, U. S. A.

The mayor in his inaugural referred to the state of the country and the patriotism of the city as follows:—

The rebellion which has now been upon us for nearly three years still continues. Would to God that I were able to predict its close! The necessity still exists for the faithful to be faithful still; and by a continuance of that strong and never-faltering step, I think it possible that we may, ere the year closes, be able to say that the rebellion is ended.

Our sons, many of them, have laid down their lives in defence of that emblem of our nationality, the Stars and Stripes. I will here repeat what I have said on a former occasion,—that Newburyport was the first city of the State to vote to hoist the Union flag, and to keep it to the mast-head till the rebellion is ended; and I am proud to know that that beautiful flag is unfurled to the breeze over our heads this day.

Newburyport was the first city to advance money from her treasury to send soldiers to the defence of the capital. From that day to this, she has voted with an open hand and a brave and a generous spirit; and so I trust she will continue to do, until every State is in subjection to the Constitution. Let us, if we are generous too of our acts, be so to our soldiers who have gone out to fight the enemy in this trying crisis of our beloved country. Let us see to the families and parents that many of them have left behind. Let us see that they are properly provided with the necessities of life. Do not let it be said that the wives and children and parents, or any of them, suffered by neglect of the city government of this, as loyal a city as there is in the United States. For my own part, if I err at all, I am determined that it shall be in favor of those of our citizens who are in the army fighting for us, and for the preservation of our Union, and for the dear ones they have left at home under our protection and care.

By an order of the city council, the mayor and aldermen, with Councilmen Moses Pettingell, Jr., of Ward 1, Thomas C. Goodwin of Ward 2, John R. Stanwood of Ward 3, Charles M. Hodge of Ward 4, Thomas H. Cutter of Ward 5, and John Currier, 3d, of Ward 6, constituted the Relief Committee for the year.

The quota of Newburyport for one hundred and seventeen (117) men, under the call of the President of Oct. 17th, 1863, for 300,000 troops, was full on the 5th inst. The mayor having informed the State authorities of the fact, Adjutant-General Schouler, in a letter dated January 11th, says, —

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 9th inst., and congratulate you upon the success of your efforts in filling the quota of Newburyport. In answer to your inquiry I would say, that if you enlist more than your quota, the surplus should be, and I have no doubt would be, placed to your credit in any future call which may be made upon the Commonwealth for more men.

Enlisting still continued, but it was not prosecuted with vigor, as it was doubtful whether the city would be credited with the men so furnished, and as under the last call no credits were obtained for the men previously recruited, though the city sent some twelve men to camp only the week before. The mayor on the 19th inst. addressed the following letter to the governor, asking official information concerning future enlistments: —

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, Jan. 19th, 1864.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, JOHN A. ANDREW:

Sir, — I am directed by the city council to ascertain from you whether bounties will still continue to be paid to men enlisting in the United States service from Newburyport now that our quota is full, and whether any surplus of men that we may raise over the last quota ordered from this city will be accredited to us in case another call should be made by the President upon this Commonwealth for troops. If your answer should be in the affirmative, I should be pleased to have power granted me to continue to recruit men.

Yours very truly,

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

The governor, January 21st, transmitted a copy of General Order No. 4, dated Boston, January 19th. Paragraphs I. and II. read as follows: —

“I. By General Order of the War Department, Series of 1864, a bounty of $400 will be paid to veterans who enlist or re-enlist under existing orders, and a bounty of $300 will be paid to raw recruits who enlist for any three years’ organization, authorized by the War Department, either in service or in process of completion, until the first day of March, 1864.

“II. Under the present arrangement of the War Department, towns and wards which have filled their quota under the present call may go on and continue their enlistments, and their surplus men, so raised, will be credited to them under any future call.”

The governor advises all to take advantage of the present enthusiasm for enlistment, and make it available.

The State bounty will continue to be paid until “the public promulgation of orders to the contrary.”

This order finally determined the question of surplus enlistments, and secured to the city the credit of a large number of re-enlisted men in excess of the last requisition.

January 18th (Monday). An order of the city council directed “that the mayor present to the governor, John A. Andrew, a petition from this Board, asking the privilege of raising a company in this city and vicinity as a garrison to the new fort at the mouth of the river, and that his excellency authorize Lieuts. John W. Ricker and William J. Creasey to recruit said company.” In accordance with this order, the mayor wrote as follows: —

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT,
MAYOR’S OFFICE, Jan. 19th, 1864.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, JOHN A. ANDREW,

Governor of Massachusetts :

Sir, — I am directed by an order from the board of mayor and aldermen to petition your excellency to ask that you will if possible obtain permission from the War Department of the United States to have Lieuts. John W. Ricker and William J. Creasey appointed recruiting officers to raise a company of heavy artillery to garrison the fort now being built at the entrance of our harbor, said company to be raised in Newburyport and vicinity. I have no doubt but that a very efficient company can be raised by the officers above named for the purpose herein stated if your excellency will get permission for them to do so.

Very truly yours,

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

To which the governor replied, —

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, BOSTON, Jan. 21st, 1864.

TO HIS HONOR GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR.,

Mayor of Newburyport :

Sir, — We having already twelve companies of heavy artillery on duty in Massachusetts, the War Department refuses permission for any more to be organized here, except upon the condition that they shall be paid no bounty whatever by the United States, and shall not count upon the quota of the Commonwealth.

Under these conditions the governor does not deem it expedient to undertake to raise any such additional companies, and therefore, whenever the fort at Newburyport shall be in condition to receive a garrison, he will endeavor to arrange that it shall be garrisoned by some of the heavy artillery troops already in service.

I have the honor to remain, sir,

Your obedient servant,

By order of His Excellency the Governor,

A. G. BROWNE, JR., Lieut.-Col. Mil. Sec.

On the evening of Monday the 18th inst., those members of Company H of the 32d Massachusetts Infantry residing in this city and vicinity who had re-enlisted and were enjoying their veteran furlough, together with those of the company who had been discharged, participated in a very happy reunion at the residence of Capt. Henry W. Moulton, their former company commander. During the evening frequent allusions to those who had fallen suggested the following resolutions, which were adopted: —

Resolved, That while we hold this reunion joyously, and are grateful to God for bringing us in happiness together, after the perils of battle, suffering, exposure, and hardship; and while we anew consecrate our lives to the glorious cause of Freedom and Union, we cannot forget our dear comrades who have fallen in defence of the starry flag, and the nation it represents. Fragrant is the memory of these brave and noble souls, who with us "went marching on" in the defence of liberty, but with us could not return. Sacred is each name, and hallowed in our recollection are their many soldierly virtues. As we write these martyred names, fain would we honor their memory; but the record of their death in the cause of Freedom is their best epitaph: —

Lieut. Joseph W. Wheelwright, died from exposure, Antietam campaign.

William Niles, Georgetown, died from exposure, Antietam campaign.

Corp. Rufus W. Chandler, Newburyport, died from exposure, Antietam campaign.

Benjamin W. Pingree, Georgetown, died from exposure, Antietam campaign.

Thomas P. Lunt, Newburyport, killed at Chancellorsville, Va.

Sergt. Francis E. Winter, Georgetown, killed at Fredericksburg.

William D. Hudson, Framingham, killed at Gettysburg, Pa.

Daniel Mahoney, Boston, died from exposure and hardship in the Antietam campaign.

Resolved, That in the death of these patriot soldiers we sustained an irreparable loss; that while we mourn for ourselves, we would give to the relatives of the deceased our heartfelt sympathies, and ask them to take comfort in the truth, "He dies not in vain who dies for his country."

The re-enlistment of a large number of soldiers in the field after the expiration of two years' service, and their return home on veteran's furlough, prompted the mayor to issue the following request, that the city might have knowledge and receive credit for all men so re-enlisting: —

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT,

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Jan. 22d, 1864.

All soldiers of the Army of the United States, belonging to this city, who have re-enlisted in said service, are particularly requested to leave their names, and the number of the regiment and company to which they belong, with the city treasurer at City Hall, in order that the city may know the number of men she has now enlisted over and above the last quota ordered from this city.

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

Previous to the call of Oct. 17th, 1863, for three hundred thousand three years' men, orders had been received from Washington that recruiting in the several States should be done through the district provost-marshals and such local agents as they might appoint. These agents were to receive twenty-five dollars for each veteran recruit, and fifteen dollars for each new recruit. The governor, by representations to the War Department, succeeded in so modifying this order as to have the quota of Massachusetts raised by the mayors of cities and selectmen of towns, and the twenty-five dollars and fifteen dollars allowed for recruits was to be used by them towards defraying the expenses of recruiting.

By this change in the method of recruiting, Newburyport received from the United States and paid to its local recruiting officers from Oct. 17th, 1863, to July 19th, 1864, eleven hundred and fifty (1,150) dollars for eighty enlisted men, sixteen of whom were at ten dollars, sixty-one at fifteen dollars, and three at twenty-five dollars. This bounty for recruiting, of twenty-five dollars for veterans and fifteen dollars for new recruits, was changed to fifteen and ten dollars on the 1st of February, 1864, and ceased entirely on the 19th of July, 1864.

Under date of February 1st the President issued an order calling for an additional number of men, to serve for three years or during the war, which reads as follows: —

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, Feb. 1st, 1864.

Ordered, That a draft of 500,000 men, to serve for three years or during the war, be made on the tenth day of March next, for the military service of the United States, crediting and deducting therefrom as many as may have been enlisted or drafted into the service prior to the first day of March and not heretofore credited.

(Signed) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

The governor, by General Order No. 8, dated Boston, Feb. 11th, 1864, stated the number of men to be furnished by the several cities and towns in the Commonwealth under the above call of the President for five hundred thousand (500,000) men, to be two hundred thousand, in addition to those called for Oct. 17th, 1863, and would be two-thirds as many as was assigned to them under that call.

The quota of Massachusetts under this additional call of two hundred thousand (200,000) men was, ten thousand eighty-four (10,084). Of these seventy-eight (78) were to be furnished by Newburyport. This number was materially reduced by the balance standing in our favor. February 15th, at a meeting of the city council, Mayor Jackman submitted the following recommendations regarding the filling of the city's quota: —

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT, Feb. 15th, 1864.

GENTLEMEN OF THE CITY GOVERNMENT:

The time is drawing to a close in which the cities and towns in this Commonwealth are allowed to raise their quota of men, under the last call of the President of the United States for 500,000 troops before the draft is ordered.

The quota of this city under this call is 195 men. There were enlisted by Mayor Boardman, of this number, 105 men that have been accepted, so far as known; there have been enlisted under my direction, 14 men; returned as re-enlisted in the 17th Regiment, 21 names; left at the city treasurer's office as re-enlisted, 7, making 147, — leaving 48 more to raise. Besides those named above, some of our men have re-enlisted from other regiments now in the field: the number I do not know, but I am doing all that I can to ascertain the precise number. I have no doubt but that there are some 25 to 30 of them, at least, which would reduce our wants to some 25 men.

I think that some inducements should be offered by the city, whereby the remaining number of men wanted can at once be obtained. I would therefore recommend that the city pay to any person or persons the sum of $25 for each veteran, and $15 for each raw recruit, that may be enlisted, and sworn into the service of the United States, and accredited to the city of Newburyport until such time as a sufficient number of men shall be obtained to fill our quota.

I think, gentlemen, that our citizens will appreciate and fully indorse this course. For my own part, I feel that we should offer almost any inducement whereby we can obtain these men, rather than to have a draft made here; and I think that by such an offer as is named above, with the exertions of the members of the city council and those of our citizens who feel an interest in the welfare of our city and the preservation of the Union, that the filling of our quota can be accomplished before the draft is ordered to take place. I would therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

The order submitted and adopted was as follows: —

That the mayor be and hereby is authorized to offer a gratuity to any person or persons to the amount of twenty-five (25) dollars each for veterans, and fifteen (15) dollars each for raw recruits, in addition to the sum paid for recruiting by the United States, for such number of men as may be wanted to fill the quota of this city, under the last call of the President of the United States.

In compliance with the above order, the mayor published the following in the Newburyport Herald of the 19th inst.: —

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, Feb. 18th, 1864.

The undersigned will pay to any person or persons the sum of $25 each for veteran soldiers, and $15 each for raw recruits, in addition to the sum paid by the United States, for the recruiting of a sufficient number of men to fill the quota of this city, — some twenty-five or thirty being wanted for that purpose; said amounts being payable on presentation of a certificate from the adjutant-general of the Commonwealth that such men have been sworn into the military service of the United States, and have been credited to the city of Newburyport as a part of its quota.

GEO. W. JACKMAN, Mayor.

To fill the quota, the mayor with the committee on recruiting labored earnestly; and long before the time assigned for the draft, not only had the required number been enlisted, but a surplus remained to our credit.

THE DRAFT OF APRIL, 1864.

The following is an order by the President of the United States for an additional draft of two hundred thousand (200,000) men: —

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, March 14th, 1864.

In order to supply the force required to be drafted for the navy, and to provide an adequate reserve force for all contingencies, in addition to the 500,000 men called for Feb. 1st, 1864, the call is hereby made and draft ordered for 200,000 men for the military service of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps of the United States. The proportional quotas for the different wards, towns, townships, precincts, or election districts, or counties, will be made known through the provost-marshal's bureau, and account will be taken of the credits and deficiencies of former quotas.

The 15th day of April, 1864, is designated as the time up to which the numbers required from each ward of a city, town, etc., may be raised by voluntary enlistment, and drafts will be made in each ward of a city, town, etc., which shall not have filled the quotas assigned to it within the time designated for the number required to fill said quota.

The draft will be commenced as soon after the 15th of April as practicable. The government bounties as now paid continue until April 1st, 1864, at which time the additional bounties cease. On and after that date $100 bounty only will be paid, as provided by the Act approved July 22d, 1861.

(Signed)

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

The quota of Massachusetts under this call of the National Government was 10,639 men. There was a deficiency on the part of the State up to March 1st, 1864, amounting to 9,953 men, making the total number to be furnished 20,592.

The number required from the 5th Provost-Marshal District was 907 men, deficiencies under previous calls to March 1st, 1864, 525 men, making an aggregate of 1,432 to be furnished by the district.

The demand upon Newburyport under the call was 84 men, apportioned as follows: Ward One, 16; Ward Two, 13; Ward Three, 13; Ward Four, 14; Ward Five, 12; Ward Six, 16. Under this call, March 14th, 1864, the enlistments in the United States Navy were allowed. Through the untiring energy and personal appeal of Governor Andrew, on the 4th of July, 1864, Congress passed an Act allowing credits to be given for naval enlistments and authorizing recruiting in disloyal States. The substance of this law will be found in the following letter addressed to each of the commissioners: —

WAR DEPARTMENT, PROVOST-MARSHAL-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D.C., July 7th, 1864.

HIS EXCELLENCY, JOHN A. ANDREW,
Governor of Massachusetts:

Sir, — Section 8, of the Act approved July 4th, 1864, further to regulate and provide for the enrolling and calling out of the national forces, and for other purposes, is as follows: —

“That all persons in the naval service of the United States, who have entered said service during the present rebellion, who have not been credited to the quota of any town, district, ward, or State, by reason of their being in said service and not enrolled prior to Feb. 24th, 1864, shall be credited to the quotas of the town, ward, district, or State in which they respectively reside, upon satisfactory proof of their residence made to the secretary of war."

The secretary of war hereby appoints your excellency and Hon. John H. Clifford a commission to ascertain what credits the State of Massachusetts, and the different subdivisions of the State, are entitled to under the law given above.

In determining this question, the secretary thinks it will be fair to presume that the State in which naval enlistments have been made, is entitled to the credit for those enlistments, unless it shall appear by more direct evidence that the credits belong elsewhere. The points of law to be observed in applying the Act quoted will readily be perceived by the commission.

Major F. N. Clark, Acting Assistant Provost-Marshal-General for Massachusetts, will represent the United States.

JAMES B. FRY, Provost-Marshal-General.

Under date of July 21st a circular letter was sent by the governor to the mayors of cities and selectmen of towns requiring them to return to Major William Rogers, Assistant Adjutant-General, on or before the 10th day of August, a sworn list of all persons residing within their municipalities, who had enlisted in the naval service of the United States during the rebellion previous to Feb. 24th, 1864, and who had not been credited to any town, district, or ward by reason of their being in said service.

Municipal officers who had previously made complete and correct returns of such persons in the naval service, in response to a circular of the adjutant-general of the 31st of March, were not required to repeat the same, but an opportunity was given to correct such returns if desired.

As the bill did not pass until July 4th, and a draft was ordered early in September, it was of the utmost importance that the naval credits due the State should be immediately ascertained and correctly apportioned. In order to do this, it was necessary to copy the muster-rolls on board the receiving-ship Ohio at the Charlestown Navy Yard, and from them it was found that the total number of men who had enlisted from the 13th of April, 1861, to the 24th of February, 1864, was 22,360.

The returns made in response to the circular of March 31st and July 21st showed that the whole number of naval enlistments claimed by the cities and towns was 16,181, being 6,179 less than the number copied from the rolls of the receiving-ship.

The instructions given by the commissioners to their clerks were: —

First, To credit only those who had joined the service subsequent to the rebellion.

Second, Only those who had joined the service at some rendezvous in the State.

Third, When a man was claimed by two or more cities or towns, neither city or town was to receive the credit, but the credit in dispute was to be given to the State at large.

As the enlistments were for one, two, and three years, the War Department, under date of Aug. 22d, 1864, directed that in the system of credits the commissioners be governed by the same rules as in credits for enlistment in the army. By this method only three years' men counted as a unit, it took three one year's men to count one, and three two years' men to count two. The total number of enlistments, when reduced to a three years' term of service, was 16,625. The number of enlistments claimed by the cities and towns reduced to a three years' term of service, 9,020, leaving 7,605, which were distributed pro rata to the credit of the cities and towns of the State. This method of allowing credits will readily account for the large number of men credited to our city in this branch of the service who were neither natives nor residents of Newburyport; and the failure of the city to claim or successfully establish their title to those who were actually residents at the time of enlistment, is the cause of so many of our own citizens being credited to other cities and towns in the Commonwealth.

April 1st (Friday). By invitation of Capt. George Creasey, the officers of the 30th Massachusetts Infantry who had returned from Louisiana with the regiment, on veteran furlough, were entertained in the evening at the Ocean House.

The names of the officers present were Horace O. Whittemore of Boston, Lieut.-Col. Com'd'g Regiment; William F. Clark of Boston, Adjutant; Marsh A. Ferris of Boston, Capt. of Company D; Brent Johnson, Jr., of Lowell, Capt. of Company F; George Creasey of Newburyport, Capt. of Company I; George Barker of Newburyport, 1st Lieut. of Company E; Thomas B. Johnson of Lowell, 1st Lieut. of Company H; George F. Whitcomb of Boston, 1st Lieut. of Company K; Gurdon S. Brown of Boston, 1st Lieut. of Company I; Nathaniel K. Reed of Lowell, 1st Lieut. of Company B; John P. Haley of Chelsea, 2d Lieut. of Company A; Joseph Davis of Roxbury, 2d Lieut. of Company K; H. Warren Howe of Lowell, 2d Lieut. of Company B. With them were other invited guests, — His Honor the Mayor George W. Jackman, Jr., Col. Frederick J. Coffin of the 8th Regiment, the officers of the Cushing Guards, and City Cadets.

April 15th (Friday). Louis D. B. Somerby of Company A, 48th Massachusetts Infantry, and later of Company M, 2d Massachusetts Heavy Artillery, was buried from the Universalist Church, Middle Street, this Friday afternoon.

The services at the church were conducted by Rev. Willard Spaulding of Salem, Rev. D. T. Fiske, D.D., and Chaplain Samuel J. Spalding, of this city. The military escort was commanded by Capt. Luther Dame, and consisted of the City Cadets and members of Company A of the 48th Regiment formed as a battalion.

April 17th (Sunday). The funeral of Alfred F. Lee of the 2d Massachusetts Cavalry took place from the house where he resided, on Lime Street.

Alfred F. Lee, son of John and Hannah (Colby) Lee, was born in Amesbury, Mass., Dec. 22d, 1837, and was by occupation a blacksmith. At the time of his enlistment he was residing at Vallejo, Cal., and when an opportunity was given for those who emigrated from Massachusetts to enlist and serve for their native State, he was one of the first to offer. He enlisted at San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 10th, 1862, as one of the "California Hundred," and arrived at Camp Meigs Readville, Jan. 3d, 1863. This company, raised by Capt. J. Sewall Reed, was designated Company A, 2d Massachusetts

April 24th (Sunday). The Cushing Guards, Capt. Stephen D. Gardiner, accompanied by the Mechanics' Brass Band of Amesbury, attended the funeral of Corp. William H. Daniels, one of its members. Corporal Daniels was a native of Paradise, N. S., but had resided in this city for many years previous to the war. He was a member of Company A, Cushing Guards, 8th Regiment, during their nine months' service in North Carolina, and was one of those who accompanied the regiment to Maryland Heights and Harper's Ferry. He returned home with the company at the expiration of its service, suffering from change of climate, and finally passed away in consumption.

April 28th (Thursday). At a meeting of the city council, Alderman Currier offered the following order, which was adopted: —

That the mayor be and hereby is authorized to employ a suitable person at a fair compensation to make out a complete list of those persons who have enlisted in the army or the navy from this city since the commencement of the present Civil War, said list to state the date of discharge (if discharged), or, in case of decease, the date of death. It shall also be the duty of the person so employed to compare said list with the muster rolls of the different regiments at the State House in Boston, in order to ascertain whether the men so enlisted have been properly credited to the quota of the city of Newburyport.

This order was never executed. Had it been acted upon, it would have provided the city with a complete and correct roll of all men furnished for the army and navy, and been a financial saving to the city as well as a reliable military record of those who certainly deserved to be remembered in the future.

May 2d (Monday). The City Cadets, Capt. Luther Dame, designated in the State Militia as the 3d Unattached Company, having been ordered to report at Readville to-day, left the city on the eight o'clock morning train. They were accompanied by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, and escorted by the city council and a delegation from the Veteran Artillery Association.

The company was mustered into service for ninety days, May 3d, and did garrison duty at Fort Pickering, Salem Harbor, and was mustered out Aug. 5th, 1864.

May 16th (Monday). The continued fighting of our armies on their advance to Richmond, and the large number of wounded and suffering soldiers who were being daily sent to the hospitals from the battlefields, prompted our patriotic fellow-citizen Edward S. Moseley, Esq., to solicit contributions for their relief. In less than a week he collected $2,008.50, and in accordance with the wishes of the donors, $1,900 was forwarded to the Christian Commission, and the remainder to the Sanitary Commission.

Mr. Moseley, in acknowledging the sums received, said that —

The ordinary trouble attending the collection of money, even for benevolent purposes, has in this instance been entirely superseded; those who have subscribed having in most instances called for the purpose, and all having esteemed it a privilege to aid in relieving the sufferings of men who have periled their lives for the integrity of the Union.

June 1st. In anticipation of a call from the United States Government for troops to fill up the organizations in the field, General Order No. 17, dated Boston, May 31st, 1864, was issued, continuing as recruiting officers the chairman of the selectmen of towns and the mayors and aldermen of cities throughout the Commonwealth. The following order relating to the same subject was received from the District Provost-Marshal:—

PROVOST-MARSHAL'S OFFICE, FIFTH DISTRICT MASSACHUSETTS,

SALEM, June 2d, 1864.

TO HON. GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR.,
Mayor of Newburyport:

Sir,—I would most respectfully state that I have received orders to resume enlistment, and muster into the service of the United States such volunteers as may be offered at this office; and inclose printed General Instructions, etc.

I am ordered to recognize selectmen of towns and mayors and aldermen of cities as recruiting agents, and none others, so that the business will be performed by responsible parties.

Recruits will be mustered into the service of the United States by me, thereby securing a more simple manner of credit to the different sub-districts, and in all cases to be regarded as final. No other claim for expenditure on account of recruiting service (beyond the premiums) will be entertained.

Very respectfully,

DANL. H. JOHNSON, JR.,

Captain and Provost-Marshal 5th District Massachusetts.

At a meeting of the city council, Monday evening, June 6th, Mayor Jackman presented the following recommendations:—

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT.

TO THE CITY COUNCIL:

Gentlemen,—Having received notices from the Adjutant-General of the Commonwealth, and from the Provost-Marshal of District No. 5, that in anticipation of another call for men by the United States Government, to fill up the regiments now in the field from this State, they are now ready to receive recruits for such call as may hereafter be made, and to accredit the same to the several towns and cities that may furnish them.

I would therefore recommend that the city council offer such bounty as the State law recognizes (the same being $125) to any person who will enlist as a volunteer from this city, and who shall be accredited as one of its quota.

The government allows a recruiting fee of $10 for raw recruits, and $15 for veterans, to be paid to the recruiting officer as soon as the recruit shall have been received at Gallop's Island, Boston Harbor.

The State still continues their bounty of $300, which will also be paid to the recruit within the week that he shall arrive at Gallop's Island.

The government also pay a bounty of $100 to each recruit, $25 of which will be paid on being mustered into the service, and the remaining $75 at the end of his term of enlistment.

We have now accredited to the city 17 men, on the next call that may be made, and I have no doubt but that we shall have a much larger number to our credit when we get our rolls all made up; but be that as it may, I am very desirous, and confidentially trust, that we shall with proper care and diligence on our part, be able to furnish the men called for from this city, voluntarily between now and the time the draft may be ordered.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

June 8th (Wednesday). Acting upon the suggestion of the city council, the mayor issued the following call for enlistments: —

VOLUNTEERS FOR THE SEVERAL MASSACHUSETTS REGIMENTS
NOW IN THE FIELD WANTED BY THE CITY OF NEWBURYPORT

For which a bounty will be paid by the city of	$125.00
Bounty to be paid by the State	325.00
Bounty to be paid by the United States Government	100.00
Making the sum of	$550.00

The city bounty will be paid immediately on presentation to the city treasurer of a certificate from the provost-marshal of this district, that the recruit has been mustered into the service of the United States, and accredited to the city of Newburyport.

The State bounty will be paid to the recruit only within one week after his arrival at Gallop's Island, Boston Harbor.

The government bounty, $25, will be paid before leaving the State, and the remaining $75 on the expiration of the term of enlistment.

The recruit can rest assured that there will be no delay in the payment of the city and State bounties.

Recruiting offices are now open, — one at the city marshal's office, under the charge of Nehemiah Flanders; and one at No. 11 State Street, under the charge of Lieut. John W. Ricker.

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

NEWBURYPORT, June 8th, 1864.

June 20th (Monday). John G. Dillingham of Company G, 32d Massachusetts Infantry, was buried from the depot of the Newburyport Railroad at nine o'clock this evening, on the arrival of the train from Boston. The exercises were conducted by Rev. James N. Sykes of the Congress Street Baptist Church, and were most solemn and impressive. Mr. Dillingham was born in Searsport, Me., Sept. 20th, 1829, and was the son of William and Mary Dillingham.

June 20th. At the meeting of the city council, the following order regarding the enrollment list was adopted: —

"That a joint special committee, consisting of the board of mayor and aldermen, and one member of the common council from each ward, be appointed to revise the enrollment list without delay, in order that it may be in readiness when the anticipated draft for the month of July shall be put in force." In addition to the mayor and aldermen, Councilmen William Forbes, Samuel A. Smith, Thomas C. Goodwin, John Currier, 3d, Thomas H. Cutter, and Paul G. Lunt constituted the committee.

In May, 1864, the enrollment Act was amended by Congress, abolishing all the exemptions of the original Act because of social relations, and consolidating the first and second classes, thus making all between the ages of twenty and forty-five years equally liable to the draft. The amendments which made this law so rigid were drawn up and recommended to Congress by a member of the Enrolling Board of this district, and very greatly diminished the chances of exemption for physical disability. The commutation clause was of no permanent benefit to the person liable to draft,—it simply released him from a particular conscription: neither would the furnishing of a substitute, unless he be an alien, exempt the principal for three years. If the substitute be an able-bodied man of suitable age liable to military duty, the person furnishing such substitute was again liable when that particular enrollment was exhausted. If, again, the substitute be but eighteen years of age, the drafted man was exempt for but two years, at the end of which time the substitute having arrived at the age of twenty years, both he and the principal were liable.

June 24th (Friday). In the Newburyport Herald the mayor publishes the following communication under the caption of "How Shall We Escape the Draft?" —

Mr. Editor, — The city of Newburyport should at once proceed to enlist men for the army and navy of our government. In what way are we to furnish our quota for the next call, which, without doubt, will be ordered immediately? We must do as well by the men who enlist as other towns and cities in the Commonwealth, or we cannot obtain them. I would like to know whether there is any class of our citizens that would like to have another draft made here? If there is, I wish they would make themselves known, and let the citizens at large know their views upon the subject.

The city council has offered all the bounty it has a right to under the State law. I notice in the Herald of Wednesday, that the town of Georgetown offers $625 for volunteers. Seventy dollars of that sum must be raised by subscription among her citizens. Cannot our rich and influential men come forward with their money and their influence in this cause, and show by their liberality that they do not want a draft here, but are willing to subscribe a sum of money, so that, with the other bounties offered by the government, State, and city, we may be able to offer men who will enlist from this city, as large a sum of money as they can obtain elsewhere?

The War Department have decided that men must be credited to the town where their names appear on the muster roll; consequently, we are losing our men every day, for the want of funds to pay them what they can obtain in other places; and unless there is an effort made here on the part of our citizens to raise a fund in order that the city may be able to pay as high a bounty for men as other towns do, it will be impossible to enlist a single man here, and our men will have to be raised by draft, which I shall very much regret.

Yours very truly,

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor,

June 23d, 1864.

July 4th (Monday). By order of the city council the mayor caused the various church bells in the city to be rung one half-hour at sunrise, noon, and sunset, and a national salute to be fired at the same hours.

July 5th. At a meeting of the city council, the following orders introduced by Alderman Greenough were adopted:—

That the mayor be and hereby is authorized to hire a sum of money not exceeding twenty thousand (20,000) dollars to pay bounties to soldiers to fill the quota of this city under the next call.

That the mayor be requested to call a public meeting of the citizens of this city for the purpose of taking measures to raise the men likely to be called for by the President in the next call for troops to fill the quota of this city.

At the same meeting the mayor laid before the board a communication from the General Recruiting Committee —

That all money that may be raised in separate wards be kept for each separate ward as a Ward Fund until the quota for said wards are full, and the surplus of each ward shall be paid pro rata among the wards according to the number desired to make out their respective quotas, whose quotas are not full.

In conformity to the above order, the mayor through the Herald issued the following call: —

CITY OF NEWBURYPORT,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, July 7th, 1864.

By a vote of the city council, I am directed to call a meeting of the citizens for the purpose of consulting upon the most feasible plan to raise men for the quota of the city under the next call of the President.

I do therefore request all legal voters to meet at the City Hall on Saturday evening next, 9th inst., at eight o'clock, for the purpose above named.

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

The meeting in answer to this call was well attended and spirited. Mayor Jackman presided, and Albert W. Greenleaf, Esq., acted as secretary. After giving some valuable information regarding what had been done by the city in providing men and means, the chairman called upon those present to propose some plan by which the quota of Newburyport could be filled. On motion of Philip K. Hills, Esq., a committee, consisting of Philip K. Hills, Paul G. Lunt, Charles T. Smith, Richard Stone, William H. Huse, and Dr. Henry C. Perkins, was selected to prepare and present some plan of action. After remarks by Philip K. Hills, Esq., Col. Eben F. Stone, and Capt. Henry W. Moulton, the meeting adjourned to Monday evening.

July 11th (Monday). The citizens' meeting, held this evening by adjournment from Saturday evening last, was very large and interesting, the mayor presiding. The committee appointed at the previous meeting reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted: —

Resolved, That in view of the critical situation of our national affairs, and of the moral certainty that a draft will soon be ordered by the government, it is of primary importance that some scheme should be immediately organized whereby our fellow-citizens shall be reasonably secure against the risks and evils of a draft, and the city be enabled, promptly and honorably, to recognize and discharge its duties and responsibilities; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of Newburyport do hereby resolve themselves into an association, in the nature of a mutual insurance company, for their mutual protection, and do agree by individual contribution to raise a fund for the purpose of procuring substitutes and volunteers until the quota of the city is full.

Resolved, That to secure the formation of this fund it is important that some authoritative expression of opinion should be had in regard to the minimum sum which it is the duty of every loyal citizen to pay, trusting to the generosity and patriotism of every man to increase this sum when his means will admit; therefore, it is decided that it is the duty of every citizen liable to a draft to contribute at least twenty (20) dollars, and that this contribution shall be regarded, not as a voluntary gift, but as the discharge of an obligation which cannot be honorably denied or repudiated.

Resolved, That it is the duty of all loyal citizens to do all in their power to create a public sentiment which shall enforce and give effect to this scheme by making it discreditable for any man, whether liable to military duty or not, to refuse the payment of his just proportion of the general fund; and to this end the Committee of Assessment and Collection shall publish, from time to time, the names of the contributors, with the amount subscribed by each.

Resolved, That a Committee of Assessment and Collection be appointed, consisting of the chairman and secretary of the meeting, with three men from each ward, whose duty it shall be to solicit and collect from the citizens of their respective wards their proportion of the general fund; and the payment so obtained shall, subject to the following conditions, be deposited with the city treasurer, to the credit of the respective wards, and subject to the order of the mayor and aldermen, who shall apply the same equitably, in such a manner as to protect the interests of the different wards in proportion to their respective contributions; and to secure this equitable distribution of the funds, it shall be the duty of the committee, before the money collected by them is deposited with the city treasurer, to agree with the Board of mayor and aldermen upon some plan of distribution which shall, in their opinion, adequately protect the interests of the different wards. And this committee shall also make it a condition of their deposit that they shall be entitled, at any time, to inspect the books of the treasurer and ascertain how the money has been applied.

Resolved, That the funds obtained by this scheme shall be applied exclusively to the payment of bounties to volunteers or substitutes; and no part of the same shall be expended in the cost of advertisements or music, or other incidental expenses.

Resolved, That as an inducement to encourage the most liberal donations on the part of our citizens, it is expedient to provide that each contributor, in case of being personally drafted, shall have the right to draw from the general fund double the amount he has paid in, provided the condition of the treasury will justify such a draft, and the amount thereof does not exceed the bounty offered by the city for a volunteer; otherwise, pro rata. And it is expedient further to provide that any subscriber who has paid a sum not less than the minimum shall have the right of drawing from the treasury the amount paid as a bounty to volunteers, if he shall furnish a substitute or representative recruit.

The committee to carry out the above program in their several wards was as follows: —

Ward 1. Moses Pettingell, Jr., B. Gardiner Gerrish, and Rufus Adams.

Ward 2. Charles M. Bayley, William B. Currier, and Richard Plumer.

Ward 3. Warren Currier, David J. Adams, and Amos Noyes.

Ward 4. Eben F. Stone, William Forbes, and John R. Longfellow.

Ward 5. Charles H. Coffin, Albert W. Stevens, and William P. Jones.

Ward 6. John D. Pike, Moses A. Currier, and Moses H. Fowler.

General Order No. 24 from the adjutant-general's office, dated Boston, July 6th, 1864, stated that 5,000 infantry volunteers had been called for from Massachusetts, for one hundred days' service in the fortifications near the city of Washington; that the services of the men were required at once, and ordering the officers in command of regiments and companies of Massachusetts militia to immediately perfect their organizations and report for orders. The order further stated that in addition to the United States pay each non-commissioned officer and private would receive from the Commonwealth twenty (20) dollars per month during his term of service, also that volunteers under this call would be exempted from any draft that might be ordered during such term of one hundred days' service. In compliance with this order, Capt. Stephen D. Gardiner of the Cushing Guards, July 7th, published the following order: —

In response to General Order No. 24, every member of Company A, Cushing Guards, Sth Regiment M. V. M., is requested to report at the armory, No. 12 Hale's Court, at eight o'clock this P.M., to take measures for immediately recruiting the corps for one hundred days' service in the forts around Washington. It is hoped that every member will readily respond and use his utmost endeavor to fill up the corps. . . .

STEPHEN D. GARDINER, Captain.

July 13th. At a special meeting of the city council, an order was adopted authorizing the mayor to hire a sum of money sufficient to pay to each private and non-commissioned officer of Company A, 8th Massachusetts Regiment, Cushing Guards, twenty dollars, until such time as they shall receive their allotment from the State.

An order was also adopted authorizing the mayor to employ a suitable person or persons to ascertain the names of all those enrolled in this city who have attained the age of forty-five years, and also all aliens, and take such steps as may be necessary to have their names stricken from the list.

July 18th (Monday). A call for 500,000 men by the President of the United States.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, By an Act approved July 6th, 1864, it is provided that the President of the United States may call for any number of men as volunteers, for the respective terms of one, two, and three years for military service, and that in case the quota or any part thereof of any town, township, ward of a city, precinct, or election district, or of a county not so subdivided, shall not be filled within fifty days after such call, the President shall immediately order a draft for one year, to fill such quota or any part thereof which may be unfilled, and

Whereas, The new enrollment heretofore ordered is so far completed as that the aforementioned Act may now be put in operation for recruiting and keeping up the strength of the armies in the field, for garrisons and such military operations as may be required for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion and restoring the authority of the United States in the insurgent States,

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do issue this my call for five hundred thousand volunteers for military service, provided, nevertheless, that all credits that may be established under section eight of aforesaid Act, on account of persons who have entered the naval service during the present rebellion, and by credits for men furnished to military service in excess of calls heretofore made for volunteers, will be accepted under the call for one, two, or three years as they may elect, and will be entitled to the bounty provided by law for the period of service for which they enlist, and I hereby proclaim, order, and direct that immediately after the fifth of September, being fifty days from the date of this call, a draft for troops to serve for one year shall be held in every town, township, ward of a city, precinct, election district, or as a county not so subdivided, to fill the quota which shall be assigned to it under this call or any part hereof which may be unfilled by volunteers on the said fifth day of September, 1864.

(Signed) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President,

WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

WASHINGTON, July 18th, 1864.

The demand upon the State under this call was for 21,670 men; the number to be furnished by the 5th District, 2,123 men; the quota assigned to Newburyport was for Ward One, 43; Ward Two, 31; Ward Three, 30; Ward Four, 32; Ward Five, 30; Ward Six, 35; Total, 201 men.

July 19th. The Cushing Guards, Company A of the 8th Regiment, having recruited to the maximum number, under the call for one hundred days, left the city for camp at Readville, Mass. The company was mustered into the United States service July 23d as Company H, 60th Regiment Infantry, M. V. M.

PRIVATE AUGUSTUS RUST.

The 60th Infantry, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, was mustered into service July, 1864, at Readville, Mass., and left the State August 1st. It was ordered to Indianapolis, Ind., where it remained, doing guard duty until the expiration of its term. It was mustered out Nov. 30th, 1864. None of those who served in the one hundred days' militia organizations were credited to the quota of the State, consequently the enlistments in the above companies did not count on the quota of the city.

July 23d. The mayor, in behalf of the Assessment and Collection Committee, made the following appeal through the Herald:—

THE LAST APPEAL.

The only partial success of the efforts of the Citizens' Committee thus far to obtain a fund for the purchase of recruits, has induced them to make the following statement. The quota of the city under the previous call for 500,000 men was 306. The credits which the city will probably have allowed, including those from the navy, will amount to about 100. Assuming, therefore, that the quota in this case will be about the same as before, the city, under the present call, will have to raise about 200 men. The committee think that they are warranted in saying that, if a fund of $25,000 can be formed, the required number of men can be secured. The amount now subscribed is about $11,000 by persons liable to military duty, very few of this class refusing to subscribe their proportion of $20 or upwards. What is needed is a more generous contribution from those persons who are exempt from a draft, and unless it be possible to persuade them to increase their contributions, the draft cannot be avoided.

Certainly, loyal men, whose rights and property are at stake, will not insist that it is the duty exclusively of those who are liable to a draft to protect themselves, without looking for aid and support from those of their fellow-citizens who, though largely interested in the integrity of the government, by reason of age are exempt from military duty. Neither can it be reasonably objected that this money should be raised by a tax, since the entire power to assess and enforce a tax for this purpose is limited by law to a bounty of $125, which has already been exhausted. If the amount needed in addition to the bounty of $125 be raised at all, it must be done by the voluntary act of the citizens. There is not, under the law, any compulsory power.

The committee would suggest, that if those not liable to a draft will subscribe a sum not less than one-fourth of their annual city tax, the sum required to meet this exigency can be raised without any difficulty, and that, too, without any injustice or inequality. If it be understood that a subscription upon this principle will supply the amount needed, and will be considered a full discharge of every man's duty in the premises, every man who is desirous of doing his share can easily determine what that is. This suggestion is made in no spirit of dictation, but in the hope that something, in this way, may be done towards removing certain obstacles in the way of an equal subscription.

Whatever is done must be done quickly. Already the neighboring towns, by superior diligence, and by means of a plan similar to the one adopted by us, have obtained their full quotas. It is to be hoped that we shall succeed in avoiding a draft. But we can only do it by displaying an activity and spirit of generous loyalty commensurate with the occasion.

By order of the committee,

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Chairman.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
HEADQUARTERS, BOSTON, July 14th, 1864.

GENERAL ORDER No. 27.

By an Act of Congress passed the fourth day of July, 1864, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the executive of any of the States to send recruiting agents into any of the States declared to be in rebellion, except Arkansas, Tennessee, and Louisiana, to recruit volunteers, who shall be credited to the State which may procure the enlistment, and to the respective subdivisions thereof. . .

It is ordered . . . That "Representative Recruits" may be obtained through the provost-marshal by persons making the deposit of one hundred and twenty-five dollars for each recruit required. . . .

By order of His Excellency, John A. Andrew, Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

WILLIAM SCHOULER,
Adjutant-General.

July 25th (Monday). At a special meeting of the city council, the following order was adopted: "That the mayor be and is hereby authorized to deposit with the treasurer of the Commonwealth the sum of $6,250.00, in accordance with General Order No. 27, for the purpose of procuring recruits to be passed to the credit of the quota of the city of Newburyport."

July 30th (Sunday). A union meeting of the several congregations of this city was held at the North Church this evening in aid of the suffering Union refugees who are being brought to Cairo, Ill., in great numbers. The meeting was largely attended, and was addressed by Rev. E. Fulsom, Hospital Chaplain at Cairo, who was traveling under special orders from the Department Commander. The collection in money amounted to $70.80, and pledges from Charles H. Coffin of $100; the Prospect Street Sabbath School, by their superintendent, Capt. Charles M. Bailey, $100; individual pledges, $114, — making a total of $385.80.

$450 FOR ONE YEAR VOLUNTEERS.

The city of Newburyport will pay for volunteers to fill up its quota for the last call	$250.00
State bounty	100.00
Government bounty	100.00
Making the sum of	$450.00
Besides monthly pay $16	192.00
Clothing	42.00
Making the handsome sum of	$684.00

Besides board of recruit, and State aid to his family for one year's service. . . .

Now is the time for those to enlist who are desirous to serve their country for one year, and to be well paid for their time. The bounties offered alone exceed any ever paid for the term of one year, by any city or town in the State, and is better pay — including board and State aid — than can be earned by most of our best mechanics.

Bounties	$684.00
52 weeks' board, say at $3 per week	156.00
State aid to family of three	144.00
Amounting for one year's service	$984.00

I trust that the very liberal bounty here offered by the city, together with the Government and State bounties offered, will induce a sufficient number to come forward at once and fill the quota of the city.

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

NEWBURYPORT, Aug. 1st, 1864.

The amount of real estate assessed in 1864	$3,268,700
Of personal estate	3,425,000
Total	$6,693,700

The rate of taxation was the same as in 1863, or $14 on the $1,000, and is as follows:

Tax on real estate	$45,761.80
Tax on personal estate	47,950.00
Polls at $2	5,056.00
Total	$98,767.80

The number of polls 2,528, which is 180 more than in 1863.

By the above it will be seen that the real estate valuation is $220,000 more than last year, and the personal estate $30,000 in excess of last year, notwithstanding the exemption of a large amount of property invested in banks and manufacturing companies taxed by the State, and the very large number of national bonds held by our citizens, which are entirely free from taxation.

August 5th. The City Cadets having served their hundred days, returned from Winter Island to-day. They marched through the principal streets of the city in the afternoon, accompanied by Hall's Band of Boston. A warm reception was given them at the City Hall, where a collation was prepared and a large company of friends assembled to bid them welcome.

At the city council meeting this evening, the mayor laid before the board a return of those persons who have enlisted in the navy of the United States from this city since the 19th day of April, 1861, which was signed by the mayor and aldermen as required by law, and ordered to be transmitted to the adjutant-general of the Commonwealth.

August 23d. The Citizens' Committee to obtain funds for the purchasing of recruits published the following in the Herald of this date:—

LAST CALL TO PERSONS LIABLE TO THE DRAFT.

Gentlemen who have so liberally subscribed to the fund for the procuring of substitutes on the last call of the President of the United States, are hereby notified that they will be called upon immediately for their subscription; and those who have not subscribed are liable to the draft, are notified that the quota of Newburyport can be filled if they will immediately call on the committee of their respective wards, and pay their twenty dollars.

The places where those who wish to be relieved from the draft can call to pay their twenty dollars, are

For Ward 1. Moses Pettingell, Jr., Water Street; Rufus Adams, Bromfield Street.

Ward 2. Charles M. Bayley, at the store of Robert Bayley & Son; Richard Plumer, State Street; William E. Currier, State Street.

Ward 3. David J. Adams, Liberty Street; Amos Noyes, State Street.

Ward 4. William Forbes, comb factory; John R. Longfellow, Pleasant Street; Eben F. Stone, State Street.

Ward 5. William P. Jones, at Joseph Moulton's store; John Gorwaiz, Pleasant Street.

Ward 6. Moses H. Fowler, Merrimack Street; John D. Pike, High Street; Moses A. Currier, shipyard.

Per order,

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

RECEPTION OF THE VETERANS OF COMPANY A, 17TH MASSACHUSETTS INFANTRY.

October 3d (Monday). The re-enlisted men of Company A, 17th Massachusetts Infantry, who had returned to their homes on veteran furloughs, were received by their friends and former associates in arms this afternoon. Besides the veterans of the 17th, an invitation was extended to those of Company B, 40th New York (Mozart) Regiment, and others, who had returned from active duty in the field, so that nearly one hundred soldiers were assembled.

The City Hall, where they gathered, was tastefully decorated with flags and bunting, and crowded with a large concourse of citizens, who were anxious to testify their appreciation of the services of those whose patriotism had prompted them to renew their enlistment, and continue to battle for justice and right. From the City Hall they were accompanied by Hall's Brass Band of Boston to the Ocean House, where with invited guests they sat down to a sumptuous dinner. After all were seated, William E. Currier, Esq., who acted as chairman, welcomed the veterans in the following address:—

VETERAN SOLDIERS OF COMPANY A, 17TH REGIMENT
MASSACHUSETTS VOLUNTEERS:

Your early associates in arms, and a few of your numerous friends in this city, have assembled here to greet and welcome you on your temporary sojourn to the hearthstones of youthful days. We welcome you to the home of virtue, truth, and love, — the place of all the world the best, the spot more dear than all the rest. We are here to express our appreciation of your patriotism and valor, and to say to you, The people of the city honor you; the State is proud to own you; and the nation will reward you; for you have come from the battlefield with victories on your banners and glory on your shields.

You have been engaged in a righteous cause, and for more than three years you have dwelt on the tented field, fighting your country's battles; you have made forced marches, and given battle to the enemy; and your victories at Whitehall, New Berne, Kinston, and Goldsboro have won for you imperishable honor.

Three and a half years of war has brought the enemy to narrow limits; and the late victories of Sherman in the South, Sheridan in the valley of the Shenandoah, and Grant in Virginia, have circumscribed their boundaries, and tell you that the power of the enemy is fast fading away. Their forces concentrated at Richmond are now being met; and as God rules the armies and governs the destinies of men, the legions are to be scattered, their capital is to fall, and victory on victory extinguish the rebellion, when peace shall again reign throughout the length and breadth of our glorious Union, and the Stars and Stripes wave over all the country which we possessed in 1860.

Again I say, Welcome! welcome to the banquet provided for you as a token of our love.

Following the dinner, speeches were made by George J. L. Colby, Esq., Moody D. Cook, Lieut. Joseph W. Stevens, and George E. Van Moll, of the 26th New York Cavalry, Isaac Hale, Jr., and Lieut. John W. Ricker, of the 48th.

The ceremonies of the day were concluded with a promenade concert and dance at the City Hall, where the brave sons and daughters enjoyed themselves until admonished by the flight of time to return to their homes.

The following is a list of those who re-enlisted in Company A, 17th Massachusetts Infantry, credited to Newburyport, and who returned on veteran furlough: —

AHERN, THOMAS.	LEWIS, ANDREW P.
AUSTIN, ALBERT F.	LYNCH, DANIEL.
BURKE, JOHN.	MARSHALL, WILLIAM W.
COOK, ALBERT J.	MARSHALL, JAMES I.
DILLINGHAM, ARETUS H.	PURTELL, RICHARD.
DUNN, JOHN.	SULLIVAN, MICHAEL.
DWYER, DANIEL J.	TEMPLETON, ANDREW.
DWYER, DENNIS.	TILTON, ANDREW J.
FORD, SAMUEL J.	WATSON, MARTIN.
KEESER, SAMUEL, JR.	WOODWELL, CALEB S.
YOUNG, ELISHA, JR.

October 28th. The mayor, as chairman of the committee to raise a fund for the providing of substitutes, issued the following notice to those who were delinquent in the payment of their subscriptions: —

All those persons who subscribed to the fund for the purpose of filling the last quota of men from this city for the army of the United States, that have not paid their subscription, are particularly called upon to pay the same immediately either to the committee, or directly to Daniel Granger, City Treasurer, who will receive and receipt for the same.

It is very desirous that this money should be paid in, in order that the matter relating thereto may be settled up.

There will be another call at once for more men, and arrangements should be made, as it now can be, to enlist men enough to cover the next call.

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR.,
Chairman of Committee.

October 31st (Monday). At a special meeting of the city council, the following order was adopted: —

That the mayor be and hereby is authorized to hire a sufficient sum of money to obtain one hundred and twenty-five recruits to put into the service of the United States and to be credited to this city, provided that the sum so raised shall not exceed $125 for each and every man so recruited.

This appropriation of $125 per man for recruits is all the city could legally appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth, and it was expected that the balance necessary to increase the amount to $200 would be raised by subscription among the citizens.

November 3d (Thursday). The City Cadets and citizens held a meeting this evening to take measures for a public reception of the Cushing Guards, of the 60th Massachusetts Infantry, on their return from Indianapolis, Ind. The following were selected as a committee of arrangements: Capt. Luther Dame, George W. Knight, Jr., Robert G. Sargent, Charles H. Goodwin, Joseph H. Walton, Joseph A. Frothingham, Jr., Albert C. Titcomb, and Asa Merrill.

November 7th (Monday). That the citizens might be informed regarding their subscription for the raising of recruits for this city, the mayor published the following in the Herald of this date: —

There has been great inquiry of late to know what has become of the funds subscribed by our citizens for raising men to fill the quota of the city. I would say that $6,500 of the amount paid in was expended in procuring men, that $4,200 more remains in the treasurer's hands, and that there is about $1,500 now uncollected, which should be paid in at once, in order that more men may be enlisted towards filling the next quota. A further sum of $3,500 is necessary, together with the amount now in the hands of the treasurer, and the balance due upon the first subscription, to clear the city from another draft of 500,000 men, which will undoubtedly be called for immediately. I trust that those citizens who have not paid their subscription will do so at once, and that a new subscription will be started to raise the amount necessary to fill our next quota. This is important, more so than on the last call, as the men can now be had at a reasonable price, but when the call is made it will be difficult to obtain men except at a high cost.

GEO. W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

November 23d. The Cushing Guards, Capt. Stephen D. Gardiner, arrived home this morning, from Indianapolis, Ind., where, as Company H, 60th Massachusetts Infantry, they have been guarding rebel prisoners.

November 24th. Thanksgiving Day. The subjects discoursed upon by the clergy in this city to-day were, at the — Prospect Street Church, Rev. Randolph Campbell. Text, Psalm 147:20. "He hath not dealt so with any nation."

Old South Church, Federal Street, Rev. Richard H. Richardson. Text, 1st Thess. 5:18. "In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you."

Unitarian Church, Pleasant Street, Rev. A. B. Muzzey. Text, Deut. 33:26-29. Subject, "The Compensations of the War."

Harris Street Church, Rev. B. Y. George. Text, Psalm 103:2. "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits."

Baptist Church, Congress Street, Rev. James N. Sykes. Text, Heb. 11:22. Subject, "Faith in Our Nation's Future." The Green Street Baptist Society joined in this service.

Whitefield Society, State Street, Rev. Samuel J. Spalding, D.D. Text, Deut. 28:47. "Because thou servedst not the Lord thy God with joyfulness and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things."

Christian Baptist, Court Street, Rev. Daniel P. Pike. Subject, "Faith in the Nation's Perpetuity." Text, Isa. 58:8. "Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee: the glory of the Lord shall be thy reward."

Charter Street Church, Rev. Mr. Gates of Pennsylvania. Subject, "The Great Purpose of God in the American Government."

Episcopal Church, High Street, Rev. J. C. White. Text, Psalm 30:1. "I will extol thee, O Lord: for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me."

Catholic Church, Green Street, Rev. Henry Lennon. Mass was celebrated at eight o'clock A.M.

November 28th. The Cushing Guards this afternoon performed escort duty at the funeral of Corp. William Bowlin of Company C, 6th New Hampshire Infantry. Killed in front of Petersburg, Va., July 27th.

In the evening the company was formally received after their one hundred days' service by the City Cadets, who entertained them with a dinner, closing with a ball at the City Hall.

December 5th. At a meeting of the city government a communication from the Executive Department in relation to the dispatch concerning an attempt by the enemy to burn Northern cities on election day was communicated to both boards.

December 12th. Mayor Jackman was to-day unanimously re-elected. This was the fourth election of Mr. Jackman, first by the city council to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Mayor Davenport in 1861, and three times since by the people, twice without opposition.

CONTESTED CREDITS DECIDED.

CITY CLERK.		CITY TREASURER.

The city government for 1865 was organized Monday, January 2d. The mayor in his address referred to the rebellion as follows: —

The state of the country is such at this time, that it calls upon every loyal person to lend his aid and influence to the executive of the government for the suppression of this rebellion, and the restoration of those rights which our fathers fought for, and which they desired should be the inheritance of their children. Many of our sons have laid down their lives for the love of their country, and their ashes now lie buried beneath the sod of what was once our beloved and sister States. There are about our streets those who show the evidence of their valor and courage, those who for a love of country periled their lives in its support. They are the ones! the wounded soldiers, more than any others, who should be respected and exalted for the part which they have taken in the suppression of this war, and their endeavors to hold inviolate our national rights. To such let us extend a welcome hand, and render to them and to theirs such assistance as their circumstances require, — not that assistance which will make them paupers, or deprive them of their rights of suffrage, but by a fund created directly by the city council, and placed in the hands of the committee on relief, for their benefit.

It is well known to all of you that we have at this time hundreds of our valuable citizens in the army and navy, determined at all hazards to maintain the honor and integrity of our flag, and to sustain the powers that be, and to uphold the institutions of the nation and sustain the government. These men have and are still nobly representing our city, on the sea and in the field: their courage has been often tried and never found wanting, and by their valuable and patriotic services have won for themselves and for us a lasting honor, and have brought us under the greatest obligations to them.

At the commencement of this rebellion Newburyport showed her devotion to those men who first took up their line of march to the battlefield, by appropriating from her treasury a sum of money for the relief of the families of those who so valiantly buckled on their armor, and she has so continued to do to the present time; and I trust that that liberal feeling will not be forgotten by the present city council.

The ladies of our city, who are never behind in any good object or cause, have kindly lent their aid in raising funds, which have and are to be expended for the relief of sick and wounded soldiers. The Soldiers' Aid Society has done much for their relief in the way of necessary clothing, medicines, luxuries, and other needful articles, which have been forwarded to them. The fair of the society last winter, and the one recently held, were crowned with that success which they deserved. The ladies composing the society, and others who have lent their aid towards so good and charitable an object, should, and I dare say will, receive the thanks and heartfelt gratitude of many of our sick and destitute soldiers, as well as those of our citizens.

The recent presidential election held in November last, shows conclusively that the people of the loyal States are determined that this war shall be continued until the people of every State now in revolt lay down their arms and ask for peace. This is the doctrine under the present circumstances that every loyal citizen, man, woman, and child, should adopt.

January 16th (Monday). At the regular meeting of the city council a Joint Special Committee on Soldiers' Relief was appointed, consisting of the mayor and aldermen, and Councilmen Dodge, Burrill, Talbot, Adams, Jackman, and Clement, for the year ensuing.

February 6th (Monday). At a meeting of the city council, an order introduced by Councilman Jackman was adopted —

That the sum of $500 be placed to the credit of the Committee on Relief for their disposal to such disabled persons who have served in the army and navy during the present rebellion, or to their families, who in the judgment of said committee are destitute and deserving of such aid, or to any other person or persons of that class that the committee shall deem expedient to assist.

At the same meeting Councilman Dodge offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted by both branches of the city government: —

Whereas, The State Aid Society in the city of Newburyport having proved of great value to those who are now in the Army of the United States, therefore,

Resolved, That the thanks of the city council in behalf of the city be and are hereby tendered to the ladies of Newburyport for the many blessings which, through their patient and protracted exertions, have gladdened many a heart, and bestowed many comforts upon the soldier in the field, as well as to those wounded and sick in the several hospitals.

THE ENROLLED MILITIA OF NEWBURYPORT AND ORGANIZATION OF MILITIA COMPANIES BY DISTRICTS.

By the fourth section of the Act concerning the militia, approved on the 14th day of May last, it was provided, that the commander-in-chief should forthwith proceed to divide the Commonwealth into military districts of companies, which shall be numbered and a record thereof be made in the office of the adjutant-general. The Act also provided that the assessors of the several cities and towns throughout the Commonwealth should return to the adjutant-general, on or before the tenth day of July last, a list of all persons liable to enrollment.

The assessors returned the number of enrolled militia in this city to be 1,412; active militia between the ages of 18 and 24 years, 283; the reserved militia between the ages of 24 and 45 years, 1,129. By General Order No. 29, dated Boston, Dec. 7th, 1864, the governor, in accordance with the above provision of the law, ordered, that there be two military districts in this city, one consisting of Wards 1, 2, and 3, and designated as District No. 137; the other comprising Wards 4, 5, and 6, and designated as District No. 138.

For the purpose of organization, the governor appointed Capt. William E. Currier for District No. 137, and Col. Frederick J. Coffin for District No. 138, to call the meeting of the militia of these districts, preside for the election of captains of the proposed companies, and make returns to the adjutant-general.

February 20th. Monday afternoon the militia of the three upper wards assembled at City Hall. Col. Frederick J. Coffin presided, and Philip K. Hills, Esq., assisted. Capt. William E. Currier was present as witness to the facts. The number of ballots cast for Captain was 263, of which Eben P. Cutter had 166; Calvin M. Woodward, 28; Tristram Talbot, 27; Gustavus A. Stowell, 27; John E. Remick, 13; and others, 1. Eben P. Cutter was commissioned Captain, and subsequently Joseph C. Richardson 1st Lieutenant, and James P. Burrill 2d Lieutenant. Charles M. Atwood was appointed 1st Sergeant.

February 20th (Friday). At a meeting of the city council

Alderman William Balch offered the following order, which was adopted:—

Whereas, All the quotas of men to recruit the armies of the United States in pursuance of the several calls of the President, and assigned to this city, have been filled, and

Whereas, It is probable that other calls for more men will be made, it is ordered, that the mayor be, and hereby is, instructed to enlist in the armies of the United States, all the men he can, and that he be, and hereby is, authorized to pay each and every man he shall enlist a sum not exceeding $125 until otherwise ordered.

Alderman Balch also introduced the following, which was adopted:—

That our Representatives in General Court be, and hereby are, instructed to use their best exertions to procure the repeal of the statute limiting the bounty to $125, which may be paid to the substitutes of drafted men, for recruiting the armies of the United States, and to make their best effort for the enactment of a law authorizing towns and cities to raise by taxation of property or by loan all moneys necessary for this purpose, and to pay each and every man enlisted in the armies of the United States, such a sum as they shall deem expedient, and that the city clerk be, and hereby is, instructed to furnish each of our representatives with a copy of this order immediately after its passage.

February 27th (Monday). The militia of Wards 1, 2, and 3 assembled at Market Hall for the purpose of electing a Captain. Capt. William E. Currier presided, and Col. Frederick J. Coffin assisted. On the first ballot, Edwin A. Stover received 106 votes; Isaac Hale, Jr., 92; George W. Brown, 45; Isaac Swan, 20; Robert G. Sargent, 12. There being no choice, a second ballot was ordered, when Edwin A. Stover received 118 votes, and Isaac Hale, Jr., 96. Edwin A. Stover was commissioned Captain. April 8th Edward O. Morss was elected 1st Lieutenant, and John M. W. Clement 2d Lieutenant, and subsequently commissioned. George P. Sargent was appointed 1st Sergeant.

April 3d (Monday). The welcome news of the evacuation of Richmond and Petersburg, the retreat of Lee's army, and the advance of the Union armies under General Grant, was received with joy and thanksgiving. The bells in the city rang out the glad tidings, the public schools were dismissed, guns were fired, and all classes rejoiced and seemed happy together, in the thought that the rebellion was soon to end, and peace be declared.

April 9th (Sunday). The funeral of Sergt. Joseph W. Lunt of Company A, 35th Massachusetts Infantry, took place at the residence of his father, Mr. Joseph J. Lunt, No. 10 Dove Street, this afternoon. The services, conducted by Rev. Daniel P. Pike, were solemn and impressive. He feelingly alluded to the noble character of the deceased; how with others he was captured and confined in Southern prisons, and finally his release and return home to die. A detachment of the City Cadets did escort duty. The Deluge Fire Association, of which the deceased was a member, and many others from the Fire Department, with a large number of comrades of his company and regiment, were present. The flags in the city were at half-mast, and the bells tolled, announcing the close of another life, the departure of a true patriot whose life was freely given for the cause he loved.

THE SURRENDER OF LEE'S ARMY.

Sunday evening, about ten o'clock, the glorious news of the surrender of Lee's army to Lieutenant-General Grant was announced by telegraph. Very soon State Street, the Herald office, and the Telegraph Office were thronged with an excited crowd. The bells rang out the joyful news, until at twelve o'clock the rejoicing by old and young was general and complete. Cannons roared, and "the rockets' red glare gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;" buildings were illuminated, and the thousands of people who had assembled sang and cheered until morning dawned. During the day a procession was formed, consisting of the City Cadets, Steam Fire Engine Eon No. 1, Young America Hook and Ladder Company, Steamer No. 2, Eagle No. 5, Agile No. 6, and Neptune No. 8, with the members marching to the sound of music with badges and banners. The day by general consent was given to rejoicing. Flags were displayed, dwellings decorated, and the people echoed the sentiment telegraphed to Lieutenant-General Grant by Secretary of War Stanton: "Thanks be to Almighty God for the great victory with which he has this day crowned you and the gallant armies under your command. The thanks of this Department and of the government and of the people of the United States, their reverence and honor, have been deserved, and will be rendered to you and the brave and gallant officers and soldiers of your army for all time."

DEATH OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

April 16th (Sunday). This morning was received the sad intelligence of the death, by the hand of an assassin, of our noble-hearted President, Abraham Lincoln. Scarcely had the glad tidings of great joy — the fall of Richmond, the surrender of Lee, and the end of the rebellion — been received, before the nation was called to mourn for the Great Chief Magistrate, who had fought a good fight, who had bravely and honestly fulfilled his mission, and who had seen the successful end of his work. Most of the churches of the city were draped in mourning, and there was not a pulpit from which there was not some allusion made to the great national bereavement. At the Whitefield Church the morning service was entirely devoted to the topic, and addresses were made by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Spalding, Rev. Dr. Withington of Newbury, and Professor Smythe of Andover Seminary.

MEETING OF THE CITIZENS.

At a meeting of citizens in the Merchants' Reading Room, Monday afternoon, called to see what should be done to properly observe the day of the funeral of the late President, and show respect to the memory of the deceased, Col. Eben F. Stone was chosen chairman, and Mr. Nathan A. Moulton secretary. A committee was selected to take the whole matter in charge, consisting of His Honor the Mayor George W. Jackman, Jr., Hon. Isaac H. Boardman, Charles H. Coffin, Esq., Rev. Samuel J. Spalding, D. D., Edward S. Moseley, Esq., and Col. Eben F. Stone.

RESOLUTIONS BY THE CITY GOVERNMENT.

At a meeting of the city council held Monday evening, the mayor and aldermen, by a rising vote, passed the following resolutions relating to the death of President Lincoln, presented by Alderman Currier: —

Whereas, In the Providence of God our beloved and honored President, the Chief Magistrate of the United States, departed this life April 15th by the hand of violence, therefore

Resolved, That in the death of Abraham Lincoln the nation has lost, in its chief executive officer, a man of sterling integrity and worth, of strong and implicit faith in freedom and in the justness of our cause; and also one who was an able statesman and patriot, which the events of the last few years have fully tested.

Resolved, That in this hour of our national sorrow the greatness of our loss, if not expressed in words, is evinced by the unspoken and unutterable language of the heart; and tears of our loyal countrymen show how truly he was loved by them.

Resolved, That we thank God for the noble work our loved and honored President was permitted to do for the nation, guiding it with great sagacity and skill through the most difficult epoch of its existence.

Resolved, That of the acts which our late President performed, none of them holds a higher place in our hearts than the Proclamation of Emancipation, which will give him a place in his country's fame beside that of the immortal Washington, and entitle him to the gratitude of all lovers of liberty.

Resolved, That as a proper mark of respect the City Hall be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days, and that his honor the mayor order all public offices to be closed, and request the entire suspension of business on the part of the citizens, on the day of the funeral.

Resolved, That in accordance with the wish expressed by the acting secretary of State, the mayor request the citizens to meet at their respective places of worship during the hours of 12 M. and 2 P.M.

An order was adopted, authorizing the mayor to cause the bells of the city to be tolled and minute guns to be fired Wednesday the 19th, the day of the funeral of our late lamented President of the nation, from 12 M. to 1 o'clock P.M.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY HALL,
NEWBURYPORT, April 17th, 1865.

In accordance with the request of the acting secretary of State, the various religious denominations of this city are invited to meet at their respective places of worship on Wednesday, April 19th, between 12 M. and 2 o'clock P.M., for the purpose of solemnizing with appropriate services the occasion of the funeral of the late lamented Chief Magistrate.

And I recommend that on that day the places of business be closed at 12 o'clock, and all secular employment be suspended for the remainder of the day.

In the afternoon, under the immediate charge of a committee of citizens, of which particular notice will appear hereafter, there will be special religious services at the Pleasant Street Church, at 3 o'clock.

The bells of the city will be tolled from 12 to 1 o'clock.

GEORGE W. JACKMAN, JR., Mayor.

April 19th (Wednesday). The day was exceedingly fine, and the public buildings, churches, and dwellings were everywhere draped in mourning. Great taste was displayed in the mourning emblems, as at the Engine Houses, American Telegraph Office, the Headquarters of the Fenian Brotherhood, Gillett's Express Office, and the stores of G. I. Williams, Joseph Moulton, Richard Plumer, Solomon & Levy, N. B. Lake, Nathan A. Moulton, William H. Johnson, Samuel A. Smith, and Miss Abbie Lane; also the residences of Joshua Hale, David Wood, Charles H. Coffin, Jacob Stone, Jacob Horton, Micajah Lunt, Mrs. John Wills, Miss Wheelwright; Joshua Aubin, Norman C. Greenough, R. H. Richardson, Hiram Wood, Eben Wheelwright, Mark Haskell, Caleb Cushing, John Osgood, George Lunt, and others on High Street; Josiah Little, Henry P. Toppan, and Dr. Stephen Gale on State Street; William H. Brewster on Summer Street; Edward Lesley on Market Street; Robert Bayley on Milk Street; John Porter, Mark Symonds, Henry Cook, and Mrs. Robert Bayley on Federal Street; Charles M. Bayley on Purchase Street; Messrs. Wilson on Strong Street, and very many others. In fact, there was scarcely a dwelling in the city that was not in some way decorated with the emblems of mourning.

At noon the bells were tolled, and all the churches in the city opened with the exception of the Universalist and St. Paul's (Episcopal), the pastors of which were absent. At the Catholic Church, prayer was offered by Rev. Father Lennon, and remarks by Rev. Mr. Hammil. At the Belleville Church, Rev. Dr. Fiske officiated; at the Unitarian, Rev. Jonathan

At three o'clock, the services, arranged by the mayor and a committee of clergymen, commenced at the Pleasant Street Church. All the seats were occupied, and hundreds were unable to gain admission. The exercises consisted of (1) Voluntary on the organ; (2) Reading of Scriptures by Rev. Daniel T. Fiske, D.D., of Belleville; (3) Chant; (4) Prayer by Rev. Randolph Campbell of the Prospect Street Church; (5) Hymn; (6) Address by Rev. S. J. Spalding, D.D., of the Whitefield Church, and Rev. Richard H. Richardson of the First Presbyterian Church, Federal Street; (7) Hymn; (8) Prayer by Rev. James N. Sykes of the Congress Street Church; (9) Benediction by Rev. Daniel P. Pike of the Court Street Church.

The services were not only of the highest character, but solemn and deeply impressive, and the mourning of the people at the loss of so great and so good a man as President Lincoln was deep and sincere.

THE CLERGYMEN OF NEWBURYPORT TO THE PRESIDENT.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY ANDREW JOHNSON, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA:

Sir, — The undersigned, ministers of the gospel of different denominations in this city, ask permission respectfully to represent to you:

That we deeply sympathize with our government, and especially with yourself and with the country at large in the sudden and tragical death of Abraham Lincoln, late President of these United States.

That we hereby express our sentiments of respect towards yourself, and our confidence that under the good Providence of God, and guided by the wisdom which he generously bestows, you will prove yourself equal to the duties of your high and responsible office and to the emergencies which may arise under your administration.

That with our eyes upon the unparalleled atrocities of the rebellion — now, thank God, in process of being crushed — we fully accept that declaration of Holy Scripture relating to the rightful authority of "the ruler," — "He beareth not the sword in vain, for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil;" and that therefore treason against the civil State being the greatest of crimes, justice, both divine and human, and our national safety, and the laws by which our government is administered, unitedly and imperatively demand the inflexible and fearless punishment of treason without respect of persons: in which duty may the just Lord give you help, as in his Holy Word he hath also given you authority — (see Paul's Epistle to the Romans, chapter xiii., verses 1 to 4).

That we pledge our continued and fervent prayers to Almighty God for you, that he will be graciously pleased to preserve your valuable life and the lives of your members of cabinet; sustain you under your weighty and solemn responsibilities to him and to this nation; that he will grant to you and your constitutional advisers his continued and merciful guidance in the passing crisis, and that he will give you success and prosperity in your administration, and the high and momentous concerns of our country; and that we will devoutly and unceasingly pray, GOD SAVE THE PRESIDENT AND THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

With sentiments of high respect we are, sir, your obedient servants,

RECEPTION TO ALL WHO SERVED THE CITY IN THE ARMY OR NAVY DURING THE WAR, BY THE CITY GOVERNMENT AND CITIZENS.

It was determined by the city government and citizens generally, to celebrate the anniversary of the nation's independence, and at the same time invite the returned soldiers and sailors who went from the city during the war to become their guests, — to participate in the procession, and to be formally received by the mayor at a dinner prepared for them by the ladies at City Hall.

The exercises for the day began with the ringing of bells and the firing of a national salute of thirty-six guns at sunrise.

PROCESSION.

The procession formed on High Street; with its right resting near State Street, and moved at nine A.M. in the following order:—

Police. City Marshal, Nehemiah Flanders.
Chelsea Band.

ESCORT.

THIRD DIVISION.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Marshal, Capt. George W. Creasey.

AIDES.

Lieut. Charles L. Ayers.

Lieut. Thomas E. Cutter.

Newburyport Brass Band.

This department of the parade was composed of the veterans of the war, representing those of the army and navy who went from our city from the commencement of hostilities in April, 1861, until the final surrender in April, 1865. The various regiments and companies in which the men served, and the vessels and squadrons to which those of the navy were attached, were designated by a small guidon. Every branch and department of the service was represented: the army by cavalry, artillery, and infantry, and the navy by officers and men who had done faithful duty on the old-time battleships and the modern gunboats and monitors. Many suffering from wounds and disabled in the service rode in carriages. One from the navy, Lewis A. Horton, who had lost both arms in action, sat by the side of a representative of the army, Daniel O'Grady of the 28th Massachusetts Infantry, who had lost both eyes in battle.

FOURTH DIVISION.

TRADES.

Marshal, George S. Gillett.

AIDES.

Charles E. Bayley.

Charles C. Stockman.

The various trades of the city were largely represented, particularly the printers, ship-joiners, wood-carvers, shoe manufacturers, brass-founders, hat manufacturers, and the fishing industry.

FIFTH DIVISION.

Marshal, Capt. C. M. Woodward.

AIDES.

Jacob Stone, Jr.

James H. Jackson.

Newton Cornet Band.

This part of the procession was particularly beautiful, and suggestive of the great struggle from which the country had at that time but just emerged, and the joy and happiness expressed by all the people that peace had come and the country again united. The most striking tableaux presented were, "Army and Navy," "The Zouaves," "Daughter of the Regiment," "The Mantle of St. John De Matha," "Faith, Hope, and Charity," "Innocence," "The Pleiades," "Soldiers of 1776 and 1865," "America's Grief," "Liberty," "Thirty-six States," "Peace."

The street decorations were beautiful. At the head of State Street was a triumphal arch spanning the street, with the mottoes, "Reunion To-day and the Union Forever," "The States — distinct as the billows, but one like the sea:" at the foot of State Street another grand arch with the mottoes, "Our Defence, the breed of the people, stout and warlike," "Our Greatest Treasures — the Heroes of War of '61."

ORDER OF EXERCISES AT PLEASANT STREET CHURCH.

Voluntary, Organ	Joseph W. Evans
Invocation	Dr. Samuel J. Spalding
Voluntary	Newburyport Band
Prayer	Rev. Richard H. Richardson
Anthem
Reading of Declaration of Independence	Albert Hale, Esq.
Hymn by Capt. Luther Dame	Rev. J. C. White
Oration	Dr. George B. Loring
Anthem
Benediction	Rev. Randolph Campbell

At the conclusion of the exercises at the church, the city government, invited guests, and soldiers and sailors, were escorted to the City Hall, over the door of which was an arch bidding "Welcome, thrice welcome, every veteran here." The interior of the hall was beautifully decorated with flags, evergreens, and mottoes. On entering, the veterans passed beneath an evergreen arch, on which were the names of Grant, Sherman, and Farragut; and on the front of the gallery beneath, "A laurel wreath to the victors now, and a place in our grateful hearts forever." Immediately over the door was suspended a large laurel wreath, under which every veteran walked in entering the hall. Opposite the entrance, over the rostrum, were three arches conjoined, inscribed, "Our Greatest National Debt, — Gratitude to Our Defenders." Upon the walls tastefully arranged were the names of many battles in which the soldiers and the sailors from the city had participated. From the rostrum, on entering, the veterans were greeted by more than a hundred of the fairest ladies of the city, who had volunteered to wait upon the tables. Between seven and eight hundred participated in the dinner. Mayor George W. Jackman, Jr., presided, and welcomed the veterans as follows: —

GENTLEMEN OF THE ARMY AND NAVY HERE ASSEMBLED:

It becomes my very pleasant duty to welcome you home, and tender to you, one and all, the hospitalities of the city. We are aware of the many hardships and dangers through which you have passed during the last four years; and for myself, the city council, and the citizens generally, I tender you our warmest and most sincere regards for the honor which your valor and daring have so nobly won for yourselves, and for the city you represent. We can but feel proud of the men who have represented this city in the army and navy in the late rebellion, — men who left their pleasant homes for the love of their country, and to defend the noblest flag that ever floated over any nation, — an emblem of a nationality of which every American citizen throughout the land should be proud. The blow struck at that flag on Fort Sumter forever dishonored and blasted those traitors performing the act, and all others who have supported or given countenance to the act since. May they all meet the fate they so richly deserve! And, further, it has forever, I trust, wiped slavery — that cherished institution of the South — from the land, — the one thing which has caused more trouble to the free States, more anxiety to those who fostered it, and more expense to the government, than any other matter under the Constitution.

It has been my privilege, whether for the best or not, to preside over the destiny of the city most of the time during the rebellion, and I have at all times and on all occasions done what I considered to be right and proper to maintain the honor of the city, in providing men and means to sustain the army and navy, and to support the Constitution of the United States, and to sustain the administration. It has also been my aim at all times, and upon all occasions, to render all needful assistance to the families of those of our citizens who are or have been in the service fighting for us and ours, in order that they should be as comfortably provided for as the circumstances of the case would admit; and I trust that I have done in this matter that which has met the approval of the soldiers and sailors, as well as our citizens. There has always been a willingness on the part of the city council to vote money and render other aid to enable me to furnish the requisite number of men to fill our quotas under the various calls of the President, between 1,200 and 1,300 men for the army and navy; and I feel proud to say, that on the breaking-up of the rebellion I had twenty-seven men ahead of all demands made upon us.

I will take this occasion to say, that at home or abroad, whenever I have met any of you, I have ever been treated with that courtesy and kindness which my position required, which is ever characteristic of the true soldier and sailor; and for this mark of respect I tender you one and all here present, and to your comrades in arms who have not had the good fortune to arrive home (which I much regret, as I hoped to have the honor to meet all who are alive, on this occasion), my warmest regards and kindest feelings for the courteous treatment which I have ever received at your hands. Gentlemen, before closing my remarks, I wish to remind the company present that this bountiful repast was provided by the Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Society, who cannot be excelled in their success in promoting the comfort and welfare of the soldier, and in making home cheerful with their graces and smiles; and many of you, I dare say, have partaken of the sweets and comforts which they have from time to time forwarded to the battlefields and to the hospitals during the past four years. And now, gentlemen, they are here to welcome you, and to wait upon you, with their smiling and beautiful faces; and I know that your presence here gladdens their hearts, and they bid you welcome on your joyous return, praying that health, happiness, and a long life may be your reward for the troubles and toils through which you have passed.

Rev. Daniel T. Fiske invoked a blessing. After the dinner the mayor introduced Philip K. Hills, Esq., as toast-master, who presented the following:—

"THE DAY WE CELEBRATE. Doubly dear to us as the anniversary of our nation's birth, and as the commencement of a new era in its history. The valor of our soldiers and the wisdom of our statesmen have made the country a unit, so to continue henceforth and forever." Responded to by Rev. J. C. White, Rector of St. Paul's Church.

"THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES." Responded to by George J. L. Colby, editor of the Newburyport Herald.

"THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Worthy of our love and devotion for the noble ideas of human liberty she has promulgated, and of the noble men who have rallied to their support and establishment." Responded to by Capt. Henry W. Moulton of the 32d Massachusetts Infantry.

"THE ORATOR OF THE DAY. His fitly spoken words entitle him to confidence as a faithful sentinel on the political outworks." Responded to by Dr. George B. Loring of Salem.

"THE WESTERN ARMY. They won the first great victory of the war at Fort Donelson, nor were checked in their triumphant march until they reached the sea, nor in their northern movement until the 'anaconda' had caught in its folds the last rebel corps in the Atlantic States. Their brilliant achievements have no parallel in the history of war." Rev. Isaac S. Cushman, Chaplain of the 33d Massachusetts Infantry, responded.

"THE HOME GUARDS. Though serving in the loyal States, they were ready and willing to share the dangers of the field whenever ordered." Responded to by Lieut. Joseph L. Johnson of the Cushing Guards, 8th and 60th Regiment, M. V. M.

"OUR ESCORT, — the Veteran Artillery Association. They preserve the name of the oldest military corps in the Commonwealth. The fame of its founders in the Revolution is safe in its present keeping." Capt. William E. Currier of the veterans responded.

"THE READER OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE. He adorns the profession by which New England impresses herself upon the nation." Responded to by Mr. Albert Hale.

"OUR MARTYRED PRESIDENT AND THE OTHER FALLEN HEROES IN THIS FOUR YEARS' CONFLICT WITH REBELLION. By every heart let their memories be tenderly cherished." Drank standing and in silence.

"THE CITY OF NEWBURYPORT. She has a record in all our wars for freedom, of which our posterity will be proud." Alderman Warren Currier responded.

"THE LADIES' SOLDIERS' AID SOCIETY. Our quota of the heroines of the war. They have never failed in any call for assistance from camp, hospital, or field. In contemplating their labors 'we are lost in wonder, love, and praise.'" Responded to by Rev. Dr. Samuel J. Spalding, formerly Chaplain of the 48th Regiment Infantry, M. V. M.

"THE ARMY OF THE GULF. The names of New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Donaldsonville, and Port Hudson are on their banners, and make for them an honorable record of which they may justly feel proud." Col. Eben F. Stone of the 48th Regiment Infantry, M. V. M., responded.

"THE NAVY. To them belonged the pleasing duty of restoring the Stars and Stripes in nearly every State. Upon the rivers and the sea they have acted worthy of the navies of 1776 and 1812." Henry Bartlet, Acting M. Mate U.S. N., and Ex-Alderman Thomas Huse responded.

"THE GALLANT DEFENDERS OF THE CAPITAL IN 1861. Called from their homes and peaceful pursuits at a moment's notice, they did the work of veterans, and for their promptness and patriotism they will ever have the kindly remembrance of their country." Responded to by Major Ben: Perley Poore, formerly Major of the 8th Regiment Infantry, M. V. M.

"THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. They met the first wave of insurrection, and continued through the battles of the Peninsula, Fredericksburg, Antietam, Gettysburg, and the Wilderness, till they rolled back the insurgent host to 'the last ditch,' and there buried treason too deep for a resurrection in this age." Responded to by Capt. George W. Creasey of the 35th Massachusetts Infantry, and Lieut. Edwin F. Stover of the 40th New York Infantry (Mozart).

"THE ARMY OF THE CAROLINAS. They made the first invasion of the rebel States, and from Cape Hatteras to the fall of Charleston neither slumbered nor slept forgetful of their duty. We welcome home the protectors of the Constitution in the old North State, and the victors over treason in the cradle of the Rebellion." Responded to by Col. F. J. Coffin of the 8th Regiment Infantry, M. V. M., and Lieut. William J. Creasey of the 23d Regiment Massachusetts Infantry.

"THE IRISH BRIGADE. The brave sons of foreign parentage, who do not forget the land of their birth nor love for the land of their adoption. They have given to our country

'names that were not born to die.'" There being no one to respond, George J. L. Colby spoke of the services of the Irish Brigade during the war.

"THE ARMY OF THE JAMES. The men who bore the heat and burden of the day, and were in at its close. The bloody fields of Virginia attest their valor." Responded to by Sergt. Edward L. Davenport of Company I, 23d Regiment Massachusetts Infantry.

NEWBURYPORT WOMEN IN THE WAR.

The record of Newburyport during the war would certainly be incomplete if we fail to remember with gratitude the earnest devotion and noble sacrifices of the women of our city who so generously contributed of their time, their labor, and their money to the comfort of the soldiers in the hospitals and camps, from the early days of the war to its ending in 1865.

SOLDIERS' AID SOCIETY.

The first organized society for preparing and sending articles to the soldiers in the field was known as the Soldiers' Aid Society. Early in the summer of 1861, Mrs. Samuel Pettingell, who resided on Bromfield Street, feeling a deep interest in the soldiers, suggested to some of her friends the plan of meeting frequently and working for their benefit. The plan was acceptable, and on Tuesday evening of each week the band of workers gathered at a house designated at the previous meeting. The gatherings were very popular, and continually increased in attendance and material results. Boxes and barrels containing bandages, lint, towels, delicacies, and other articles useful in hospitals, were sent in various directions to the sick and wounded, while stockings and articles of comfort were forwarded direct to the soldiers in the field. For months the good work was continued.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

August 14th, 1862. Nearly five hundred ladies responded to a call for a meeting for the purpose of organizing an association to benefit the sick and wounded soldiers. For temporary organization Mrs. John Buntin was selected as chairman, and Miss Caroline E. Perkins secretary. The following resolutions were adopted:—

Resolved, That in view of the many sufferings and privations which our sick and wounded countrymen in the field are called upon to encounter, we, the women of Newburyport, now pledge ourselves to form a society called the Soldiers' Relief Association, whose duty it shall be to forward articles for their comfort; and that the existence of this society shall terminate only with the day when peace is declared.

Resolved, That we will do all in our power to make this organization a vigorous and successful one, sparing no pains, shrinking from no sacrifices of time and money; feeling as we earnestly do that our efforts can never thoroughly repay the offering of life and health which our fathers, sons, and brothers are so heartily making.

Resolved, That while we will thus sacrifice all the time and means in our power, we will nerve our hearts to the higher and nobler sacrifice of those near to us for the nation's good; esteeming even our kindred less dear than that fatherland which has blessed us with uncounted privileges and a glorious history.

A constitution was adopted, declaring the purpose of the association to be to assist the sick and wounded soldiers of the United States service; that any person could become a member by paying an annual tax of twenty-five cents, and that the officers consist of a President, a Treasurer, Secretary and Assistant Secretary, with an Executive Committee of two ladies from each ward in the city.

The following officers were selected to serve for one year:—

President, Mrs. John C. March. Vice-Presidents, Mrs. George W. Jackman, Jr., Mrs. Eben Hale, Mrs. Artemas B. Muzzey, Mrs. William Horton, Mrs. John Porter, Mrs. Edward S. Moseley, Mrs. Stephen S. Gale, Mrs. Micajah Lunt, Mrs. J. J. Knapp, Mrs. Stephen W. Marston, Mrs. George J. L. Colby, Mrs. Albert Currier, Mrs. Rufus Wills, Mrs. Eben Wheelwright, Mrs. Charles W. Story, Mrs. John N. Cushing, Mrs. Robert Bayley, Mrs. Josiah Little, Mrs. George Gillett, Mrs. William C. Balch. Treasurer, Mrs. John Buntin. Secretary, Miss Sarah L. Davis. Assistant Secretary, Miss Caroline E. Perkins.

Executive Committee. — Ward 1, Mrs. Isaac A. Bray, Mrs.

Washington Adams. Ward 2, Mrs. David P. Page, Mrs. William Graves. Ward 3, Mrs. A. G. Vermilye, Mrs. Jonathan Cole. Ward 4, Mrs. Eben F. Stone, Miss Ann Balch. Ward 5, Mrs. David Wood, Miss Agnes A. Aubin. Ward 6, Mrs. Andrew W. Miltimore, Mrs. Paul G. Lunt.

The first annual meeting of the association was held at the City Hall, Thursday, Oct. 1st, 1863. The following is from the report of the Executive Committee:—

"In this last report of our association we wish to give an account to our friends, who have so liberally sustained us, of the way in which the large sums intrusted to us have been expended. In consequence of the sudden termination of the war, urgent calls from the hospitals ended in May last. Since that time we have sent but two boxes. The past year thirty-five boxes have been sent, as follows: To United States General Hospital, Annapolis, Md., 13; Sanitary Commission, 8; Christian Commission, 6; Massachusetts Soldiers' Relief Association, Washington, D.C., 4; General Hospital, Beverly, N.J., 3; Beaufort, S.C., 1; Discharged Soldiers' Home, 1.

"The whole number of boxes sent since the organization of the society, Aug. 14th, 1862, to July 28th, 1865, 159, containing the following articles: 3,222 cotton shirts, 1,589 flannel shirts, 2,522 woolen socks, 781 pairs drawers, 286 dressing-gowns, 2,700 bandages, 5,258 handkerchiefs, 3,160 towels, 562 pairs of slippers, 1,666 comfort bags, 1,120 packages farina and maizena, 1,359 boxes condensed milk, cocoa, and broma, 238 pounds sugar and tea, 1,031 bottles wine and jellies, 287 bottles cologne and bay water. Given to individual soldiers belonging to this city, 20 flannel shirts, 11 cotton shirts, 10 pairs drawers, 32 handkerchiefs and towels, 5 dressing-gowns, 3 pairs slippers, 3 comfort bags.

"The women of this city, in common with all the patriotic women of the North, would have continued their labors, even if those labors had involved self-sacrifice and privations such as they never yet have known, so long as our noble soldiers were periling their lives for them on land and water. In closing this report we wish to express our gratitude to those constant, untiring friends of our society who have so generously sustained us. When the estimate is made, as we believe it will be, of the amount of supplies sent through the various agencies to the sick and wounded soldiers during the war, we think the record of Newburyport will show that the energy and self-sacrifice of her women is only equaled by the liberality of her patriotic men."

For the Executive Committee,

AGNES A. AUBIN, Recording Secretary.

MRS. JOHN BUNTIN, Treasurer.

The money value of the articles sent to the hospitals by the noble women of our city during the war can hardly be estimated in dollars and cents, and assuredly not if we consider their earnest devotion and unquestioned loyalty to the cause for which they labored so long and so patiently. Adjutant-General Schouler, in his History of the Civil War in Massachusetts, in recounting the work of the Newburyport Soldiers' Relief Association, says, "At the close of the war they had furnished in articles and in money for the sick and wounded to the value of thirty thousand dollars."

LIST OF VESSELS OWNED WHOLLY OR IN PART IN NEWBURYPORT, OR VESSELS COMMANDED BY NEWBURYPORT OFFICERS, CAPTURED DURING THE WAR BY CONFEDERATE PRIVATEERS.

Schooner Enchantress, built at Newburyport, and owned by Benjamin Davis, Jr., Atkinson Stanwood, Richard Plumer, Enoch M. Read, and John T. Page, of this city, commanded by Capt. John Devereaux, with Charles W. Page as mate, bound from Boston to Santiago, Cuba, with an assorted cargo of beef, pork, mackerel, shoes, etc., was captured July 6th, 1861, near latitude 38° 40" and longitude 69° 15", by the privateer Jeff Davis (formerly the slaver Echo), Captain Coxetta. She was put in charge of a prize crew, and commanded by Captain Smith, formerly a Savannah pilot.

The officers and crew of the Enchantress, after having been taken from their vessel, were landed at Portland, Me., by the schooner Mary Goodell. The Enchantress was recaptured near the entrance of Charleston Harbor, S.C., by the U.S.S. Albatross, July 31st, and taken to New York.

Ship Star of Peace of Boston, built at Newburyport by John Currier, Jr., who was part owner, commanded by Captain Francis M. Hinckley, bound from Calcutta to Boston with a cargo of saltpetre and hides, was captured March 6th, 1863, by Confederate privateer Florida in latitude 15° 13' N., longitude 54° 38' W., and burned. DESCRIPTION BY CAPTAIN LAWRENCE W. BROWN OF THE CAPTURE OF THE SHIP SONORA BY THE ALABAMA, CAPTAIN SEMMES.

In March, 1863, we were on the berth in New York with the ship Sonora of Newburyport, loading for Melbourne with a general cargo; finished loading and sailed; had forty-five passengers. On third day at sea, when about six hundred miles from New York, discovered four stowaways, all soldiers, deserters from some regiment or regiments that had been on the way "to the front," but changed their minds and became tolerable good sailors. We arrived in good time at our destined port.

After a time there, we took some cargo and two hundred and ninety Chinese passengers on board, and sailed for Hong Kong; made the passage in forty-six days, and landed all hands in good order. On arriving we found about twenty-five American ships at anchor, all snug with light masts and yards sent down, crews discharged, and having the appearance of a siege. On making inquiries we found that a strange steamer had put in her appearance in the China Seas, and the ship Contest, laden with a valuable cargo, had been captured, plundered, and burned, said steamer being the Alabama, and said to be a Confederate States privateer: therefore there had not been an American ship sail from Hong Kong for several weeks, and ours the first arrival for some time. As we were not on a voyage of discovery looking for privateers, and had a charter to proceed to Akyab, British India, and load rice for Europe, we remained in port ten days, and sailed for Akyab; touched at Singapore, and landed one hundred Chinese passengers, among which were twenty girls. At Singapore we fell in with a fleet of fifteen to twenty American ships, all in the same predicament as the Hong Kong fleet; paid off white crew, and shipped colored men; these men were part of the crew of Contest, who were landed at Batavia, and sent up to Singapore care of U. S. Consul. In five or six days we were up and at it again; sailed on through Malacca Straits toward Akyab. On the 26th of December, in 3° N., 103° E., at 6 A.M. a steamer was in sight, coming up astern, steering for us. After a short time I saw she was flying a blue British ensign, and had a large number of men on board, and I was quite satisfied she was the Alabama, and we were to have a morning call from the great brave (?) individual "Semmes," and expected a great circus was to be our day's entertainment, — and it certainly was so.

When the steamer arrived quite near on our starboard beam, some three or four boats were launched, filled with men and officers, and came alongside. We had made all preparations to receive them. An officer came up, and addressed me from the rail, — I was on the house, — asked me ship's name, where from, where bound, and where she belonged. In a certain way he was answered. He said we were a prize to the Confederate steamer Alabama, pointing to her, and he was the prize master. I asked for his name, and invited him to come on board. He came up. I went down in the cabin, and he followed me. We had quite an interview, and a goodly time was passed, he all of the time advising me to go at once to "the steamer with my papers," etc.

In the meantime a gang were loading their boats with provisions, with which we were well supplied, and best quality, a great haul for them. Fourteen colored men and ten white boys were placed in one of our boats, and set adrift, with notice, or orders, to keep away from the steamer. Two colored men and my two officers — Isaac N. Colby, 1st officer, and Bradford Swap, 2d officer, both Newburyport men — were then ordered into our quarter-boat and told to pull to the steamer, which they did. A lot of these steamer people were preparing to set fire to the ship; others, officers included, were plundering the ship's cabin; and with disputes among these fellows, as to whom such and such a thing belonged, each one having claimed they saw it first, the whole affair was of rather a ridiculous, undignified nature, it seeming to me that they could not have any discipline on board the steamer from which they had pounced down upon us; and had we been captured in the China Seas, or up through the Malacca Straits, by Chinese or Malay pirates, we might have expected about the same treatment as we were getting from these representatives of the Southern Confederacy.

I had been told by this fellow "Armstrong," the prize officer, that the ship would be burned; and more than three times did he tell me that I was getting myself in trouble by not going to the steamer at once. However, after all of our people had gone, and the torch all ready to apply to the kindlings, of tar, oil, etc., an officer told me to go with him in his boat to the steamer, which I did. We were but a few moments in the boat before arriving at the port side of the steamer, outside of three or four boats which were being discharged of the spoils which this crowd of two hundred and twenty-eight people had scooped so early in the morning. After getting on deck I noticed this chap had hauled down the British ensign and hoisted what they called the Confederate naval colors. To me the conditions of my surroundings looked like poor discipline and an awful dirty vessel. Some ten or fifteen tons of coals were lying on deck amidships, men standing about in groups, and some lying about the decks. I did not walk aft, although I saw and recognized the bold (?) navigator Semmes near the mizzen-rigging, but passed forward on port side, looked at the guns, bow-chaser, thence aft on starboard side, no one having spoken to me, only when a tall, shabbily dressed fellow spoke as we came alongside, and said, "Captain, you can come up." I merely answered by saying, "That is what I came here to do." My boat was then with the two white and two black men towing at his stern. Crossing the deck to port side well aft, a lanky, tall, cheaply dressed individual approached me, with an extended hand, and said, "Good-morning, Captain Brown." I did not give him my hand, — "the hand of Douglas is his own." He looked at me, probably feeling insulted, and asked me if I would go down in his cabin. I said I would be pleased to do so. He went below, I followed; had a fine chance to kick him downstairs — but didn't. I was not invited to be seated. He asked my ship's name. I threw my papers on the table, abaft of which he stood, while I stood facing him. He gazed at me, put his glasses on, picked up the big envelope, which contained Register and Crew List, opened the Register, looked at me, sort of sizing me up, and said, "Sonora, she belongs to our enemy. I'll burn her!" I answered, "I don't care if you do. She is well insured in London." — "Where are you from?" — "New York." — "Where?" — "New York, via Melbourne and Hong Kong." — "Where are you bound?" — "That is just what I would like to know. You say you will burn her, and she was all ready to be set fire to when I left her. How do I know what comes next?" The fellow became a little enraged, took a good view of me, and then asked "where I was bound?" — "To Akyab." Other such questions just as foolish were put to me, all answered in a most pleasing and polite manner. "Of what does your cargo consist?" I could only laugh at him, and answer, "Sand!" He moved from his position, and yelled, "I want no comments, sir! what is your cargo?" I tried to bristle up a little on a different tack, and not as pleasantly told him "I was master of a ship myself an hour since, and always knew how to treat my callers and my passengers;" no comments had been made but by himself, etc. He asked "if I had any money about me?" I then made up my mind he was either a confounded fool or a consummate scoundrel. We were all young fellows, and not really easily scared. An officer, his clerk, was all this time sitting at the table, no others in sight of us. I had a little more to say, and then awaited the result. He handed my papers to the clerk, and he left the cabin. Then this Semmes said to me, "Now, sir," — I took a seat, expecting my sentence, — "I'll give you your choice. You may remain with me eight or ten days, and at the end of that time I will set you down wherever I happen to be, or you may go in your boat!" — "What about my crew?" — "Those niggers are going in their boat!" — "My officers?" — "Are going with your niggers." I said, "If those men and officers, that belong to me, and I to them, are to be set adrift here in those boats, your ship is no place for me; my duty is not here. I will go with them, and whatever they may have to go through, I willingly will share it with them. They have served me faithfully, and I will never desert from them." He said, "You will have no charts." I answered, "I do not want any." — "No books or nautical instruments of any kind." I again said, "I do not want them; they will be of no use to me here in an open boat, and I will not leave my people under any circumstances. I know my duty."

He left the cabin and went on deck. I looked about me, then went on deck, and made remarks with two different officers. They seemed to think they had conquered a fleet of men-of-war instead of one poor innocent merchant ship. It seemed to me like an eagle swooping down on a humming-bird. My boat was searched, and a quadrant belonging to the mate and other articles were passed up on the deck of this bold cruiser. I asked him if we could go now, as it was not safe towing alongside his craft. He said, "You have no water in your boat." I said, "Only that which leaked in." — "Well," he said, "you hang on me, and I'll tow you toward your ship and you can get some." She was then one mass of flames. I looked at him and said, "I never sent a man where I would not go myself, and that is no place for me." He then said, "You can clear out! You are the most impertinent man I have dealt with!" We cut his line, and dropped away from him. There we were, five in the boat; — and it did seem to me as though I never was so far from home and friends.

We landed on the Island of Penang, on the afternoon of December 31st. I gave the mates each one-third of the money I managed to save, about $100. Then it was each for himself. The Consul provided for the two sailors. The first mate got down to Singapore, and home from there in a Boston bark, Pearl. Second mate went up to Rangoon in a British ship; left her, and became a pilot; died there some three years afterward, aged twenty-four, and weighed three hundred and fifteen pounds, "the biggest man in Burmah." Consuls have no authority to assist captains; they do not come under the head of seamen. I proceeded in steamer Chabuda, British, to Maulmain, then Rangoon, and thence to Calcutta, where I felt at home. The first white man I met was my brother; we had not met for seven years. I left Calcutta on the 22d day of January, 1864, by way of Madras, Point de Galle, Suez, across to Alexandria; at Cairo called out and inspected the Pyramids; Malta, Gibraltar, and Southampton; only three hours at Southampton; then in the North German steamship Cimbria to New York; arrived in Newburyport on the afternoon of March 17th, 1864, having experienced a beautiful voyage, and met with some peculiar peoples.

REPRESENTATIVE RECRUITS.

Governor Andrew promulgated, July 1st, 1864, Circular No. 25, from the Provost-Marshal-General's office in relation to representative recruits, furnished by persons not fit for military duty, and not liable to draft, from age or other causes. Such a personal representative was quite different from the substitute furnished by the drafted man or one liable to military duty, and were furnished by patriotic citizens who were not themselves liable to military service:—Such a representative was furnished by Capt. Robert Couch, a ship master of this city.

CONTRACT SURGEONS.

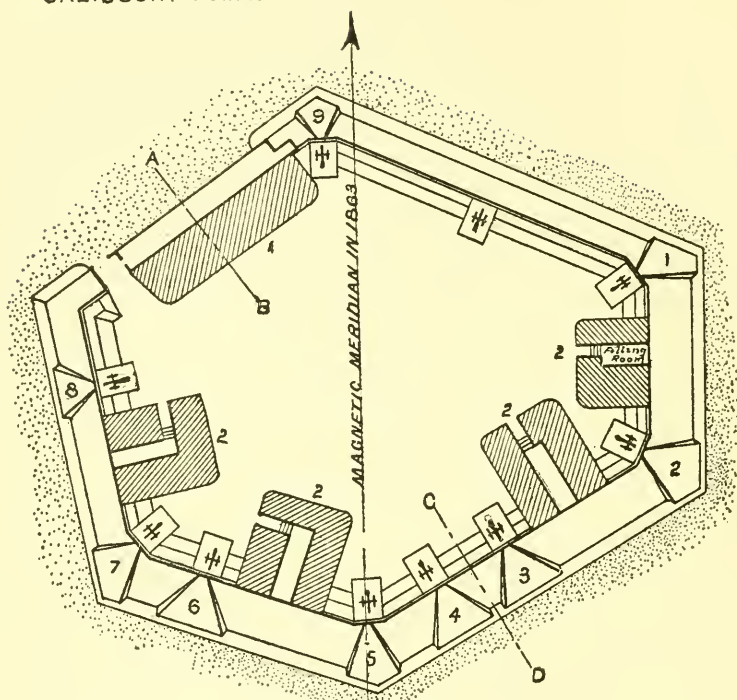

TALBOT, CHARLES CARROLL. Born at Newburyport, Aug. 28th, 1843. Son of Tristram C. and Sarah Ann Talbot. Appointed Contract Surgeon, Sept. 3d, 1865. Connected with field hospitals and hospital transport George Washington.

HUSE, RALPH C., JR. Born at Newburyport, Aug. 21st, 1843. Son of Ralph C. and Sarah S. Huse. Assigned as a Contract Surgeon to duty with the 3d Reg. N. Y. Inf., with the regiment in the assault on Fort Fisher, N. C., and seriously wounded Jan. 16th, 1865, by the explosion of a magazine. Sent to hospital at Fortress Munroe, Va. (See Co. A, 48th Reg. FORT AT SALISBURY POINT.

The fort at the mouth of the Merrimack River on Salisbury Point was commenced in 1863, and completed the following year. It was locally designated Fort Nichols, in honor of Capt. William Nichols of this city, who commanded the privateer Decatur in the War of 1812. This name, however, was not recognized by the War Department.

The location of the fort was 700 feet from Badger's Rocks to embrasure No. 7, and 850 feet from embrasure No. 3 to what was at that time high-water mark on the ocean face. The range of gun No. 9 was a little west of north. Neither the scale of the fort nor that of the sections will apply to this cut, as the original sketch was considerably reduced to conform to the size of the book.

The greatest external diameter was from the angle of No. 1 gun to that of No. 7, which was 350 feet. The interior of the bombproof quarters was 90 feet by 12.

The accompanying cut shows in plan and sections the completed fort, giving the positions of the guns, the magazines, and the bombproof quarters. It was originally intended to mount one 12-pounder siege gun and 9 rifled 32-pounders in the fort; but the armament on June 30th, 1866, and June 30th, 1867, was: one 12-pounder smooth-bore siege gun on a wooden carriage, mounted in barbette on the northeast face; three 8 in. smooth-bore guns, on iron casemate carriages, mounted at embrasures Nos. 1, 2, and 3; three 42-pounder rifled guns on wooden casemate carriages, mounted at embrasures Nos. 4, 5, and 6. These guns commanded the narrow entrance to the harbor between Salisbury Point and Plum Island. The embrasures are numbered by the figures 1 to 9. After the completion of the fort, its garrison consisted of a sergeant and a small number of men sent from other fortifications along the coast.

SKETCH OF THE COMPANIES RECRUITED IN NEWBURY-PORT FOR THREE YEARS' SERVICE.

FORTIETH REGIMENT NEW YORK INFANTRY
(MOZART REGIMENT).

This regiment, to which four companies from Massachusetts — one each from Newburyport, Cambridge, Milford, and Lawrence — were attached, was organized at Yonkers, N.Y., June 27th, 1861, to serve for three years. Company B was organized in this city, and known as the National Guards. The regiment left New York July 4th, and was assigned to Gen. Phil Kearney's Brigade, which subsequently became a part of the Third Army Corps. It took part in the Peninsular campaign under General McClellan, and remained in the Army of the Potomac during its term of service. It sustained an unusual loss in battle, and in its number of killed stands next to the head in the list of New York infantry regiments. Its aggregate membership was large, owing to transfers from other regiments. The casualties in the regiment were: killed and mortally wounded, 238; died of disease, accidents, etc., 127; died in Confederate prisons, 45; total, 410.

The original members of the regiment were mustered out in July, 1864.

The official list of battles in which the regiment bore an honorable part is as follows: —

Yorktown, Va., Williamsburg, Va., Fair Oaks, Va., Glendale, Va., Malvern Hill, Va., Second Bull Run, Va., Chantilly, Va., Fredericksburg, Va., Chancellorsville, Va., Gettysburg, Pa., Mine Run, Va., Wilderness, Va., Spottsylvania, Va., North Anna, Va., Tolopotomy, Va., Cold Harbor, Va., Petersburg, Va., Strawberry Plains, Va., Poplar Spring Church, Va., Deep Bottom, Va., Boydton Road, Va., Siege of Petersburg, Va.

SEVENTEENTH REGIMENT MASSACHUSETTS INFANTRY.

This regiment was recruited at Camp Schonler, Lynnfield, during the summer of 1861, and with the exception of two companies was recruited in Essex County. Company A, known at the time of recruiting as the "City Greys," was from Newburyport. The regiment left the State August 23d for Baltimore, Md., forming part of the forces under General Dix. In the spring of 1862 it was transferred to New Berne, N.C., and remained in that department until the close of the war. It was mustered out of service July 11th, 1865. Total membership of regiment during its term of service: officers, 88; enlisted men, 1,658; aggregate, 1,746. The casualties were: killed and died of wounds, 19; died of disease or accident, 87; died as prisoners, 51; total, 157.

The following is a list of the engagements in which the regiment participated: —

New Berne, N.C., Batchelder's Creek, N.C., Kinston, N.C. Washington, N.C., Whitehall, N.C., Wise's Fork, N.C., Goldsboro, N.C.

THIRTY-FIFTH REGIMENT MASSACHUSETTS INFANTRY.

The Thirty-fifth Regiment was organized at Lynnfield, and left the State Aug. 22d, 1862. Company B was recruited by Capt. Albert W. Bartlett, and left the State as color company. After a short stay at Arlington Heights, it was assigned to the second brigade, second division, Ninth Army Corps, commanded by Gen. A. E. Burnside. It participated in the Maryland campaign under General McClellan, and after the battle of Fredericksburg in 1862 it went to Newport News, Va. From there it was sent to join General Burnside in the department of Ohio, and assigned to duty in the interior of Kentucky. In June, 1863, it joined General Grant's forces at Vicksburg, Miss., when after its surrender, July 4th, 1863, it followed General Johnston from the Big Black River to Jackson, investing the city. Returning to Kentucky August 14th it moved with the Corps to Knoxville, Tenn., and was in the city during the siege by General Longstreet's forces. In April, 1864, the regiment returned with the Corps to the Army of the Potomac, taking part in the advance from the Wilderness to Petersburg under General Grant. During the siege it took an active part at the crater July 30th. After the surrender of General Lee at Appomattox, the regiment was sent to Alexandria, Va., where it remained until the grand review at Washington, May 23d, 1865. On June 9th the regiment was mustered out of service, and arrived in Boston June 13th. The following is a list of the engagements in which the regiment participated:—

South Mountain, Md., Antietam, Md., Fredericksburg, Va., Vicksburg, Miss., Jackson, Miss., Campbell's Station, Tenn., Siege of Knoxville, Tenn., Spottsylvania, Va., North Anna River, Va., Cold Harbor, Va., Bethesda Church, Va., Siege of Petersburg, Va., Petersburg Mine, Va., Weldon Railroad, Va., Poplar Spring Church, Va., Jones House, Petersburg, Va., Fort Sedgwick, Va. Present at White Sulphur Springs, Va., Wilderness, Va., Hatcher's Run, Va., and Fort Mahone, Va.

The total membership of the regiment during its term of service was 1,526 officers and enlisted men; 148 of the number were killed in action or died of wounds; 68 died of disease, etc., and 33 died in Confederate prisons. The total killed and wounded in the regiment was 539 men.

CASUALTIES IN COMPANY B (NEWBURYPORT COMPANY).

Original membership of company: officers and enlisted men, 99; killed or died of wounds, 11; died of disease, etc., 4; discharged for wounds, 15; transferred to V. R. Corps, 9; discharged for disability, 32; transferred to Regular Army, 1; resigned commissions, 2; deserted, 4; leaving 21 members who were discharged at the end of the war.

In addition to the 138 men in the regiment credited to Newburyport, the city furnished eleven more men who were, with three exceptions, counted on the quota of Newburyport, making the aggregate of 149 officers and men belonging to this city who served in the regiment. From this number, 15 were killed in action or died of wounds, 7 died of disease, etc., and 36 were wounded in action; 33 served until the end of the war.

NUMBER OF MEN FURNISHED BY NEWBURYPORT.

The number of men called for from Newburyport during the war was twelve hundred and ninety-three (1,293). Those who so promptly responded to the first call of the President in April, 1861, and were mustered into the United States service for three months, and those who served for ninety and one hundred days, were not counted on the quota of the city.

The city sent to the field, not including those in the 40th New York Infantry (Mozart), thirteen hundred and sixty-three (1,363) men, which according to credits allowed by the Department was seventy (70) men more than she was required to furnish.

To ascertain more correctly the number of men which the city actually furnished during the war, and for whom she should have received credit, there should be added to the 1,363 men credited to her, the 101 men in Company B, 40th New York Infantry (Mozart), whose credits were transferred by the War Department from New York to Massachusetts in 1863; also the 35 men enlisted after the city's quota for 1862 had been filled, and who by a ruling of the Provost-Marshal-General were not allowed to count on the next quota, and the 12 recruits sent to camp under the call for October 17th, 1863, in excess of the contingent called for and for whom no credits were given. We find the aggregate number of men furnished by the city to have been 1,511, which was an excess of 218 men over all demands made upon the city during the war.

AMOUNT EXPENDED BY NEWBURYPORT.

From the History of Massachusetts in the Civil War by Adjutant-General Schouler, we find that the amount of money appropriated and expended by the city on account of the war, exclusive of State Aid, was $123,817.89. In addition to this, $6,300.00 were voluntarily contributed by private citizens.

The amount of money raised and expended by the city in the payment of State Aid to the families of volunteers during the four years of the war, and afterwards reimbursed by the Commonwealth, was as follows: In 1861, $6,322.45; in 1862, $25,000.00; in 1863, $35,988.25; in 1864, $27,000.00; in 1865, $16,000.00; total amount, $110,310.70.

NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENTS.

From the departure of the first company from Newburyport in April, 1861, to the disbanding of the army in 1865, the Daily Herald printed communications from the various locations in both the Army and Navy in which the soldiers and sailors from Newburyport were situated. The earliest of these letters were from "Essex," who was with the 8th Mass. Infantry from Massachusetts to Washington, and later in the Department of the Gulf. Letters signed "A," who was a member of Company A, 17th Mass. Infantry, were continuous from early in 1861 until 1864. Communications signed "J. D. P." and "E. L. D." were from graduates of the Herald office who served with the 23d Mass. Infantry in North Carolina.

ARMY NURSES.

The only representative of this class of noble, patriotic, and self-sacrificing women from our city during the war, was Mrs. Sarah E. Smith, daughter of Jeremiah and Abigail Downs, who devoted several months of faithful and earnest work in caring for the sick and wounded soldiers in the army hospitals.

Mrs. Smith was born in 1831; died January 2d, 1873, buried on New Hill.

VETERAN RESERVE CORPS.

The organization of the Invalid or Veteran Reserve Corps was begun in April, 1863, by which it was proposed to retain the services for garrison, hospital and provost duty, of that class of deserving officers and men, who from wounds received in action or disease contracted in the service, were unfit for further duty in the field, and who would otherwise be discharged, but were still able to perform light duty; also to bring back for like purposes, those who had previously been discharged as unfit for active service, and not liable to draft.

The Corps numbered June 1st, 1865, 762 commissioned officers, and 29,852 enlisted men, many of whom remained in the service long after the close of the war.

SUMMARY OF LOSSES IN THE UNION ARMY.

The following statistics are by permission copied from Regimental Losses in the American Civil War by Col. William F. Fox.

In the American Civil War, the Union armies lost 110,070 killed or mortally wounded, and 275,175 wounded; total, 385,245, exclusive of the missing in action, whose number has not as yet been officially stated. Of the 110,070 deaths from battle, 67,058 were killed on the field; the remainder died of their wounds. This loss was divided among the different arms of the service as follows: —

SERVICE.	OFFICERS.	ENLISTED MEN.	TOTAL.	RATIO OF OFFICERS TO MEN.
Infantry	5,461	91,424	96,885	1:16.7
Sharpshooters	23	443	466	1:17.7
Cavalry	671	9,925	10,596	1:14.7
Light Artillery	116	1,701	1,817	1:14.6
Heavy Artillery ¹	5	124	129	1:24.8
Engineers	4	72	76	1:18.0
General Officers ²	67		67
General Staff	18		18
Unclassified		16	16
Total	6,365	103,705	110,070	1:16.2

The losses in the three principal classes of troops were:

KILLED OR DIED OF WOUNDS.

CLASS.	OFFICERS.	ENLISTED MEN.	TOTAL.	RATIO OF OFFICERS TO MEN.
Volunteers	6,078	98,815	104,893	1:16.2
Regulars	144	2,139	2,283	1:14.8
Colored Troops	143	2,751	2,894	1:19.2
Total	6,365	103,705	110,070	1:16.3

¹ Heavy Artillery, acting as Infantry, is included with the Infantry.

² Does not include officers in volunteer regiments detailed on staff duty.

DIED BY DISEASE.

(Not including death in prisons.)

CLASS.	OFFICERS.	ENLISTED MEN.	TOTAL.	RATIO OF OFFICERS TO MEN.
Volunteers	2,471	165,039	167,510	1:66.7
Regulars	104	2,448	2,552	1:23.5
Colored Troops	137	29,521	29,658	1:21.5
Total	2,712	197,008	199,720	1:72.6

The total number of men enrolled was 2,772,408. Many of them enlisted for short terms and re-entered the service, and their names appear two or more times on the rolls. Reduced to a three years' standard, the total enrollment would equal 2,320,272 men. This would give the following percentages: —

KILLED OR DIED OF WOUNDS.

CLASS.	ENROLLED.	KILLED.	PER CENT.
Volunteers	2,067,175	104,893	5.0
Regulars ¹	67,000	2,283	3.4

Cause not stated	28	12,093	12,121
Total	9,584	349,944	359,528

¹ In addition to this number, there were 5,290 who died while prisoners, and who are included in the other items of this classification. The total number of Union, soldiers who died while in the hands of the enemy, according to this official report; was 30,156. The causes of their deaths are classified as follows: From disease, 24,866; wounds, 2,072; sunstroke, 20; accidents, 7; drowning, 7; killed after capture, 104; executed by enemy, 64; causes known but not classified, 319; cause not stated, 2,697; total, 30,156. But owing to the imperfect records kept at some of the Confederate prisons, the deaths are not all included in the foregoing statement. The mortality of Union prisoners, as shown by the graves, has been estimated at 36,401.

SUPPLEMENTARY RECORD

“CUSHING GUARDS”

IN THE WAR WITH SPAIN

1898-99

THE WAR WITH SPAIN.

The blowing-up of the battleship Maine, with the loss of 266 American sailors, in the harbor of Havana, Feb. 15th, 1898; the ultimatum of President McKinley to the Spanish government, in which he demanded the evacuation of Cuba by the Spanish forces, with their refusal to do so, — resulted in the declaration of war against Spain by the Congress of the United States, April 21st, 1898. This action was immediately followed with a call by President McKinley, dated April 23d, for 125,000 volunteers for the army. Massachusetts was requested to furnish four regiments of infantry and three heavy batteries to serve for the period of two years, unless sooner discharged.

In General Order dated April 28th, His Excellency Governor Wolcott designated the Eighth Regiment of Infantry, M. V. M., as one of the four regiments privileged to volunteer under the President's call. That the response was prompt is evinced by the fact that on May 5th the entire regiment reported at the State camp-ground at South Framingham, and on the 11th was mustered into the United States service for the period designated. On the 16th of May the regiment left the State for Chickamauga Park, Ga., where they remained until August 23d; from which date until November 10th it was at Lexington, Ky., when it changed to Americus, Ga., where it camped until January 10th, 1899, when it embarked on the transport Michigan at Savannah, Ga., for Matanzas, Cuba, arriving on the 13th. The regiment continued in Cuba until April 3d, when it left for Boston, where it was mustered out of the United States service, April 28th, 1899.

Company A, of the 8th Reg. Mass. Vols., the Cushing Guards of this city, was mustered into the United States service with three officers and seventy-four men, May 11th, 1898.

Under the call of the President of May 25th, the regiment was recruited to the army standard of 106 men to a company. Company A received 35 recruits, making its aggregate membership while in the service 112 officers and men. Of this number, 1 died of disease, 3 were discharged for disability, 1 dropped as a minor, 5 transferred, 1 dishonorably discharged, and 2 deserted.

The Cushing Guards was one of the oldest military organizations in the State, having been organized in 1778 as the Newburyport Artillery Company. During the War of the Revolution it was sent to Newport, R.I., to re-enforce General Sullivan. It was one of the first companies to respond to the call of Governor Andrew in 1861, and was three times mustered into the United States service during the rebellion. Its early and continued service to the State, with its honorable and patriotic record, ought to have preserved its organization, and continued it as a part of the State Militia. It was disbanded by General Order No. 11, Adjutant-General's Office, March 12th, 1902.

INDEX OF NAMES

INDEX OF NAMES.

In compiling this index the author was confronted with the fact that the records of the city and state, as well as the army muster rolls revealed many discrepancies in names. In addition to this was the spelling of names differently by members of the same family and by the same individual.

It has been the occasion of much careful research, and finally the author decided to make the Individual Records and Index give all names the correct spelling, ascertained up to the time of publishing, and to these the reader is respectfully referred when desiring to find the name of any relative or friend recorded in the book.
